Dear Chris,

Thanks for the letter concerning Rose Mary Nelson. If she has been so busy with the Rose research, probably best not to bother her. Sure she will share her finds with the Association, which will eventually show up in the reports we order.

You are probably right about Verna not contacting Rose Mary, on your advice, and though I am surprised, it could have slipped her mind. This would surprise me about my cousin, because she is a good researcher. She has shared more Rose information with me than anyone -

I have had no contact with any of the following names you mentioned: Sandra Kraack, Linda Zinte, Kathleen Crum, Susan Mattelfs, and Alice Lenker - so have no idea of their relationship to the Charles and Rebecca Rose family. Sherwood Conner, as is Verna, a cousin. I was a little surprised at the list of names that I didn't know. I guess they must not be actively involved in their Rose research, as none have made any contact with me as a result of my query in the Rose Family Bulletin concerning Charles Rose.

Have had a few letters concerning my query in the DAR Magazine concerning the location of burial of Charles and Rebecca Rose (Feb 1983). One nice letter from a descendant of Frederick Ice (Charles lived near Ice's Ferry). She and her husband went to Monongalia Co. three years ago for research and found that the original cemetery where the Ice's and many of the early settlers were buried was now under the Cheat Lake. The Cheat River was dammed many years ago to create the lake. She said the only thing there was a marker in bronze stating "David Adam Ice, first white child born in West Virginia". She said it was quite sad. She did locate an historian, Glenn D. Lough, of Fairmont, W. VA., who was able to give her much information about the people. I have called the man, the author of the book, Now and long ago, about the area of West Virginia and he was unable to give me any information about the Charles Rose family. He knew they were there, but had no information. He told me to contact a Mr. Jack Anderson of Shinnston, W. VA., who has been working on the Rose family for two years, or rather was working on the family when he last talked to him, two years ago. I have written to Mr. Anderson, but wonder if it is the John and Rebeckah Bowen Rose family. Really anxious to hear from the man.

Also, my DAR query brought correspondence from a descendant of Joseph Powell and Rachel Rose Powell who believes that Charles and Rachel are siblings. I told her that others think the same, but it had not been proven to me. Mentioned the will of Ezekiel listing Charles and Rachel, which she knew about, but told her that Rachel was married long before Ezekiel's will and her married name was not mentioned in the will. I also, told her that no one had, as yet proven to me, that Ezekiel was the father of Charles Rose.

My very long list of Roses in the Genealogical Helper "Roots Cellar" brought one reply - someone needing help on their Oklahoma Cherokee Indian line - how about that! I wrote her a nice note and told her I would keep an eye out for her Bruno's from Italy to Colorado who married Oklahoma Cherokees, in 1870 or 1880 or so??

The June 1983 trip sound very exciting. I, as do you, feel that the deeds in Monongalia County surely will show something about the Charles Rose family and maybe some of the other Roses who passed through and owned land there. I had written to the county clerk and asked for assistance in obtaining the Rose deeds. Guess I had overstayed my welcome with him, he did not answer my letter. He has been very good, but that must have been too much.

I have been so leery of "unknown" researchers since I got burned in Hunterdon County, NJ, that I am afraid to hire anyone. Dear Roxanne Carkhuff of Hunterdon Genealogical Services, Ringoes, NJ, still has my $40.00. She cashed my check in August, 1982, and refuses to answer my letters. She did four hours research for me (40.00) after some months and my calling her twice to get the results and explained that due to the illness of her mother she was so behind. Her mother went into a home and she was, again, available and advertising in the Helper, so I contacted her and asked that she go ahead with the other recommended research (Charles Rose's signature on marriage bond and several other items). I sent the items I wanted her to do and the check. I have been hoping she will advertise in the Helper - SO WILL I - I will just run an ad asking her to contact me about the research work I had scheduled since I have been unable to find a correct address for her - not nice really, but it makes me a bit unhappy. Roxanne had advertised for years in the Helper, so thought it safe. She really did a good job for me, so just do not understand.

Someone recently donated some old Hoosier Genealogists to the library where I work. Since I work in technical processing at the library, I do all of the cataloging for the Genealogy Room and, how fun, get to go over everything before it goes to the shelves. I noted a few marriages for Roses and copied them. You may have all dated of the marriages which I am enclosing, but hope some are new. We are quite proud of our genealogy collection at the library. For such a small city, our collection now numbers over five hundred books and many bound periodicals, plus donated microfilm. Our genealogy society is quite active and all dues goes to the purchase of books which is matched by the library. I just ordered over 600.00 for this year and am having a good time "reading" as I catalog, since they are arriving. Four books have been purchased in memory of my Mother by friends and the DAR Chapter always purchases a book in memory of a deceased member, so our little library is growing, thanks to the genealogy society, friends and the City of Bartlesville. Two representatives of LDS are here to begin filming local church and county records and were amazed at our collection. I might mention that if, as a researcher, you have need of any Cherokee or Delaware Indian records, our Bartlesville Public Library History Room, has extensive records concerning both tribes. The Delaware collection is very good. A young woman, two years ago, spent several months in Bartlesville, doing her dissertation on the Delawares. By the way, I am not the PR for the library, though it looks like it!

Thanks for the letter, but guess I will not contact the other Charles Rose researchers. I will share with you what I find, but will probably feel better doing it myself. I must have proofs and so many send guesses. Dear Cousin Sherwood Conner is such a nice man, but he sends so many things without proof and never, never tells me, even when I ask, where did you find that? Since I like real--proofs, I am enclosing a certified copy of the marriage record of James Conner and Elsie Rose. The Charles Rose report can now be changed from DAR marriage to vital record, Monongalia Co. VA.

Thanks much,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Received your nice letter today and was pleased with all of the addresses of the Charles Rose family researchers. May try to contact some a bit later.

I, also today, received from the New Jersey Archives, a copy of the original will and inventory of Ezekiel Rose. It is very hard to read, all very big nine pages. Guess it is amazing that it has survived since 1768. Do you have copies of the original? If not drop me a card and I will copy it for you. The inventory is interesting, in that it mentions first names of some gentlemen - such as Isaac Woolverton (Hannah's husband ???) and several others.

I was amazed that the Archives sent me copies of two letters from people who have also, requested material on Ezekiel Rose. How neat! One I already have corresponded with, but the other is a new name. They are both researching the Joseph Powell and Rachel Rose family from PA. (who were married in Hunterdon Co.). One lives in KY and the other in WA state. I have already had a couple of letters from the KY researcher (from my query in the DAR magazine after I was accepted on Charles Rose).

Must be off - let me know if you need copies of the Ezekiel Rose will and inventory. They will not be good. The inventory is very good, but the will has apparently, been badly torn and "repaired" - hard to read.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris -

Enclosed, are copies of the material I received from Roxanne Carkhuff of Hunterdon (NJ) Genealogical Services pertaining to Charles Rose, of New Jersey and maybe, Monongalia, VA (now W. VA.).

She, as we, appears to think it a possibility that they are one and the same, but with no real proof. I really do not know where to go from here. I am happy with what I received (though it took a while) and think I will follow her suggestions for further research. I would appreciate any suggestions which you might tender.

I recently, at the urging of friends(officers of the local DAR chapter) submitted my papbrs on the service of Charles Rose of New Jersey and Virginia. They wrote to me and commended me on the submitted papers "as excellent", but still need to prove that he actually lived in New Jersey. They said that others had tried to join on this man's service, but could not prove that he was the same Charles Rose. Wish I knew exactly who they were. I would gladly exchange all information. They asked me to, as soon as possible, ~~to~~ send proof of residence during the Revolution in Hunterdon County. Everything else was acceptable. The local Registrar said she had never hear of the DAR writing to a prospective member and commending them on their submitted papers.

Would like you to, when you have time, to look over the enclosed and send your comments.

Please send all correspondence to the following address:

I had thought sending my mail to the Bartlesville Library where I am employed would be more convbnient - it really is not. My boss, the library director, is rather slow in processing the mail, hence, I receive mine several days after it arrives in Bartlesville. So, I would appreciate if all mail is sent to my residence.

Must send the Charles Rose material to my cousin, Verna Rosacrans in Moxee City, WA., so will get busy with her letter.

Enjoying the quarterly index and anxious to order the rest of the quarterlies and look forward to the next index.

Thanks for the new catalog and wonder if the Charles Rose material includes the material I submitted. If so, I would like to order andupdated report.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Received both of my books and they are good. I am looking forward to volume two of the Rose war records.

I am enclosing an enlarged copy of a postcard I received yesterday from a Steven P. Hill. I had answered a query (The Roots Cellar) concerning an Abigail Rose that he had run in 1981. He never answered my letter...until his postcard. If Mr. Hill is correct, that Abigail and Charles Rose are brother and sister, then the 1830 census of Greene County, PA for Thomas and Ruth Scudder Rose now makes sense. The female 10-15, has until now, never been identified and "could be a relative or helper" per the Charles Rose report. It seems she may be Abigail. And it makes further sense that Ruth Scudder Rose, wife of Thomas, would have named her daughter, Abigail, after her mother, Abigail Clark Scudder. I will let you know what I find out from Mr. Hill, if he answers my next letter.

Seems we just keep plugging along and adding a Rose now and then. I know it seems almost like shoveling snow in Siberia, but it is worth it...I am sure.

Recently had contact here with a lady doing research on James Rose of Hardeman County, TN. I told her I would look up the name in the quarterlies and let her know if I found a thing. When I started looking, I found so much that I went to the catalog of Rose research reports, feeling that you had probably made one report on this name. Sure enough you had, so gave her a copy of the catalog and suggested that she order the report.

I have another lady who probably has a Rose line, probably Arkansas to Okla., but does not have enough information for me to help. I have advised her to order the death certificate for the lady and we will go from there. Rather interesting, the lady is buried in a little country cemetery where my husband's grandparents (also from Ark.) are buried. Several families from the Carroll-Madison-Newton Cos. in Ark. came before 1900 to an area near Cleveland, OK.

Best close,

Mary

Dear Chris -

The bulletins arrived on 27 August inggood shape and record time, I guess. I am losing sleep trying to read them as fast as possible. Have run across several items concerning Jonathan Rose and family of Hunterdon Co., NJ to Fleming Co. KY (I was surprised to find, page 1125 that the group went to Brown Co., ILL - that I did not know.)

Let's not announce as yet, that DAR has accepted Charles Rose as a patriot. Even though the Bartlesville Chapter has been notified, I have not. The Xerox I sent to you was their notification by post card when they passed on my papers, but would rather wait until I AM TOLD - by NSDAR from Washington.

Even thought I feel pretty sure of Charles Rose's tie to Ezekiel and Tormut, I have absolutely no proof, so will continue to research as if I did not know his parents, but keep Ezekiel in mind. I do not doubt that he came from Hunterdon Co., but there were other Roses (Stephen) and some of the family of Ezekiel's brothers who were there, also. Many of the same names appear in 1793 in Burlington Co., NJ and also Salem Co., NJ, so my Charles could belong to anyone. There was even a Charles Rose in Burlington Co., (and one Isaac Rose, which is interesting).

Let me know when you update the Charles Rose report, and though I am not sure, I still want an updated Tormut Rose report when completed.

Must get busy and look for Rebecca - where was she from 1820 until she died (which was after 1847)? She must be on a census in some state, but where?

Thanks for the bulletins -

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

How very nice of you to call as you passed through Oklahoma. I wish I could have gotten to where you were...but, our son was only here for an overnight from Minneapolis, MN to Taos, NM. Dick and Judy go to Taos every chance they have and are building Judy's Mom's (and theirs) adobe house on a mesa out of Taos. The pictures they bring back are wonderful, but I like things a bit more modern. The house is very pretty, both in and out...no electricity or water. Such is the life of the artist! And many live there and have built lovely studios, etc.

Now to the Rebecca Rose affidavit--do you think it would do any good to hire a researcher in Charleston to look further? I do not know of any that do research in the archives and am not sure what to ask for even if I can find someone. When you have time, please coach me and I will look for someone to do the research.

Now to the certificate, attached, of the John N. Baker...the following:

1850 Census-Monongalia Co. VA
Eastern Dist. No. 36, pg 288-B
962-963

John N. Baker	48	m	farming	3500	VA
Nancy "	48	f			VA
Elizabeth N.	26				VA
Abdrew C. "	18	m	farming		VA
Frances E."	12	f			VA
John H. "	10	m			VA

John N. Baker also had a daughter, Severa who married Nathaniel Triplett, 15 Apr 1848, Monongalia Co., VA. John N. listed as father of Severa and bondsman.

Something to think about...one George Baker married Mary Franks in Monongalia Co., VA on 23 April 1846. Mary Franks was the daughter of Jacob Franks and Rebecca Rose. Jacob listed as father of Mary and bondsman.

Now the big question, was George Baker a son of John N. Baker? If so, and I have not been able to prove a darn thing, I think Mary Franks was a granddaughter of Charles and Rebecca Rose. The following census record, also from Monongalia is quite interesting:

668-669

Jacob Franks	52	m	Farmer	4200	Penn
Rebecca "	53	f			VA
Elizabeth "	22	f			PA
Matilda "	20	f			do
Rebecca A. " f	11	f			do
William " mm	3	m			VA
Charles "	27	m	Farmer		PA

I think the little William, age 3, is probably a son of Charles, age 27. I have really tried to prove this Rebecca Franks as the daughter of Charles and Rebecca Rose, but have had not good luck. The Mrs. Harley Franks who wrote the Franks Genealogy is deceased and her daughter is not interested in genealogy and will not search her mother's records which are still extant, but in storage. I offered to pay her for her time and expenses to find the records for Jacob and Rebecca Rose Franks. She said, a few years ago, that she would if she ever had the time. Apparently, she has no interest. This is the family that Gill Brooks of Kissimmee, FL is following. I had started to look for information about Rebecca Rose Franks sometime before I heard from Gill. I had seen in a 1969 issue of Ohio Records and Pioneer Families quarterly a shortened version of the Franks genealogy which listed the marriage of Jacob Franks to Rebecca Rose. I them realized that they lived for some years in Monongalia, but both died in Fayette Co., PA. This was when my work started to prove this Rebecca as the daughter of Charles and Rebecca. No such luck, as yet, but still think she is their daughter. Speaking of Gill Brooks, she never responded to the material I sent, or the follow-up note to see if she had received the material. Maybe she is no longer living or something.

Must get off some other letters. It seems I stay behinder most of the time. Let me know your ideas concerning the Charleston research.

Thanks again for calling and the copy of the court record.

PS
I may have found Susannah Conner Rose, widow of Hopkins Rose. While working on my Conner line, found a possible connection to the Harness family and would you believe...one Adam Harness married Susannah Rose. In 1827, both Susannah Rose and Adam Harness were living in the same school district in Fayette Co., OH. Now see the following:

Darke Co., OH 1850 census - Wabash Township, pg. 269
(book does not give family/house numbers)

Harness,	Adam	56	m	VA	farmer
	Susannah	55	f	Pa
	Nimrod	22	m	O	farmer
	Henry	20	m	O
	Elizabeth	17	f	O
	Susan	15	f	O
	Adam	13	m	[redacted] O

Maybe she disappeared after the 1820 census with Hopkins, because she remarried to Adam Harness. I have not had time to look further, but have sent the info to Verna Rosacrans. Since Hopkins and Susannah's children all lived in Darke Co. in 1850, this surely makes sense. I have wondered for a bit about this Susannah Harness, since the age fit and we had not found her or another Susannah that did fit. Hope this is the right one as it will answer many questions that a lot of researchers have been looking for.

Dear Chris,

Got your letter today and I really think it looks good that the Joseph and James H. Rose in Boyd Co., KY may be the sons of Charles, son of Charles and Rebecca. I also think that the Calvin, age 33, who said he was born in KY, and lives in the adjoining county of Greenup is something to look into. Census records as you know, are not always accurate since near neighbors, passerbys and such were surely helpful in giving information. I will order the 1860 census for both counties and see if I can find Charles and his family since they disappear from Monongalia in that census year. I know they went womewhere, but really thought north because of the rumbles of war beginning late 1850s.

It really appears that both Joseph and James H. may have had second marriages. Their wives seem quite woung and their children very young for the ages of the men. These Roses may not be the sons of Charles, but it is certainly worth a try to do some work in both Boyd and Greenup to try to prove or disprove these men. It, too, is so near or on the W VA border.

I am not that interested in the ~~children~~ SONS of Charles, but find any information on the children of Charles and Rebecca will just add to the complete history of this family. I still wonder if Marion Co., W VA hold some secrets for some of the daughters, especially Mary who married ? Ross. I will guess, Henry?? But as I have said before, guesses in genealogy do not count, right?

I have become so consumed with the children of Charles, especially the sons, that I have completely neglected my own ancestor, Elsie Rose Conner. I really should get busy on her to disprove some of the mis--information that I feel that my dear cousin Sherwood Conner has given. He tells stories without proofs. I have pressed him in years past and he cannot give me answers. He names children that I can't find, marriages unrecorded and can't answer my questions. That is not my kind of genealogy. Oh well, sometimes even the fairy tales lead you to some answers.

Thanks much for the clues in KY. Will order the films for Boyd and Greenup tomorrow. I may order 1870 and back up to 1860. Not the usual way, but since they were there in 1880, it may be a better idea.

Will send what I find, if anything.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Have had a note from a Mrs. V. C. Elms, Rt. 4, Kevil, KY, 42053, as follows:

> I have what may be a breakthrough on our Rachel Rose's ancestry. A Mr. Benne, Platte City, Mo., wrote me mid Dec. that he had found her ancestry in Salt Lake City on his last trip. (I had written him in June of '84 at which time he had nothing). He says she is the dau of Ezekial & his first wife, Mary Fidler (widow of John Peatt) and that Rachel remarried Tunis Swick after Joseph Powell's death. The quick run down of Ezekials is: Tormut Rose-Harriett George/John Rose-Mary Dodge/Ezekial Rose-Mary Fidler. He also gave me the ancestry of Mary Fidler back to Nathaniel Brewster-Sarah Ludlow and beyond with allied lines. Havenft checked my data yet to determine if this is correct. Would be great if it is.

Mrs. Elms is descended from Rachel Rose m Joseph Powell, and I think she is going to be sadly disappointed if she believes that Rachel Rose Powell married #2 Tunis Swick. I know nothing about the Rachel Rose who married Tunis Swick, except the information given by Mrs. Louise Pettersen of NY in an early Rose Bulletin, but she seems to have dates and such for the children of Rachel and Tunis. Mrs. Pettersen's dates are the same, or nearly so, for the children of Rachel and Joseph. No way could Rachel Rose Powell have married #2, Tunis Swick., If Mrs. Pettersen's dates are correct.

I have told Mrs. Elms to let me know the cost of copies for the material she received from Mr. Benne and I would gladly refund her. Hope she sends the material.

She has been so insistent for over two years that Rachel Rose Powell is a daughter of Ezekiel, and without proof. I suppose it is possible, but still return to the will of Ezekiel which says "Rachel Rose". Rachel Rose was married to Joseph Powell before the will of Ezekiel, because their first child was born in 1765, and since Ezekiel named his other daughters by their married names, I would wonder why he called her Rachel Rose, if she had been married for some time??

I think the Rachel Rose Swick might be an "Andrew Rose" relative somewhere, because she did name one son Andrew (had a John, too). You probably have a lot on her, but I know little.

Received my newsletters and Bulletins for 1985. I won't let it go so long if it happens again due to computer problems, but take quite a few and just did not notice for a while. It was fun to "get them in a bunch". Thanks much.

Happy New Year and enclosing a Tulsa, Tulsa County, OK item that looks interesting, and the remainder of my Xmas stamps.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Will start out with some Tormut Rose "thoughts". See your report, page one, he married Hannah George...dau of Peter and Mary (Romig?) George. From the New England Historical & Genealogical Register, Vol. 86 (1932), page 325:

> Early Block Island Families / the Ray family
> Simon 1 Ray, of Hundon, co. Suffolk, England and of Braintree, Mass., was baptized at Cowlinge, co. Suffolk, 6 Nov. 1610, the fourth child and eldest son of Simon and Sarah (Pegrom alias Pilgrim) Ray of Hundon and Cowlinge and died at Braintree 30, 7 mo 1641. He married at Little Wratting, co. Suffolk, in 1635, Mary ROWNING, who was baptized at Hundon 12 Aug. 1613 and died at Block Island in 1694, daughter of John Rowning of Hundon and his first wife, whose name is unknown...Mary (Rowning) Ray, widow of Simon, married secondly, in New England, about 1642, Peter George of Braintree and later of Block Island, oatmeal maker, who died at Block Island in 1694. In the "Aspinwall Notarial Records," under date of 19, 9 mo. 1647 (p. 105, or p.87 of the original records) is found the following entry:
> "Peter George of Braintre Oatmeale maker & Mary his wife the daughter of John Rowneing of Hunden in the Count of Suff: Deceased, did constitute Peter Bracket of Braintree in N:England theire true & lawfull Attr: &c: to aske: of the Executors of the last will & testament of the said John Rowneing or any others from whom the same may be due or comeing to them, a certaine Legacie granted unto the sd Mary after the Decease of her former husband Symon Ray..."

The biographer, G. Andrews Moriarty, lists the following issue:

Simon Ray and Mary Rowning Ray
1. Mary b. 1636
2. Simon bapt 1638

Peter George and Mary Rowning Ray George

1. Susan	b. Feb 1642/3	m. Joseph Kent
2. Mary	b. 7 Sept 1645	m. Edward Ball
3. Hannah	b. 7 Sept 1648	m. (1) Tourmet Rose; m. (2) James Danielson
4. John	b. 24 June 1650 / d. 9 Apr 1653
5. Samuel	b. 12 Apr 1651
6. John	b. 1653 / died young
7. Peter	b. 9 Jan 1654/5 - died young
8. Sarah	bapt. 4 May 1658	m. William Dodge

Mr. Moriarty lists other volumes as apparent reference material for his article, but I do not have current access to them. Next trip to Tulsa, will see if the volumes are available there. In his articles on the Block Island families, I found rather an interesting note on page 177, same volume as above. In referring to the birth of Sarah, daughter of William and Sarah (George) Dodge of New Shoreham, who was born 24 Jan. 1674/5, he states at the bottom of page:

> *The year of birth, i.e., 1674, has been misread as 1694 by various persons, owing to the curious 7 made by the town clerk of New Shoreham at the time.

If Mr. Moriarty is correct in his footnote on that page, then your question on page 3 of the Tormut Rose report "Who is? Tormuet m. 22 July 1696 (Newport Co., R.I. VR Bk 1 p 45) had Daniel, same page ref., born 6 May 1696, may be answered. If, indeed, the town clerk wrote in such a manner, the Tormuet date is probably 1676 and the Daniel born 1676 may well be the bastard son of Tormut Rose and Hannah George, recorded on the same page in the vital records as their marriage. Though no Daniel is mentioned in the will of Tormut, if he is a son, he may have predeceased his father or is he the Daniel Rose who is listed as an owner of the West Jersey Society Lands in 1735 (which is stated, comprised nearly all of what is Hunterdon Co.) and is "not English or Dutch". (from: Early Germans of NJ, pgs. 634-635). Daniel was one owner of many for this list.

If you want any of the above material, let me know and I will Xerox it. Mr. Moriarty names some of the Rose family of Block Island who married into the families, Littlefield, Ray, and Dickens. Your report on Tormut has those marriages, but not all of the birth dates he mentions.

Now to the Rachel Rose-Tunis Swick business. I really love family genealogies with few vital records cited!! I just cannot seem to get this material in focus. There were certainly Swick families in Hunterdon Co., in VA and in NY. Most of the names the Swick children married are also, in Hunterdon Co. records, but none with the same given names with few exceptions. The 1800 census index for NY lists:

Cayuga County	Benjamin Quick	574:8
	Benjamin Swerks	540:8
	John Swert	536:8
	Martin Swicks	550:8	(page and reel #)
	John Swirks	542:8
	Ezekiel Rose	522:8
	Jacob Rose	622:8
	Peter Rose	660:8

Since the Swicks lived in Seneca Co., NY, I will guess that those in Cayuga Co., are the same. Seneca was formed from Cayuga in 1804. Do any of the above Rose families residing in Cayuga Co. in 1800 have something to do with Rachel Rose?? or just a coincidence??

Many New Jersey people did go to PA and VA after the Revolutionary War, so it is possible that Rachel and Tunis made that journey when so many did after 1781 or such. Tunis Swick is shown in, I believe, Brunswick Co., in 1810, but not 1820. This may be the son, Tunis, JR. I do not think this Rachel is a daughter of Ezekiel and Mary Fidler Rose, but suppose it possible since she is shown as having lived in Hunterdon County. The 1793 military census (NJ) does list John, Martin, Peter, Tunis Swick.

Rachel Rose and Joseph Powell / if I had to pick, I would pick Rachel Rose Swick as a daughter of Ezekiel over this Rachel. Rachel Swick continued to live in Hunterdon (no proof that I know of) and had children who lived there. Rachel Powell was apparently in PA after her marriage and stayed. I have seen no further connection to that county of Hunterdon for her family.

Now - why did Ezekiel Rose give 20 shillings to each of his married daughters AND Rachel. He gave Jerusha 20 shillings PLUS personal property. Did this indicate that, indeed, Rachel was married and not at home, so unable to use any personal property? or too far away to obtain goods?

I seem always, to answer you letters with more questions. Sending a couple of items, some strange!! Will keep on keeping on with the Ezekiel Rose bunch.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Wish storage had not been a problem for your set of NEH&G - those quarterlies are a real pprize - but guess you should be the first one to know that! I do not know any library in Oklahoma who has a full set. I have heard that the Gilcrease Art Museum in Tulsa may have a full set to be used by appointment only.

Now back to the NY Roses and Rachel Swick. For some reason, I can't put them together. The name Ezekiel is good for the Hunterdon County bunch, but I still go back to that John Rose estate settlement in Hunterdon Co., in May 1797 that was administered by Elizabeth Rose, Jacob Rose ~~and~~, John Haas and William Abbott. When the accounts of inventory were returned, Elizabeth Rose, adm. returned one item of interest "pd Robert Cummins for Rachel Swick, money left with dec'd by her...0.16.9. If Rachel Rose Swick was the daughter of Ezekiel Rose, why did she not leave money (maybe on her departure to NY or someplace) with her brother (?), Ezekiel Rose, Jr., who was still living in Hunterdon Co. Why did she leave it with this John Rose and who is he? (see RFB, vol 12, #48, page 1366).

Have had another letter from Mrs. V. C. Elms of Kevil, KY. She said that the Mr. Benne did send her eight pages of material on the Fidler-Swick family, including a good "bio" on John Fidler and Sarah Smith. She said, "There's no doubt Rachel was the dau of Ezekiel Rose, but NOT my Rachel". As you know, her Rachel married Joseph Powell. She said she would loan me the material from Mr. Benne so that I could copy it if I wanted it. Wrote right back and assured her I would be very interested.

Now to the Abraham Lacy Rose of NY - in some queries and family registry information in RFB at various times, a Frances (Haynes) Quinn of Creswell, Oregon has given the information that Abraham is a son of Cornelius and Sarah Talker Rose of NY to Ohio, etc. She also, says that this Abraham Lacy had a brother Ezekiel. In your letter you stated that this Cornelius appears to be related to a John Rose of New Jersey. Was it the John of Hunterdon Co., with whom Rachel Rose Swick left her money???

I need to back up on Daniel being the bastard son of Tormut Rose and Hannah George. I failed to note that an additional birthdate was possible for Daniel, either 1 or 6 May 1677. If they were married 22 July 1676, then Daniel, who evidently predeceased his parents, was not illegitimate. More research in Block Island and Newport records really does need to be done.

Was looking over your Philadelphia trip report and noticed that a David Rose (will of 1837) and his family also have Hunterdon Co., and NJ ties. His son, Jacob S. Rose, M.D., is mentioned . See the following from your reports:
Checked RFB as best I could, but couldn't seem to find out just who this group with Hunterdon ties could be. Not really interested in adding another "unknown" Hunterdon Rose to my mind, but such things do seem to pop up when you see them.

Thanks for your letter and will copy anything I receive from Mrs. Elms and send it on to you.

Sincerely,

S., Mary

Dear Chris,

As with so many of the Rose families, the location in various census years does not mean relationships, but just thought since Rachel Rose Swick was in New York in the same county as other Roses, she might have followed family members after her years of roaming to PA, VA, NJ and then to NY. If she is one and the same Rachel.

The only tie to Hunterdon Co., NJ for the David Rose, of Philadelphia, family seems to be that Jacob S. Rose, MD and son of David married Sarah Price , dau of Chandler Price. The Price heirs sold something to one John Myers of Hunterdon Co., for $2496 (Bk 48 p 336-338, 17 Apr. 1830). I can't tell if this is land in Hunterdon or in Philadelphia, but is recorded in Hunterdon per your report. Think the reason this caught my eye is that Charles Rose of Amwell, son of Ezekiel Rose of said place decd, said ward makes JOHN PRICE as grdn. This Price family may not have had a thing to do with Hunterdon Co.

You were to send my December quarterly - it has not arrived. Please be nice to me.

I asked you a question about the Charles and Jane Rose kids and the 1880 Soundex - If you ask Chris the right question, this is what you find:

Sub D No. 2 E. Little Sandy
P. O. Greenup Court House

Charles Rose	54	M	Day Laborer	--- 300	VA
Jane Rose	50	FF			PA	can't read/write
Joseph Rose	25	M	Day Laborer	--- 100	VA
J. H. Rose	22	M	Day Laborer		VA	can't read/write
Samuel Rose	20	M	Day Laborer		VA
E. J. Rose	18	F			VA	attended sch this yea
Mary E. Rose	16	F			VA	attended sch this yea
Calvin Rose	13	M			VA	attended sch this yea
S. A. Rose	10	F			VA	attended sch this yea

There is no doubt that this is the same Charles of the 1850 census of Monongalia Co., VA and that they have added another female, S. A. Rose after that census. I have not found them in the 1870 Greenup Co. census, but am re-reading both Greenup and Boyd for 1870. I did find a very curious listing for Greenup in 1870 as follows:

1870 - Greenup Co., KY
Hunnewell Furnace
406-400

James Rose	61	M	W	Farming	---- 100	Penn
Josephine	34	F	W	Keeping house		W. VA
Samuel	30	M	W	Iron ore miner		W. VA
Calvin	23	M	W	Works at Furnace		W. VA
Emily Arnold	28	F	W	Seamstress		Ohio
Robert --	2	M	W			Kentucky

This listing is so strange - it almost "fits" the Charles listing in 1860, except for James and Josephine and their ages are the followup 10 years later for Jane and Joseph. The Samuel, Calvin and Emily ages fit perfectly. I just cannot think that this big an error could show up on a census. I have seen names wrong, ages wrong and birth places wrong, even an occasional listing of male when it was certain the name was female, but have never seen a Jane become a James or a Joseph become a Josephine -

I have ordered the 1880 census for both Boyd and Greenup and will send all of the info from all when I have finished reading them. Wonder if the James ? and Josephine ? will be Jane and Joseph by 1880??

This Charles and Rebecca Rose family research is like pulling teeth - slow and painful. I know we will find things as we go, but I sure wish it went faster. I spend so much time and find so little. Guess each discovery, as with Charles and Jane in Greenup, is a step forward. I have decided to dive into Marion Co., VA for some looking. Some of the Monongalia people were probably taken into that county when it was formed from Monongalia and Harrison. I wonder about the Ross families that ended up there as Mary Rose was listed as Mary Ross in her father's will. She was likely born NJ as she was already married in 1816, so this may be a clue to fook for her.

Well, will stop this for now and thanks for the clue that led me to find Charles in 1860. Though he is not "my" Rose, still of the same family and will continue to search for all of them.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Have I somehow been dropped from the mailing list by accident or have the Association newsletters and Bulletins been discontinued? I have only received the January, 1985 newsletter and the March, 1985 Bulletin (quarterly). Each time I have written, I have meant to inquire and don't think of it until the letter is posted. Surely would like to get "up to date" on the items if they have been published.

I have just finished transcribing the 1880 Soundex for Rose / West Virginia. Has anyone else done this state and do you have it? If not let me know and I will copy it for you to publish in the Bulletin. I have also, done Missouri, a big one, and Iowa, but think you probably have these. It was such a lot of work and it did not help me a bit on Charles Rose/the grandchildren-- Wish I had Ohio, but think it would do me under. Well, Iowa did have William Rose, son of Charles, son of Charles. If the birth states of the children of William are correct, seems William and Elizabeth Artist Rose lived in Wisconsin after their marriage, then back to Iowa when the third child was born. Had never heard that!

I have really come to a stopping place on my Charles Rose research. Think both Verna Rosacrans and I feel the same. We just cannot seem to go anywhere. It still seems almost impossible to think that six of the ten children of Charles and Rebecca Rose haveso completely disappeared. Charles (son of Charles and Rebecca) must be somewhere in 1860 and still have young children. His son Calvin was only three in 1850, so should still be at home, wherever home was in 1860. Reading the 1880 Soundex gave me hope I could find some of those younger Rose males who should still be blessing their wives with many Rose babies. Since we have not found Charles and Rebecca with slaves on census records, I suspect they all must have gone North between 1850 and the Civil War, but where.

Will close - let me know if you need the Soundex.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Have gone over the Philadelphia report and find it most interesting. So many of the names, surnames, are so familiar to our research in NJ and connected with the Rose family there – though not surprising that they end up in PA. To only mention a few: George, Muirheld, Phillips, Oliver, Price, Connor, Hopkins and Penrose. Plus, the McShane!

Wonder if the Cropley Rose and James Rose, both land owners in Monongalia Co., VA are somehow connected and also, the early John.?

Thanks for the early records index of Monongalia Co. I am enclosing a reply of sorts concerning a request for the deeds as mentioned on the index. It did not work, so have no idea what the index means. The clerk did send the names of two who might do research in that county. Will contact the first listed, Mrs. West, to see what she does and the cost.

By the way, on my request to the county clerk, I put the apparent deeds in an order by book and page to make it easier for them to find them. After doing so, I noticed that there appeared to be several Rose transactions between the known Charles Rose deeds if they do, as appears by book and page to go in chronological order. We know that Rose/Hunt and Rose/Caine belong to Charles. Some must be Cropley, James and John.

Will close with no good items and write to Mrs. West. Will let you know if I find a thing.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Returning your check - don't know what counties you entered on your trip, but when I see the list, there is probably one I will order. If not, put it in the postage pot. I really had no need for Allegheny Co., PA, but thought some early Rose records might clear up the John (son of Charles) who stated he was born in Mercer and then lived with friendly Indians, etc.

I have seriously been thinking of hiring a researcher to get into the material at the State Archives in Charleston. There is a researcher, Boyd Plumley, who advertises in the Genealogical Helper most of the time. Wish I knew someone who had used his services. He lives at Welch, W VA, which is quite a distance from Charleston, so do not know whetber to pursue this or not. I would bet he is expensive - I really would like someone who lives nearer the Archives. Seems I remember that Verna had written the Archives some years ago and asked for names of researchers. They answered her letter and stated they were sending names, but never did.

I sent Gill Brooks of Florida material on Charles Rose - never heard a word from her. It was not returned, so sure it was delivered. I have dropped her a note to inquire if she did, in fact, receive it. I feel pretty certain that the Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks is the daughter of Charles and Rebecca Rose, as does Gill. I am enclosing census records for this family. Even if she is not a daughter of Charles and Rebecca, she is indeed, still a Rose belonging to some family.

I, also, still "guess" that the Rachel Lewellin, born NJ, wife of Benjamin listed on the 1850 census of Monongalia Co., may be Rachel Rose. The father of Benjamin was one Doctor Lewellin, one of the executors of the estate of Charles Rose. The Lewellin family, along with the family of Charles and Jane Rose disappear from Monongalia County after the 1850 census. I bet when we find them again, they will be in the same county.

Enclosing a wedding that was in today's paper. The Baldwins are well-known osteopathic physicians in Tulsa. Dick family has some osteopaths who were friends and colleagues.

I am glad your trip was a good one. Anxious to hear where you went.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Received the items ordered and was happy you sent it first class. It does take such a long time book rate. Enclosing postage to cover your good idea.

Thanks, I think, for your additional thoughts concerning the Rose mess in PA, KY and VA. You mentioned again, the East Jersey and Rockaway River areas in New Jersey. I am enclosing information which may get you a bit nearer to this area. Surprised the NJ Historical Society could not give you a good and direct answer on your visit. I found it in the Library here without much trouble. The Rockaway River is in Morris County (1983 Rand McNally) very near the Sussex County line. East Jersey Was formerly owned by Sir George Carteret and his wife, Elizabeth. Sir George's fourth cousin or nephew, forgot which, was the first governor of NJ. A look at a current map of NJ (not included) will give you an idea of the large amount of NJ included in East Jersey.

I have written to Betty Jean (Mrs. Gill) Brooks of Florida concerning my thoughts on the Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks, lived Monongalia Co. VA. and Fayette Co. PA. I did not copy any material, but suggested we correspond if she has not proven the parentage of Rebecca.

I have recently joined the West Virginia Genealogical Society, a new group, in their second year. Their quarterly is not a slick publication, but seems to be dwelling on county records, queries, ancestor charts, etc. I have hopes it will grow and become a good voice for the state. In the first issue, 1985, one of the published ancestor charts is of Fannie Iris West Moore (her husband, Gregg Davis Moore is an officer of the society). Fannie shows her g-g-g-grandfather to be Charley Rose, b 1796 and wife, Elizabeth, b. 1812. Fannie is descended through their son, Robert Marshall Rose, 1844-1901. I would guess this might be the son of Isaac and Margaret (Forsythe?) Rose. Sent her a family group sheet and asked her to list any other children of Charley and Elizabeth and that I might be able to help. Any Roses we can collect may help someone -

I am sending along some items to further confuse you. Sure you have the material from the Horn Papers -

Just read the 1860 census for Monongalia Co. VA - not a Charles Rose family member left in the county, that I can see. We know they were there in 1850 and by court records, there in 1854 - wonder where they went??

Will keep looking,

Mary

Dear Chris,

The HORN PAPERS are very strange and have been studied by "experts" - who is right? I know very little about them, but do know of the controversy. As with all family histories or county histories, one must take them with a grain of salt.

Am enclosing the 1860 census info from Monongalia Co. VA. I was in Tulsa at the genealogical library (Rudsill North Regional, a part of the Tulsa City/County Library) and as I was leaving, the librarian greeted me with the news that they had just acquired the 1860 census for several states (a $5,000 gift). I grabbed the 1860 Monongalia and spent an additional 45 minutes. The enclosed was my effort. Did not get all of the Lynch family, but will copy that at a later date.

Have heard from Fannie Moore in West Virginia about her Isaac. She sent a family group sheet for her Charley who married Elizabeth - does not match the 1850 census of Braxton Co. - I was surprised. The children are not all the same and ages are quite different. She said she had the 1850 census, but did not explain the differences.

Have also, heard from Betty Jean Brooks (Gill is her nickname, pronounced Jill), concerning the Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks. She does not know much, or so she says. She seems quite interested in adding Charles Rose as a supplemental line to her DAR record. Wish she had not said that. I think it is wonderful if she can prove such, but I am most interested in PROVING this Charles Rose family, EVERYONE! all of the sons and daughters. I suspect she is a bit older since her father was born in 1879 and maybe this is what is important, but I want to know about all of that family. I am happy that I joined DAR on Charles Rose, because all of the information I sent for proofs will forever, be kept on microfilm for other researchers. Though DAR may seem to many to be an exclusive group, they are certainly one of the good record keepers of our nation. Will write to Gill, but really don't know what to send or say.

Now to Tormut Rose and his group. Cousin Verna Rosacrans from Moxee City, WA called the other night. This is great, because she also, thinks we need to pursue those who went to NJ, namely, Ezekiel-John-James (sons of John^2 Tormut^1) Ezekiel died Hunterdon Co., 1768, testate. John died Salem Co., 1755, intestate (do we have his children ?). James died Cumberland Co., 1749, testate (do we have his children?). Where did all of these children go? Verna suggests that we pursue all of the children of these three sons who went to NJ. She thinks some will be found in the same areas that we are researching Charles Rose and his group. I have the children of Jacob Quick, Jr. who married #1 Jane Rose (I wonder if the Quick Genealogy by Arthur Quick is wrong and he married #1 Jean Rose, daughter of Ezekiel, see his will) and married #2 Jerusha Rose. My NJ researcher Roxanne Carkhuff said that Jacob Quick, Jr. married sisters, the daughters of Ezekiel Rose. Her husband is a descendant of the Quick family. A sister of Jacob, Jr., who married the Rose girls, married a Carkhuff, so she probably knows what she is talking about. She says that they are interred at Van Leiws Corner Cemetery (Jacob and his family, Jane and Jerusha). I guess this is near her. One of the interesting names of the children of Jacob, Jr., and Jerusha - Mary Quick married Gideon DeCamp Ewing. A Ewing was the attorney for Rebecca Rose, widow of Charles, in her application for a RW pension. Well, we best look for some of these kids - they may be our answer.

Let us get on these NJ sons of John^2 Tormut^1. Also, the daughters, if we know who they married. We often forget the daughters hold many of the answers!

Must share an exciting thing - I was an elected delegate from our local chapter of DAR to the National convention now in progress. Do to the poor health of my Dad, I decided not to make the trip to Washington, DC. The four of us had planned to spend 10 days there. Dad is not doing good at all, but had saved my $$$ thinking I could go. It didn't work out, but still had the $$$. Husband, Dick, thought I should go ahead with plans to go to DC. When I did not go, the $$$ went for my new $1200 microfilm reader. I am so excited about having it. It certainly does fill my little room and Dick is sure the day is near when I cannot even get into my "genealogy pit". It is fun knowing I can now read when I am ready and not have to find time to go to the library. After working at the library all day, I am not to happy to go back in the evening. I think it will be a fun thing to add to my research.

Wish I had a research area for your trip this year, but other than wondering if my Charles Rose in Berks Co., PA in 1790 is the Charles Rose I am looking for, I've no areas in mind. Berks is quite close to Hunterdon Co., NJ, and Charles should have been head of a household by 1790. Where is he??

Oh, yes, concerning the 1860 census, Monongalia Co., VA - the court records pertaining to John Rose / sone of John/Eda Boyce Rose / were last in 1854. That is when John asked for the courts to settle the Charles Rose estate. In one of the papers, John Rose states that his father, John Rose, died before Hopkins Rose (Hopkins died before 1823, I think). This surely throws a monkey wrench into the John Rose biography from Meigs Co., Ohio. It states John Rose died in 1850. It is also interesting to note that Susannah Shriver who married John Rose, married #2, Job Decker. She was 20 years his senior - and had children, we guess, near Job Decker's age. Biographies are great for genealogists - - I guess?

Best close - I've sent nothing to help, again, but still looking. Guess this is what matters.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I am seeking information on the family of Rose. Your name and address is from the Genealogical Helper of January-February 1983. You also submitted the names of Alsey Rose, R1816, Monongalia, W Va.; Charles Rose, D 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; Charles Rose, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; Freelove Rose, R1816, Monogalia, W. Va.; Hannah Rose, $ 1816, Monogalia, W. Va.; Hopkins Rose, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; Rose, John, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; Mary R. Rose, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; Rebeckah Rose, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; Rebecca Rose, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va.; and Thomas Rose, R 1816, Monongalia, W. Va., which were listed in the Ancestor Name List.

My great grandfather Ralph Rose, b 1818, Lake Ontario, Canada, d 22 Mar 1881. He married Minerva Sagers, abt 1848. She was born 5 June 1809, LeRoy, Genessee, N. Y. I am seeking his parents and his brothers and sisters.

Your family record, and other information which you may have, will greatly assist in tracing our family of Rose into the dim ages of the past.

Any information on the Rose family will be greatly appreciated. Also please send me any names and addresses of others who might have information on the Rose family.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Chris,

Thanks for the renewal notice. I like the idea much. I take several quarterlies and only Ohio Genealogical Society (and the Helper) are kind enough to remind me. With working, I can use all the help I can get!

Haven't heard from you or written in months concerning my Charles Rose bunch. I have not done much research since last July. My Dad has been in very poor health and on December 5, had a serious stroke and is now in a nursing home. It takes much of my free time driving the 100 miles to his house every other weekend. I am so far behind on my correspondence. A cousin of my husband's died several months ago and "willed" me her 30 years of BUNCH family research. It is almost another full time job answering those queries. She did not only our Bunch family, but collected all Bunch information, so receive letters from all researchers. It is fun, but I am certainly not equipped to handle such a large volume of mail and work eight hours each day at the library. She was in the process of "redoing" much of her material when she didd suddenly. Part of the big chore has been to try to refile some of the material which she had pulled to begin new notebooks. She was an excellent genealogist and most sharing. A large part of the book, Parkes and Bunch on the trail West, by Alice Park of Washington, DC, was contributed by Geneva King.

Looking forward to your list of thoughts on the Charles Rose family. Both Verna Rosacrans and I have just about given up on this family. We both are sure that you have in your computer, all of the information needed, but we are just not asking the right questions (that is genealogy). I cannot believe that Charles and Rebecca could have so many children that completely vanished. Five out of the six daughters completely vanished. I told Verna that they probably all became nuns and took the name Sister Mary something. No, my Charles Rose was most certainly not Catholic (I am), but if he had been, a more honest person he would have been and left me all sorts of clues. I think he was a Quaker who ran away from home for serving in the RW. One day we will probably solve this puzzle.

Hope your 1985 is a good year.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Thanks so much for your "thoughts" concerning Tychicus, Ezekiel, Isaac and Charles Rose – I have spent many hours going over Rose Family Bulletins trying to tie these four names together with no success. Wish I had an index to 1974-1981 and know it will be done as soon as possible. I am surprised that you did not include the other Isaac who married Margaret Leyde. He, also, lived apparently in Washington Co., PA and has children with similar names. I have found only a possibility of a connection between Charles Rose and John Rose (m Hannah Addleman). Several land sales were made in Scotland Co., Missouri between Jotham Rose (grandson of Charles) and one Christopher Rose (also Jotham made several deals with others of Greene Co. PA – Hixenbaugh, Overturff, etc.). Is this Christopher Rose, wife Margaret C., a grandson of John and Hannah Addleman Rose? The 1850 census of Greene Co., PA for Jacob Rose (son of John and Hannah) lists a son, Christ., age 21.

Conyers Cemetery – Scotland Co. MO

Christopher Rose	2 Oct 1829 – 24 Mar 1904
Margaret Rose	3 Feb 1840 – 2 Aug 1923

Jacob Rose (son of John and Hannah) gave to Christopher Rose, $800 in his will of 1864, Greene Co. PA. Does this indicate that Christopher was possibly not living in the county to receive land? and therefore, received money.

Why did Ezekiel Rose (son of Isaac and Margaret Forsythe? Rose) name a son Fielding Rose? See 1850 census, Braxton Co. VA. This name seems to belong to another bunch of Roses! Also, William Rose (son of Isaac and Margaret) in his War of 1812 pension claim stated he enlisted from Botetourt Co. VA. William married Martha Passinger on 27 Oct 1815 in Botetourt Co. VA. See 1850 census of Braxton Co. VA for them. Also, see RFB, Mar/82 for his 1812 pension claim.

I am still searching the RFB's for further "guesses" and making notes which I will send later.

Now some questions for you. Who is the Rachel Rose who married Jacob Franks (2-20-1798 – 12-21-1875) son of Michael Franks, III and Amy First? From Marriages of Monongalia Co. VA (by Crickard):

Charles Franks m Sarah Jane John	11 June 1850
Michael Franks m Caroline Lewellen	23 Sept 1846
Mary Franks (dau of Jacob) m George Baker	23 Apr 1846
Harriett Franks (dau of Jacob) m John S. Hare	22 Oct 1849

Much of this Franks family apparently lived in Fayette, Greene Cos, PA and some in West Virginia. Is this Rachel the daughter of Charles and Rebecca Rose or the daughter of [redacted]? JOHN AND HANNAH ADDLEMAN Rose?

Or does the following fit -

1850 census Monongalia Co. VA

814-815	Benjamin Lewellen		60	b VA
	Rachel	"	55	b NJ
	Charles	"	26	b VA
	Rebecca	@	20	b VA
	Mary J.	"	19	b VA
	Leeann (?)	"	15	b VA
818-819	Charles Rose (probably the Son of Charles and Rebecca)

Along with Rebecca, Charles Rose in 1816 named a Doctor Lewellen as executor of his estate. Interesting isn't it??

Now my questions - do you have anyone researching a Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks or possibly anyone researching Rachel Rose who married Benjamin Lewellen? I can't seem to get anywhere with this, but it just keeps nagging me. I have mentioned the Lewellen connection to you before, but it still stays with me. There is a Jacob Franks in Greene Co., PA in 1850, but have not gotten the census to see if he has a wife Rebecca and where she says she is born. It will drive me crazy if it is NJ.

It would really be neat if we could prove these are two daughters of Charles and Rebecca Rose. Those daughters must be somewhere!

We know Charles bought his first land in Monongalia in 1796 - maybe the above Rachel Lewellen, b ca 1795 in NJ is his daughter. I have had "ideas" before that paid off. I was positive for three years that my husband's ancestor was one Anderson Nunneley and finally proved that Anderson's son Alex and my husband's Joseph A. Nunneley were one and the same.

Another question - is the Elizabeth Rose who married Asher Cox in Fleming Co., KY in 1813 a daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth Hixson Rose? Jonathan, the son of Ezekiel and Mary Fidler Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ. Do we have other names of the children of Jonathan and Elizabeth Rose? Maybe, Ezekiel, Elizabeth and Jonathan H. Rose. Who are the other three?

Enclosing an orderfor index and census records.

Will continue to look for the possible connections for the names you sent. I can't really see any at this point, except geographical, which could include several more names.

A Bartlesville man is researching an Elisha Rose who married Elizabeth Cox. He feels that there is a tie to Tychicus. Apparently has quite a bit of information on the Greene Co. PA Rose families and has attended their Rose family reunion a few years ago in Greene Co. He has promised to bring the information to me and let me copy it. I begged him to contact you, but no success yet. Elisha was born 1812 in Greene Co. PA., and he is trying tp find his father. Will copy anything he has, if I ever get to see it.

Mary

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Rose:

I have recently received information about the Association from a distant cousin, Mr. Sherwood A. Conner of Heath, Ohio, who was kind enough to send me a membership application and catalog.

Enclosed is my check for the following:

Revolutionary War Pension File (Charles Rose, R9010, m. Rebecca, liv Hunterdon Co., NJ, wid liv Fayette Co., PA)	4.00
Research Report (Charles Rose, (w Rebeckah) Monongalia Co., VA; perh also Hunterdon Co., NJ)	10.00
Catalog of Rose Research. Material	.50

I believe the above Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner (m. 13 Jan 1781, NJ) to be my g. g. g. g. grandparents through their daughter, Elsie (Alsey) Rose Conner (m. James Conner, 31 Aug 1813). I am enclosing an envelope for you to advise if you already have such information. If not, I will gladly send what information I have for your files.

I would like my membership to include the already published quarterlies for 1981, if they are available.

Thank you for your attention to my order.

Dear Chris:

Enclosed are the family sheets and my check in the amount of $20.00 for renewal for 1982 to the Rose Family Association.

I have listed my reference sources, but did not copy them to send to you. If you wish such included, please let me know and I will copy same.

Also, as to my Charles Rose - I noted all sources of my search, but have not included much of the information on his family sheet, because I am just not positive. I know he is "mine" - but need to do further digging before putting it on paper for everyone to "see and believe". I am ready to hire someone in New Jersey and West Virginia to do some research, but do not know where to turn to find andinterested party, and one who will do the job. If you have or know how I could obtain names of qualified researchers for those states, I would appreciate such information. I had thought about contacting the state historical or genealogical societies for recommendations, but thought I would ask you first. I have only hired work done once, on the recommendation of a friend. It was a total success, I am pleased to say, but these areas are quite new to me.

Am enclosing an envelope and would like your suggestions as to a researcher when you have some time to reply.

Hope your New Year 1982 is the best yet -

Sincerely,

Mary

Some Thoughts Regarding Tychicus and Ezekiel Rose; Isaac Rose, and Charles Rose families

This is an effort to put some of my thoughts down, based on research in the past year. I keep getting the feeling that the above families are in some manner related. I must say that there is no evidence yet of it, and I certainly would not want to mislead anyone...but, perhaps if I share with you these ideas, you may want to pursue them.

✓ ISAAC ROSE

Isaac Rose, born in Chambersburg (was then Cumberland Co.) Pesnnylvania (no confirmation), born ca 1753 (Rev. War file), died 17 Feb. 1829, Nicholas Co., Virginia. A summary of the locations of Isaac Rose:

c 1753 - born Chambersburg, Cumberland Co., Penn.
1777 - Enlisted Monongalia Co., Virginia
c 1784 - married in Penn., county unknown c 1797 - moved from Monroe Co., Va. to Bath Co., Va.
(in part which later was Allegheny Co.)
date? - lived Botetourt Co., Va. (per Hist. Braxton) 1810 - census Bath Co., Va.
c 1812 - to Nicholas Co., Va.
1820 - census Nicholas Co., Va.
1829 - died in Nicholas Co., Va.

The above is based on the revolutionary file, Sutton's History of Braxton Co., and census.

William 54, James 55, Ezekeil 55, Charles 58

Census 1850 Braxton Co Va.

CHARLES ROSE

Charles Rose, b. ante 1765 (per 1810 census) but date unknown, died testate 1816, m. RebecKah --- who may be RebecKah Mulliner (a Charles Rose m., bond 18 Jan. 1871, N.J., RebecKah Mulliner). Charles was probably the Charles who was a revolutionary soldier, enlisted from Hunterdon Co., N.J., claim made by his widow Rebecca (her maiden name not given), her attorney was living Fayette Co., Pa., and supporting affidavit made by friend of Monongalia Co., Va. If indeed he is the revolutionary Charles, this leads to the probability that he is son of EzeKiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., N.J. who died testate leaving a large family, among them a son Charles (the will has been published in past issue of RFB). Charles Rose was in Monongalia Co., Va. at least by 1796, for he bought land there at that time. He remained there until his death in 1816. Among his children were: John (to Meigs Co., Ohio); Thomas (to Greene Co., PA. ~~Mo.~~); HopKins (to Fayette Co., Pa., and Fayette Co., Ohio); Aley/Elsie m. James Conner; Mary m. --- Ross; Rachael; RebecKah; Hannah; Freelove; Charles, the youngest, probably the father of the Charles later in Appanoose Co. Iowa.

Note the importance of Greene Co., Pa. as a location for Charles son Thomas Rose. Also, though Charles did not have a son named Ezekiel Rose, he had a grandson by that name, son of Hopkins Rose.

√ JOHN AND HANNAH (ADDLEMAN) ROSE

John Rose was born 1 July 1764; d. 28 Nov. 1825, Greene Co., Pa., m. Hannah Addleman. He had among his children: John (to Stark Co., Ohio); Hannah; Jacob; Aaron; David; Edon; Amon; Elizabeth; Rebecca; Mariah.

50 50 42 39 35

Census 1850 Greene Co PA

We believe (without conclusive proof) that John is a brother of Tychicus and Ezekiel Rose. It becomes interesting that Thomas Rose, a son of Charles of Monongalia Co., Va., lived in Greene Co. It could be only concidental, for it appears that Thomas' in-laws, the SCUDDERS, lived in Greene Co. and that is probably why Thomas made the move there. But, how and when did Thomas meet Ruth Scudder? Was Thomas in Greene Co. because of possible relatives, met Ruth, and married her there? Or, did he meet and marry Ruth Scudder in Virginia?

TYCHICUS AND EZEKIEL ROSE ✓

Tychicus Rose d. in 1793, his birth unknown. He married a wife named Catherine, and had children John; Anna; Robert; James; Jeremiah; Sarah and Elizabeth.

Ezekiel Rose died 1818, Muskingum Co., Ohio, lived previously in Washington Co. Pa., and entered the service for one of his enlistments perhaps in Cumberland Co., Pa. (this needs to be researched), and also served in militia from Washington Co., Pa. He married Mary Higkins. His children were: Rachel; Ezekiel; Sarah; Nancy, William and Hannah.

Both Tychicus and Ezekiel were in Washington Co., Pa. and because of a deed in 1789 of Ezekiel and his wife Mary to Tychicus Rose (for a sum), and because of dates, proximity, etc., it is believed they were brothers.

It becomes interesting to note that Tychicus Rose was heir at law of a Robert Rose on a grant in 1792 Frederick Co., Va. It would appear that this land likely fell into Hampshire County, since there are court records in the latter county that appear to be for that land. Robert of Hampshire Co., Va. had a wife named Joanah, and he bought and sold land in Frederick Co., Md. though he may not have ever lived there. How and why is Tychicus his heir at law? His older son? If so, he must have been a widower when he died for it does not appear that Joanah received dower in the land. Was Tychicus his older brother? Under Virginia law if a man died single and with no children, his older brother became his heir at law. I presume the same would hold true if a married man died, widowed, with no children, and in Virginia the land did not revert to the fatherof the deceased.

Perhaps one of the most interesting things as far as family tradition, per the Augusta Smith ms. in Library of Congress, is that Ezekiel and Tychicus are said to possibly have had a brother William Rose living in Bath Co., Va. The location becomes interesting since Isaac Rose, the rev. soldier, lived in Bath Co. at one time. It is also interesting that in Frederick Co. Va. there were probably at least two Isaac Rose that we know about there early - 1740-1761 period. Though I do not believe either of the Frederick Co., Va. Isaac was the Isaac who served in the Revolution, it certainly is possibly he was connected. Note that Isaac the Revolutionary soldier had a son named Ezekiel, and he has in common with Ezekiel of Washington Co., Pa. the fact that Isaac is said to have been born near Chambersburg, Cumberland Co., Pa. and Ezekiel is said to have entered the Rev. war from Cumberland co. (though more research needs to be done on that).

Conclusions

My only conclusion from all of this, is...that these people were certainly a confusing lot! They may or may not be connected. If indeed they are connected, does it mean that we will find them all connected to Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., N.J., descendant of Tormut Rose of Block Island, R.I.?

Or...is it possible we are going to find any or all of the above connected to the Daniel and Hannah Rose family of Branford, Conn., to Hunterdon Co., NJ (there is that county again!) in the 1730s, to Orange Co., Va. and died in Frederick Co., Va. in the 1740s. It is interesting that Daniel of Branford, Conn. had a first cousin named Isaac b. 1736, who I have been unable so far to trace further. Did this cousin leave Conn.? Did he travel to N.J. and Va. with Daniel? Did somehow this family meet the Ezekiel Rose family in Hunterdon Co., NJ and think they were related? You can see how much speculating I am doing here!

It could turn out that all of this is coincidental. We should not overlook the fact that many of the people in the Frederick Co., Va. area were first in Pennsylvania, and then traveled into the Shenandoah valley. That may be the route these people took, and later returned into Pennsylvania, or...simply stayed in the general vicinity where they were and became part of Pennsylvania as the District of West Augusta was broken up into counties.

Now that I have thoroughly confused you...happy hunting!

Some Additional Thoughts Regarding the Isaac, Tychicus, Ezekiel, Charles, John etc. Families

(January 30, 1985)

I have been studying the families further, and notice with interest that a son of John and Elizabeth (Seaton) Rose of Jefferson Co., Kentucky was involved in some land transactions in Greene Co., Pennsylvania. He got an interest through the SEATON family, for both his wife and mother were Seatons. His father John Rose ws born in 1760 in "East Jersey on Rockaway River" according to his rev. pension file. He lived "on the Monongahela river in the state of Virginia near to 'Washington bottom' " when entering the Revolutionary war, and since that time in Jefferson County, Kentucky. He was in Kentucky by about 1781-1782, and married his wife Elizabeth Seaton, daughter of Kenner Seaton, in 1789. Kenyoun Seaton made a will, and though I don't have complete details, this shows he was "late of Frederick Co., Va. and now of Louisville, Ky." I don't have the date of the will, but it was proved 1803 I am told. One of the executors was John Rose, and in the will, he mentions lots in Waynesburg, Green Co., Pa. Notice how interesting this becomes. We have Thomas Scudder, father-in-law of Ruth Scudder who married Thomas Rose, son of Charles Rose of Monongalia Co., Va., owning land in Greene Co., Pa. which is daughter Ruth inherited. She and her husband Thomas Rose lived there for a time before returning to Monongalia Co., Virginia. The Scudder land adjoined land of George Seaton in Greene County, and we have the a Seaton, daughter of Kenner Seaton who also owned land in Greene Co., Pa., marrying a John Rose, who enlisted in the war while living "on the Monongaheala river in the state of Virginia near to 'Washington bottom.' " All coincidental? If it is not coincidental, will the location of "East Jersey on Rockaway River" provide us with further clues? The New Jersey Historical Society told me sometime ago that they think that is in Morris County, New Jersey, but this should be pursued further. It is a matter of interest that we know some of the Roses of Morris County were from Hunterdon Co., New Jersey. The exact location of "Washington's Bottom" in Virginia should also be ascertained. I do have a research report available on the John Rose family of Jefferson Co., Kentucky with a lengthy quote from a book on George Washington (I don't have the exact title), by Eugene E. Prussing, 1927, but it is somewhat confusing and further should be ascertained about the location of "Washington's bottom."

The search becomes more interesting all the time!!

Sorry - some terrible (porous) computer paper that I got ahold of by mistake, but got to use it up!!

Dear Mary,

I am writing to you from Ohio - we did get into Monongalia County, and got a lot of information. They did seem to have more books out - for instance, I noted some early COURT ORDER BOOKS which I had not seen on our first trip there. And...I found that index from which I took information when we were in Charleston last yer - it is a typed index compiled from information from the early Court Order Books. On the sub-headings, they evidently tried to categorize the i6tems. For instance, the items marked "Deeds" would be when the deeds were proved in court, not the actual deeds.

Now, imagine my absolute thrill when I found an item in the index to Court Orders showing REBECCA ROSE, "Affidavit", marked Book 15 p 299. I could have whooped for joy! And, imagine my disappointment when I went to look up the book, only to find that the latest court order book I wouldfind was #13 which goes to 1842. I hunted and hunted...finally I inquired to the Clerk. She said that she did not know where they were (the later books) but she called someone to take us to the basement vault. He could not come right away - in the meantime, she found out that they were setting up~~p~~ voting in the vault and might not allow anyone in. I gave her my card and explained I was from California, etc., and she said she would see what she could do. After a bit the fellow came up and brought a book that is an inventory of what they have in the vault, ~~an~~ and it showed no mention of the Court Order Books from #14 on. I could have cried! By date, I would guess that Book #15 has the affidavit REGARDING REVOLUTIONARY SERVICE. You probably know that often people when into court and gve their testimony on that. We have a lot of infformation, and another very helpful chancery case, and all will be on the report. We left there and proceeded to do some other West Virginia counties. However, a day ~~aler~~ later we decided to return to Morgantown and go to the Colson Library at the West Virginia University, for we knew that they had some of the early court records of various West Virginia counties. We were there on a Saturday, and spent some time going through microfilm and their catalog hoping to find those Order Books. Strangely, though they had a lot of Monongalia County records on film, they didn't even have the first #13 Court Order Books that we had actually seen at the Courthouse. And they certainly did not have the later Court Order Books on film. We began to think that they might be at the Archives in Charleston, so did some work on some other Roses.
That is another story - found the original of a deed we had been hunting for - an UNRECORDED deed (mentioned recently in the Bulletin in Hampshire County records we published) - found the original deed in fragments with part missing, but found a clause in a section ofthe deed FINALLY PROVING THE PARENTAGE OF TYCHICUS ROSE!! I just couldn't believe it. Then I turned around and found an important survey regarding his father. Was so thrilled - this will make so many members happy. But so disappointed about that Court Order Book. The fellow in Monongalia suggested it had possibly been sent to Richmond during the Civil War and thus destroyed there. However, I tend to doubt that because of the index - it would seem the index was possibly made later. Now, it is possible that the index was compiled from original indices even though the books were destroyed, but somehow I just don't think so. I think those Court Order Books do exist. The index went to volume #20. There are TWO references in #15 - the other on Janathan Rose p. 412. There is a referece in #19 to Rev. Thomas Rose ~~in 186~~ p. 116. We need t find volume #15!! It occurred to me after we left the Colson Library that I should have inquired to see their newest catalog of acquisitions - she had a loose leaf binder and I remembered that she had [illegible]
[illegible]
And,

with evidently their latest acquisitions also in it. We need to find Book #15! It could be at Colson Library at the West Virginia University in Morgantown, or at the State Archives in Charleston. The film that Colson Library has is partly LDS film, but some of it is not. And, they do have a lot of original material, evidenced by the fact that in addition to finding the deed about Tychicus on film, I LATER HELD THE ORIGINAL FRAGMENTED DEED in my hands from their manuscript collection!!

You will get a full report of all this after our return, but wanted to get this to you right away in case you want to start trying to track down Court Order Book #15. If you do, ask for it as the COUNTY COURT ORDER BOOK for am sure there have some others. Specify that it is probably 1844-1850 period. They had another Book marked #15 marked Orders but it was MUCH later and to another series.

If we simply cannot locate it elsewhere, we need to make further inquiry about their basement vault after the election.

Excuse this poorly typed letter - this portable electronic is great in a lot of ways for it is lightweight and works on batteries and is noiseless, but I have a terrible time with it either getting double letters or skipping some.

Dear Mary,

I am enclosing three items:

1) Signature of Charles Rose on marriage bond, to Rebeckah Mulliner (I am sure now this is Hunterdon County though no residence shown), 1781

2) Signature of Charles Rose on the petition in 1777 regarding officer, next to signature of Jonathan Rose.

3) Petition of Charles Rose as a minor, 1773, signed by x mark.

I meant to also xerox for you page 2 of that Nov. 1784 petition involving those who signed regarding pay - the one that you sent to me. You also sent #2 above.

I cannot remember if you had the bond - if not, notice that the signature is just about identical to that on the 1777 item above. Since the 1777 item above shows signature just above that of Jonathan Rose, I think we can build a pretty good case that Charles who married Rebeckah Mulliner is the Charles who was brother of Jonathan, and son of Ezekiel.

I do note that earlier in 1773 Charles signed by an x mark when he was a minor. That I cannot explain, unless it was his age at the time and perhaps not feeling he could write well enough to sign his name. Later, when on his own, he may have determined to do it. Just a guess, of course.

It does puzzle me that the item in 1784, not enclosed, IS NOT THE SAME SIGNATURE. Do we have a DIFFERENT Charles Rose there? Did someone else wign for him? It definitely is not the same.

Food for thought!

Dear Chris,

Received the catalog and leaflets and your long letter. They came after your note and the Xerox material.

Your letter was very interesting and I find myself looking at all Rose families and their connections. I think I do this to really try to find a clue to my Charles' connections. I do believe that he is a son of Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ, though we seem not to have proof postive. The son, Charles, mentioned in the will of Ezekiel seems not to have remained in NJ. No records found indicate that Charles of the will grew to manhood in that State. The deposition concerning the Revolutionary service of Charles Rose of New Jersey taken in Monongalia Co., VA, certainly seem to place him in a likely position to be the son of Ezekiel, but I still look at any Rose family in PA, as a possible tie.

I heard from my researcher, Winnogene Anderson, in Appanoose Co., IA. Their genealogical society does research. It was fast, good and $10.00. She was unable to prove that Charles 3 Rose (Thomas 2, Charles 1) is indeed a brother to Abigail Hixenbaugh, BUT, she sent a death certificate for Perry Hixenbaugh who died in 1949. His parents were: ABE HIXENBAUGH and ABIGAIL ROSE. There was not a death certificate in Appanoose Co. for Abigail, so at the suggestion of Winnogene, I have ordered it from Des Moines. I hope it lists Abgail's parents and that they are Thomas Rose and Ruth Scudder. Since Abigail ROSE Hixenbaugh was born in 1818, this will clear up the 1820 and 1830 census records for Thomas Rose in Greene Co. PA. In 1820, 1 f 0-5 and in 1830, 1 f 10-15. We have never known who the female could be and I hope this identifies a new member of the Charles 1 Rose family. Now an interesting question...if Abigail is indeed a dau of Thomas and Ruth Scudder Rose, where is she in 1840 and 1850?? I have looked at the Monongalia Co. VA 1850 census and see nobody who would be of her age named Abigail "anything". Also, checked Scotland Co., MO in 1850 with the same negative results. I need now to check Greene Co., PA in 1850 in hopes that she married between 1830 and 1840 and lives in Greene Co. Once I get this information together, I will send it to you to update the Charles 1 Rose family report.

Also, working on the Charles 2 Rose (Charles 1) families in KY. I have census records for what I believe to be some of the children to 1910. It appears that the majority settled in Greenup Co., KY (moving apparently from Boyd Co., KY) in 1880. The daughters of Charles 2 seem not to be in Greenup Co., so need to go back to Boyd Co. prior to 1880 and look for them.

To correct what I just wrote...the family was in Greenup Co., and some of the children moved to Boyd Co. and I followed them to 1910 on the Boyd Co., KY census. I sent you the 1860 census for Charles when I found him in Greenup Co., but they were not to be found in that county in 1870--none of the family was there, BUT...is the following possible:

Emily Arnold	28	fw	seamstress		Ohio

I have seen serious mistakes on census records, but can this be Jane Rose (wife of Charles) and the census taker make such a mistake or some transcriber made such a mistake?? There is no James Rose with such a family in 1860 Greenup Co. I can't even find such a family in 1850. I would certainly like your thoughts concerning that 1870 census.

Will close for now. I hope to order the suggested report and book at a later date. I do not have the funds at the present. I retired last August and have just renewed my needed quarterlies and spent a bit on research, so must wait a bit to spend more on genealogy. Dick is playing golf today...that always helps me with my genealogy expense (ha).

Anxious to hear your comments on the above census material.

Dear Chris,

I have just received the new Charles Rose report and it certainly is much more informative than my 1982 copy. I suppose I should consider obtaining a new report sooner than every eight years. Since many people send you material, the updates on the reports could save me some research. I have not received the new Hunterdon update as yet, but looking forward to it also.

I am enclosing the material I have gathered on Abigail 3 ROSE OVERTURFF HIXENBAUGH (Thomas 2, Charles 1). I was delighted to find the marriage of Abigail and Abraham in Scotland Co. Missouri. When I had the researcher looking in that county for Jotham Rose information, I remembered that Abraham and Abigail C. had sold land to Jotham, so I had her check for a marriage of Abraham Hixenbaugh to Abigail "anybody". I suspected that Abigail surely had a first marriage since she was not on the 1840 census with Thomas and Ruth Scudder Rose in Monongalia Co. VA. I have no proof that the James and Abigail Overturff of Greene Co. PA are the right people, but feel pretty confident. Several years ago, Verna Rosacrans sent me some land records from Scotland Co. Missouri with a penciled query in red - "wonder what the Overturff connection is to the Rose family". When I got the marriage record, I called her and she was delighted to know that there was, indeed, a connection.

The mail just arrived...with my new Hunterdon Co. report.

My researchers in Appanoose Co. Iowa and Scotland Co. Missouri have been outstanding. They followed my exact directions and then sent the requested material in a speedy fashion, then made suggestions. It was wonderful and I can surely recommend them for research.

Will send the additional material on Charles 3 Rose of Appanoose Co. and Jotham 3 Rose of Scotland when I have it typed and copied.

I am very disgusted with my Kentucky research on the Charles 2 Rose family. I feel the 1880 KY census for Greenup Co. is not complete, at least the microfilm copies available for public use. We know that Calvin H. 3 Rose is on the 1880 Soundex...but...I cannot find him on that census. Everything I do in Greenup and Boyd Cos backfires. I am about to give up. On one KY census, in the area of birth of person and parents, it was written "unable to read". I have other KY branches in my family and research in that state has driven me crazy. I guess some of today's circumstances in KY are not much better than in the 1800's. Glad some of mine moved to ILL and became teachers, though I can't imagine how.

Anxious to hear your comments on Abigail and family.

Love,

Mary

Dear Chris,

Enclosing a copy of a letter from Steven Hill of Urbana, IL and my reply. I didn't mail it for a couple of days after writing it, but decided I had been "taken" for so many years by this man and needed to state my position. I have never refused to share anything concerning my research and really don't feel comfortable now, but it is done.

A little history...Mr. Hill entered about 20 names in the Genealogical Helper-Roots Cellar-Mar/Apr 1981. I replied in Jan 1982, because of the Hixenbaugh and Rose names. He replied, by postcard, on 5 Apr 1988. I sent him information on Charles and Thomas Rose. He never acknowledged the material sent and I did not hear from him again until I sent the marriage record of Abigail and Abraham Hixenbaugh.

And...now what else do I know about Abigail? What I do know took years of research by many and my hiring two researchers.

I hope he has shared a lot of information with you and if he has, I will send him what I have found. If not, he can buy a Charles Rose report from the Rose Family Association and find out what sharing really means.

I am still waiting on some information from my researcher in Scotland Co. MO before sending the material on Jotham 3 Rose (Thomas 2, Charles 1). I was excited to find out the name of Jotham's wife...ELIZABETH ANN REMLEY, dau of Emanuel Remley and _________ Showalter. Will send it as soon as I have it together and typed.

Then on to Charles 3 Rose (Thomas 2, Charles 1)...

I will try my best to start (again) my James and Elsie ROSE Conner research for the report. I almost hate to see my name on page 16 of the new Charles Rose report, because I don't believe any of the material cousin Sherwood has put out over the years. I don't even think some of the children are James' and Elsie's. Oh yes, on page 16, Hopkins DIED in 1822 and James was BORN in 1822. Hopkins was probably born 1819 so "date too close" shown under iii. James could be deleted.

Thanks for the nice comment, last letter, about my research. It will only make me work harder (ha).

Dear Chris,

Received the John Rose/Rebeckah Bowen report--poor John, or maybe poor Rebeckah. He certainly spent a great many "years" in court. I guess in those days, everyone took any problem to the courts to be solved (or to their church elders).

I noted on page six of the report information concerning the Goshen Church records. When you sent me the copy of those records recently, I noticed that Abigail and Ruth Scudder were listed. Since we know the Scudders to be of Greene County, PA, I wonder if Goshen Church is the same as the Goshen Baptist Church?? Enclosing some copies which may (or may not) help you decide. I did note on another map that Muddy Creek is in Cumberland Twp., Greene Co., PA.

Also, I believe the genealogical magazine in which those church records were published might be:

Cornerstone Genealogical Society
P. O. Box 547
Waynesburg, PA 15370

They can surely tell you the exact location of Goshen and if it was in Fayette, Greene or Washington, at its inception.

Have run into a bit of a problem on the Rose/Hixenbaugh research in Iowa. The State of Iowa is not much inclined to send me copies of the death certificates of Charles Rose and Abigail Rose Hixenbaugh. I had such hopes it would list the parents of Abigail (I believe Charles' cert. does list Thomas and Ruth Scudder Rose). Iowa says only immediate family...etc. They returned my letter, kept my check for $12.00 and sent a form on which I must show relationship. Also, they used my SASE and told me to be sure to enclose another when I returned allpapers. We will see what they do next.

I am enclosing $16.00 (cash) for a copy of the Greene Co., PA courthouse research report. Thought it might show the sale of 10 acres by Thomas and Ruth Scudder Rose. Ruth received it as an inheritance in the will of her father, Thomas Scudder (Greene Co. PA - 1828).

I didn't realize that there were RW records for two Charles in Hunterdon Co. The NJ Archives only sent me the roster of 1777 (which also shows Jonathan) and the court request for payment to Charles for his service.

Wish I could attend the Rose Conference, but unable to this year. I still have hopes that someday...

Will close and was happy that you agree that the census record for James Rose of KY is surely JANE ROSE, widow of Charles. I should send this on to Rose Mary Nelson. She was so delighted when I found them in KY in 1860.

(the original book)
with evidently their latest acquisitions also in it. We need to find Book #15! It could be at Colson Library at the West Virginia University in Morgantown, or at the State Archives in Charleston. The film that Colson Library has is partly LDS film, but some of it is not. And, they do have a lot of original material, evidenced by the fact that in addition to finding the deed about Tychicus on film, I LATER HELD THE ORIGINAL FRAGMENTED DEED in my hands from their manuscript collection!!

You will get a full report of all this after our return, but wanted to get this to you right away in case you want to start trying to track down Court Order Book #15. If you do, ask for it as the COUNTY COURT ORDER BOOK for am sure there h~~a~~ave some others. Specify that it is probably 1844-1850 period. They had another Book marked #15 marked Orders but it was MUCH later and to another series.

If we simply cannot locate it elsewhere, we need to make further inquiry about their basement vault after the election.

Excuse this poorly typed letter - this portable electronic is great in a lot of ways for it is lightweight and works on batteries and is noiseless, but I have a terrible time with it either getting double letters or skipping some.

Love,

Chris

Dear Mary,

I am writing to you from Ohio - we did get into Monongalia County, and got a lot of information. They did seem to have more books out - for instance, I noted some early COURT ORDER BOOKS which I had not seen on our first trip there. And...I found that index from which I took information when we were in Charleston last yer - it is a typed index compiled from information from the early Court Order Books. On the sub-headings, they evidently tried to categorize the i6tems. For instance, the items marked "Deeds" would be when the deeds were proved in court, not the actual deeds.

Now, imagine my absolute thrill when I found an item in the index to Court Orders showing REBECCA ROSE, "Affidavit", marked Book 15 p 299. I could have whooped for joy! And, imagine my disappointment when I went to look up the book, only to find that the latest court order book I wouldfind was #13 which goes to 1842. I hunted and hunted...finally I inquired to the Clerk. She said that she did not know where they were (the later books) but she called someone to take us to the basement vault. He could not come right away - in the meantime, she found out that they were setting up~~p~~ voting in the vault and might not allow anyone in. I gave her my card and explained I was from California, etc., and she said she would see what she could do. After a bit the fellow came up and brought a book that is an inventory of what they have in the vault, ~~an~~ and it showed no mention of the Court Order Books from #14 on. I could have cried! By date, I would guess that Book #15 has the affidavit REGARDING REVOLUTIONARY SERVICE. You probably know that often people when into court and gve their testimony on that. We haave a lot of infformation, and another very helpful chancery case, and all will be on the report. We left there and proceeded to do some other West Virginia counties. However, a day ~~afer~~ later we decided to return to Morgantown and go to the Colson Library at the West Virginia University, for we knew that they had some of the early court records of various West Virginia counties. We were there on a Saturday, and spent some time going through microfilm and their catalog hoping to find those Order Books. Strangely, though they had a lot of Monongalia County records on film, they didn't even have the first #13 Court Order Books that we had actually seen at the Courthouse. And they certainly did not have the later Court Order Books on film. We began to think that they might be at the Archives in Charleston, so did some work on some other Roses.

That is another story - found the original of a deed we had been hunting for - an UNRECORDED deed (mentioned recently in the Bulletin in Hampshire County records we published) - found the original deed in fragments with part missing, but found a clause in a section ofthe deed FINALLY PROVING THE PARENTAGE OF TYCHICUS ROSE!! I just couldn't believe it. Then I turned around and found an important survey regarding his father. Was so thrilled - this will make so many members happy. But so disappointed about that Court Order Book. The fellow in Monongalia suggested it had possibly been sent to Richmond during the Civil War and thus destroyed there. However, I tend to doubt that because of the index - it would seem the index was possibly made later. Now, it is possible that the index was compiled from original indices even though the books were destroyed, but somehow I just don't think so. I think those Court Order Books do exist. The index went to volume #20. There are TWO references in #15 - the other on Janathan Rose p. 442-. There is a referece in #19 to Rev. Thomas Rose ~~in~~. We need t find volume #15!! It occurred to me after we left the Colson Library that I should have inquired to see their newest catalog of acquisitions - she had a loose leaf binder and I remembered that she had [illegible]

Dear Mary,

How interesting to find Brush was of Long Island! This is getting to be fun...?

I was in New Jersey recently and at the State Archives found:

Remember Robert Rose of Hunterdon County? I had found a deed for him at the Hunterdon Co. Historical Society showing him of Brookhaven, Suffolk County, I believe it was about 1735 or so. I had assumed he was the Robert Rose who had Daniel Rose as "exor" in the court records of Hunterdon in the mid-1740s. (See the Hunterdon Co. reports). Imagine my surprise then to find:

State Archives, Trenton, New Jersey

Card Index: Loan Office Book 1737-1745, 124*, 137*

Card Index: Loan Office Bk 1737-1748, 124, 137 [this was not examined; is likely a transcribed copy of the above]

No. 137: Loan Office Book [C] 1737-1745: This indenture 26 Apr. 1739, Robert Rose of Bethlehem, co. of Hunterdon and the Commissioners of the Loan Office of Co. of Hunterdon, said Robert Rose, for 19 lbs 16 shillings 7 pence, all tract or parcel in two. of Bethlehem, bounded [metes and bounds], 422 acres. Signed: Robart Rose. Wit.: Tho: Severn?, Jno Jenkins. [Within the document are listed payments due yearly, and also on the documents are listings of the payments as they were paid. The first was on April 24, 1740, payments listed thru. Apr. 27, 1749 by Robert Rose, 1750 is blank, and on Apr. 26, 1751 Robt Rose by John Quick paid.

[The original book was accessed in examining the above. However, when inquiring about photocopy, I was referred to microfilm. But, upon viewing the microfilm it was found that there is no Book C, and instead, there is a Book D which has been transcribed from Book C.]

No. 124: 25 March 1737, Robert Rose of co. of Hunterdon and the Commissioners of the Loan Office of co. of Hunterdon, tract on line of Thomas Cook, bounded by Robert Rose's other tract, by Thom as Stevenson, etc., [lists payments to be paid to 1752]. Signed: Robart Rosa. Wit.: Thos Planner, Mary Reading. [There is included a listing of the payments made through 1748; 1749 is paid by Jon Quick, 1750 is blank, and 1752 is paid by Jno. Quick.]

Note: The signature on the photocopies appears as "Robart Rosa" and appear to be original signatures, yet, it would appear as above noted that they are transcribed copies. The documents refer to him as Robert Rose throughout the documents. The original book C should be re-checked on signature.

This Robert Rose is clearly living at least until 1750. Now I am stymied again - who was the Robert Rose whose "exor" Daniel Rose is referred to several times in the court records of Hunterdon County in the 1740s!

It is looking more and more as if our Jarvis connections in Surry Co., N.C. are out of Hunterdon Co., N.J. For years I have felt there is a Jarvis connection to our Roses of Surry Co., and heard only that there were from N.J. but no specifics. However, Jabez Jarvis appears to be the patriarch of the Surry Co., N.C. group and I had found several mentions of him in the court records of Hunterdon Co. (though not in deeds). How it is looking for various reasons that he is likely the same person who was in Surry Co. The Surry Co. Jarvis also used the name Eliphalet, and Eliphalet Jarvis is a Long Island name. Interesting? There was a Jarvis Genealogy but it doesn't carry them down far enough to prove or disprove the N.C. group.

It was nice of Tomi to write to you.

Best,

Sincerely,

Chris

Dear Mary,

Yes, you are right - I probably should have included something about the Isaac who married Margaret Leyda. I did after you got yours add something about the NJ John, and enclose that page for you. This gets more confusing all the time, and I am somewhat hesitant to send these things out for it may lead to nowhere! But, I guess we do have to consider all the possibilities.

I too have wondered about that Fielding Rose name. It appears in the William Rose of Surry Co., Virginia Rose family in two branches that I know about - in Virginia, and later in the Tennessee branch of Frederick Rose family.

Here is the Subject Index - it will take forever to get to you 4th class so I am going to go ahead and send it to you first class. I simply could not do without mine - actually, I use it more than the name index!

On Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks, I have thought in the past that she could be a daughter of Charles Rose. In checking back, I find that sometime ago I had correspondence with Betty Jean Brooks (Mrs. Gill Brooks) of PO Box 123, Kissimmee, FL 32741. From her various letters, it seemed that Rebecca Rose was b. 12 Apr. 1797 (she got that date from Frankls Family Assn.) (but she also sent it to me as 11 Apr. 1796), died 9 Jan. 1884, age 87, biography, buried New Geneva, Fayette Co., Pa., cemetery uncertain, mar. Jacob Franks, son of Michael and Amy (Furst) Franks, b. 20 Feb. 1798, d. a little over 75 years, lived Monongalia Co., Va., and then Fayette Co., Pa. Death certificate of their daughter Rebecca Ann Jaco shows parents as Rebecca nad Jacob Franks, BOTH BORN PENNSYLVANIA. There is a biography in GENEALOGICAL AND PERSONAL HISTORY OF FAYETTE AND GREENE COS., PA., John W. Jordan and james Hadden, 1912 (she tells me). She also told me that Rebecca Rose was daughter of a Rose, tanner, who married a Melinoc, daughter of Lord Melinoc. Tradition was that Lord Melinoc came to this country from England in the services of King George. Tradition unconfirmed. I don't yet know of anyone tracing the Lewellen connection. How about placing a query on the Lewellens? Though queries must mention a Rose, you can word it in such a way that you are wondering if Rachel is a Rose, dau of Charles etc.

Yes, I have it that Elizabeth, daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth (Hixson) Rose is the one who married Asher Cox. Seems to me I knew someone interested in that Cox, but can't find it. I only have the members on the computer and do not yet have the many hundreds and hundreds more people that I've corresponded with during the years. I did have a little system at the time that I was keeping track of such things, but it was inadequate, and if I can get it onto the computer sometime it will be wonderful. I know that Joan Beyers of 4909 Riverbend, Ft. Worth, TX 76109 is tracing Rebecca who m. Amos Cowan - Rebecca is sister of Elizabeth (Rose) Cox. Maybe it is her that I am thinking about for it seems to me when I met her at the Ft. Worth Conference we were discussing the Cox family. She is not a member but is quite interested in her family.

Oh! I DID hear from the fellow, John Province - THANK YOU FOR TELLING HIM OF US! Was just delighted to hear from him, for I am sure that his Elisha Rose is a son of John R. and Annie (Cox) Rose, a family we have been earnestly tracing for several members. We had hoped to get more on that branch! He has been able to provide some information from his family records, and...since his family had a piece of paper with death date of Annie Cox Rose and thedeath of two of the children (all three dates which we did NOT have before!), am sure they are related. His paper did not give the specific relationship, but am sure Elisha is son of John R. from other records. This family is out of Ulster Co., New York. John R. Rose went to Greene Co., Pa. for a while, as did George Rose who I am sure was his brother - also of Ulster Co. We have members descended from both John R. and George Rose.

Enclosed are the census records you ordered, too. Sure hope they help.

Hope I've answered all the questions - if not, fire away. I tell you, this group of Roses really has me going....

Best wishes,

Chris

Dear David,

I appreciate your reply - I know you spent a lot of time examining your records! What I have is:

Orphan's Court Books "A & B" of Washington Co., Pa., prepared by Citizens' Library Gene. Soc., 1979
O.C. Bk A p. 122
Washington Co., Pa., Orphan's Court
Jan. 4, 1796, John

twp. grdn.

I am working on the Ezekiel Rose family of Washington Co., Pennsylvania, a revolutionary soldier (who is not the same Ezekiel of Hunterdon Co., New Jersey). I had hoped that the discovery of the above John Woolverton in Washington Co. (where the revolutionary Ezekiel Rose lived at the time) could be a tie to the Hunterdon Co. area. There was a Robert Rose of Brookhaven, Long Island in Hunterdon Co. who has not been ruled out as the being the same Robert Rose who was father of Tychicus and Ezekiel.

If I turn up more on Woolverton I will let you know. Again, my thanks for the reply.

Dear Mary,

Glad to hear from you so soon. I totally agree about not jumping to any conclusions and hope I made that amply clear in my notice to everyone! However, though I have been pondering this for weeks, finally decided that I must present these "doubts" that have arisen, for it is possible there is some substance.

Enclosed for you is a copy of the will of Mary Ring (yep, not Price, goodness knows where my mind was that day). As you can see, she clearly names Ezekiel her son, and this is perhaps the most disturbing of all the items.

Also enclosed for you is the Long Island report. As you will see, there definitely are some Ezekiel Rose on L.I., and proven L.I. Roses in Hunterdon Co., N.J.

I cannot immediately lay my hands on my copy of the letter I sent to you several years ago regarding my feeling that there might be two revolutionary Charles Rose. What we have is:

Bond: Charles Rose to Rebecka Mulliner signed by Charles Rose in 1781. Signed by Charles Rose and appears to match signature in 1777 listing.

1777: What appears to be the signature of Charles Rose in a listing, and it appears to match that of the 1781 Charles Rose. In 1777 was Priv. Capt. John Phillips Co. 3rd Reg. Hunterdon Co., Mi.

1773: #888J, Charles Rose, son of Ezekiel Rose, SIGNED BY AN X MARK. He is between 14 and 21 at this time. Did he learn to sign his name AFTER age of 14? This is in 1773 and would place him b. roughly 1752-1759. There is no way he have a guardian in 1783, at least, not based on age alone.

1784: In a listing which appears to be personal signatures in 1784 in MS 10341 clearly, the signature of Charles Rose DOES NOT MATCH THE SIGNATURE IN 1777 AND THE MARRIAGE BOND IN 1781. Copy enclosed.

As to whether Charles Rose had a guardian in 1783 or in 1784, I am a bit confused. You state that he he clearly did not. Yet, in #24510 (see attached from that file) it would seem to indicate that he did. It doesn't say "former guardian"; the citation is dated 1783. Yet, it could be possible that it is referring to the mid-1770 years and somehow they just never clarified that he was no longer guardian. However, I would agree that Charles, son of Ezekiel, was born ca 1752-1759 and simply could not be a minor in 1783. And, we have no reason at this time to consider that he was not capable of handling his own affairs and for that reason had a guardian. A further search of the court actions as you mentioned could be helpful. However, even leaving this question out of the picture (whether Charles had a guardian in 1783) we still have the puzzling items heretofore set forth in this letter.

I now have an item in which Ezekiel Rose witnessed in Hunterdon County in 1749. I had been hoping that we could still identify Ezekiel of Hunterdon Co. with the explanation that soon after his mother's death (her will 1750) he removed to Hunterdon. Now we find Ezekiel in Hunterdon in 1749, but in 1750 Mary Ring says her son Eaeiel is of Newshoreham.

I tell you Mary, I don't want to think there has been a mis- identification. But truthfully, I am afraid that there MIGHT be. We will continue the search and hope to find more. Walter Lee Sheppard is not actively searching this right now; I know him personally as he too is a Fellow and he was just referring me to some of his earlier work knowing of my interest in Rose. That is how this DAYTON/DATON data came up. He was not insisting that James was of L.I., but suggesting it since the Daytons were from L.I. (and his published article sets forth why he thinks James' wife was a Dayton). This, plus the reference to the apprenticeship on L.I. caused him to suggest that James might be of L.I.

I just don't understand why I have not found one single item on either James, John or Ezekiel so far to support that they were of the B.I. group. I have been on B.I. and had only a short time there, but in my extensive notes taken from deeds and estates in that short time I find nothing that would place either of those three sons in N.J. Clearly, more work is needed on B.I. too.

Just when we thought it was all neatly tied up! But, I cannot discount the importance of the fact that your Charles Rose did indeed carry the name Ezekiel in his family, and certainly was the revolutionary soldier.

Love,

Chris

Friend Mary:

Glad to meet you in the Genealogical Helper.

Your Question 39-6-26 - Your ancestor, Charles Rose, served under Capt. John Phillips, his company in the 3rd Regiment, Hunterdon County of this State, in the Rev.

My ancester, one John Davis enlisted 12-25-1776 at Morristown N.J., in the 4th N.J.Regiment.

Always looking for potential tiny threads of those elusive connecting links. Any information that may be related from which you can make copies will be appreciated. Advise of any and all costs.

Most respectfully,

Harvie A. Davis Sr.

Mr. Harvie A. Davis, Sr.

Allendale, NJ 07401

Dear Harvie,

Thank you for your letter of 5 Dec 1985 pertaining to my question in the Genealogical Helper about the land record in Monongalia County, VA, now W VA and my ancestor Charles Rose.

The following is a typed copy of the record:

(Land entries, page 349 - Monongalia County, W.VA)

Charles Rose and John Davis, "Charles Rose for himself and John Davis enter 300 acres", part of Land Office Treasury Warrant 7068½ dated 4 March 1795 between said Rose, Joseph Severngen, Philip Haney and John Ferry, said Rose applied to me to make this Entry when I was from home on 24 of this months two days before the time William Jarrett applied to me (Sept. 24, 1798, withdrawn by John Davis).

The original record is apparently not available in Monongalia County and the above is only a typed copy entered in their Land Entries book. I have not had time to try to obtain a copy of the record per the suggestion in the Helper. It appears that such records may be available in the Virginia Archives. I will, after the holidays, try to obtain that record.

I cannot recall at this time any Davis connection to my Charles Rose of Hunterdon County, but so much is unknown. Many families by the name of Davis lived at the same time in Monongalia County as did Charles Rose (1810 Census). Did any of your Davis family "go west" as is stated in some of the New Jersey histories?

Those of us researching Charles Rose have tried to tie together a Morris County, NJ Revolutionary soldier, John Rose, who also moved to Monongalia County or that area. We have not been successful, but it certainly seems a possibility.

The known facts about Charles Rose:

He served in the Revolution (3rd Regiment, John Phillips Company, Hunterdon Co.)

His wife, Rebecca, applied for a pension (denied for lack of regiment and proof of service) from Monongalia County, but listed NJ as state of service.

One Isaac Horner of Hunterdon County, now Monongalia County in VA, deposed that he believes that Charles was in the war for he lived right in the seat of war (deposition taken 27 Apr 1847 for the pension, denied, of Rebecca Rose).

At least one son, Thomas Rose, b ca 1784, stated on the 1850 census that he was born NJ. Thomas Rose married Ruth Scudder, dau of Thomas Scudder and Abigail Clark of Hunterdon County to Greene Co., PA.

The will of Charles Rose is recorded in Monongalia County, VA, now W VA with the date of 6 June 1816, inventory dated, 21 Sept 1816 and naming a wife, Rebecca and ten children and naming my ancestor, Elsie Rose Conner.

Suggested facts needing further proof:

That Charles Rose is the same person named in the will of Ezekiel Rose, Hunterdon County, 1768, under age 21, who chose John Price as his guardian, with John Phillips as bondsman.

That Charles Rose who married Rebeckah Mulliner, both of New Jersey, on 13 Jan 1781 are one and the same who later resided in Monongalia County, VA. That the Charles Rose and Jonathan Rose who served in the 3rd Regiment of John Phillips are the same Charles and Jonathan Rose who lived in VA and KY and are the same men listed in the will of Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon County.

I truly do not doubt at all that Charles Rose was of Hunterdon County and am a member of Daughters of the American Revolution on his service during that war from New Jersey. I just want every bit of the information on all of this family that I can find.

I was delighted, in a way, to find a possible connection to Morris County, because it made me remember the John Rose story. I think John Rose was from Morris County to VA and then KY (he married Rebecca Bowen, a good Hunterdon name). There were two men by that name that served in the RW from Morris County, but we have followed the John who married Rebecca, because of the well known Bowen and Hunterdon County connection. Haven't been able to prove a thing, but still wonder if John is a cousin or an uncle of my Charles Rose.

John (Jehu) Davis
Caleb Davis
Jona. Davis.
Sol. Davis
Rob. Davis
John Davis
Jonathan Davis
R. Davis
John Davis
Mat Davis
Sam Davis
Sam Davis
Luke Davis
Isaac Davis
Asa Davis
Wm. Davis
Isaac Davis, Sr.
Able Davis

If any of the above Davis names look familiar, I can send the transcription of the census for you. I also, have Monongalia marriages for 1796-1850 which list several Davis names. Would be happy to send marriage records if you think your Davis has a connection to that county.

Since New Jersey is about a million miles from Oklahoma, I had a researcher, Roxanne Carkhuff do work for me there. She did a very good job on Charles Rose, but a researcher is only as good as the questions asked. I apparently did not ask enough, but her research made me very sure that the Charles Rose of Hunterdon County and the Charles Rose of Monongalia County are one and the same.

Send me a bit more about John Davis. Where did he live, die and his children. I've more material on many Roses (I belong to the Rose Family Association) and the index to their bulletin or quarterly lists many Davis names.

Thanks for your letter.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary;

It is so good to hear from some one working on the Rose line. I am sending you what I have on the Charles Rose family. I think that he was twice married for we came up with a Charles Rose and Eliza McCune married Nicholas County, Va. 1, May, 1825.

An Aunt of mine gave me the name of Elizabeth Brian (or Byrne) for the wife of Charles . So far I have been unable to doccument this and as she is now passed on I cannot find where she found this.

I believe that the first two children, Mary Jane and Eliza Ann were probably from the first and Eliza probably died near the birth of the second child.

The 1850 Braxton Census records show Charles Rose and wife Elizabeth but as I said before I can find no other records of this marrage.

Happy hunting

Dear Mrs. Nunneley,

It has been sometime since we have corresponded (1983) so I probably need to mention again that I am a granddaughter of Ezekiel Rose and his 1st wife Rebecca McDorman and then, their son, James Marion Rose and Minnie Quisenberry, and their son James Stanley Rose and Edna Jane Stephens and their son Richard Marion Rose, my father. What I am interested in knowing about is information concerning Rebecca McDorman; I know her father was John but have no further information concerning his wife, parents and date of birth etc. Also, I am interested in your James Conner who married Alsey (Elsie). Is this James a relation to Susannah Conner who married Hopkins Rose; if so, who were there parents and where did they come from.

I hope to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Dianne

Dear Dianne,

I was happy to receive your letter concerning the Ezekiel Rose family and am enclosing copies of some material which I think will help. I believe that the parents of Rebecca McDorman (m Ezekiel Rose) are John McDorman, also called Dorman, and Judy Bunch. I have copied material on the Bunch family of Louisa Co., VA to Guilford Co., NC.

My James Conner who married Alsey (Elsie) Rose was from Monongalia Co., VA (now West Virginia), as was Susannah Conner who married Hopkins Rose. I believe them to be brother and sister, but have no proof. It seems likely, since both families moved to Fayette Co., Ohio and lived neighbors according to tax records. I wish I could find the parents of James, but that has not been found.

I would very much like to have family group sheets for your lines. I am including blank sheets in hopes that you will fill them out and send them to me.

You might try to obtain the Bunch book. I purchased mine from Mrs. Lee I. Park, 4200 Cathedral Avenue, NW, No. 314, Washington, DC, 20016. I have not heard from Alice for some time and do not know how her health is as she was born in 1901. She was still quite active, apparently, the last time I heard from her.

Hope you enjoy the items and please, do fill out the sheets when time allows.

Sincerely,
Mary

Dear Mary

I was looking through an old Genealogical Helper (Jan/Feb 83) and saw your query regarding Rose.

I am seeking information on Polly Rose who married James Crockett 24 Aug 1814 Livingston Co Ky.

I am also seeking information on Roseann Rose who married Owen Ebenezer Clark in Pope Co Ill.

Any assistance you can provide will be greatly appreciated.

I look forward to your reply.

Dear Ms. Nunneley,

I was very interested in your question regarding land records in Monongalia Co. W. VA for your ancestor, Charles Rose. I too am looking for similar type records for my ancestor Elijah Musgrave who served in the Rev. War & died (I think) in Monongalia Co., W.VA. Can you tell me exactly where you wrote to find the Land Office Treasury Warrant? I would like the name and address of the place in Monongalia Co., WVA where such records are kept. It would be most helpful to me! Many thanks.

Alos in your Rose line--- do you have any records of an Elizabeth (Betsy) Rose b. about 1795 in Maryland d. 1827, age 32 in Perkins Twp. Ohio. She was married to Thomas Irvine. (also spelled Irwine, Irwin, etc.) Since she died so young I am having a hard time with Maryland Rose families. She was supposed to have eloped with Irvine, an Irish Imigrant, which doesn't help matters any! Do you, or anyone you know, have researched the Maryland Rose families?

Know you are busy now at Christmas, but hopefully you will have time after the first of the year to answer. I am particularly eager to learn where you found the land records! Many, many thanks.

Dear Jean,

Happy to receive your letter concerning the Elijah Musgrave of Monongalia Co., VA and Elizabeth Rose Irvine of Ohio.

The Land Office Treasury Warrant concerning Charles Rose was obtained for me by Christine and Seymour Rose (Rose Family Association) on their research trip into Monongalia Co., W VA, in June 1983. The warrant was a typed copy with little information and was found in a book titled "Land Entries" at, apparently, the courthouse in Morgantown. Christine told me the originals had not been located. I wonder if they are still housed at the Virginia State Archives in Richmond. I must write soon to see if VA retained any records pertaining to W VA.

I am sending some material concerning the Musgrave (Musgrove) families that resided in Monongalia and now Marion counties, W VA. You may already have it. If not, hope it is helpful.

Wish you had sent more on your Elizabeth Rose. You said she died in 1827, age 32, in Perkins Twp., Ohio. What county? That could help if I knew. I am enclosing a family group sheet for her and if you will send it back with any information, I will start looking.

I rather wonder if she belongs to Isaac and Margaret Leyde Rose of Hartford Co., MD, to Washington Co., PA to Mercer Co., PA. Their Elizabeth was married per his will of 4 June 1822, in Mercer Co., but he did not give her married name.

Might be interesting to see if any Irvine, Irwine or Irwin families are on census records for the above counties. Also, Chris Rose has a research report for this Isaac and Margaret Rose and may be able to save time researching if she knows what happendd to their Elizabeth. The time frame fits - his Elizabeth should have been born about the same time as yours. He also, gave her money as a bequest, which might indicate that she was not a resident of Mercer County.

Do write to Chris and see if she knows anything about the Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac. Know you were a member of the Rose Family Association at one time, for have seen your queries.

I will start looking for Elizabeth as soon as you return her family sheet.

Sincerely,

Mary

Is July Ann Poley two people, ie
July Ann, Polly (or Mary)

Per Census records 1790 - 1820, a total of seven daughters seem to be listed. The interpretation of his will lists July Ann Poley and Amey as unmarried. Is it really July Ann, Poley (maybe Mary) and Amey. The 1820 Census lists three females at home, and, Isaac +45 and Margaret +45

DEAR MARY,

I AM WRITTING TO YOU AGAIN ABOUT MY SEARCH FOR THE PARENTS OF MY JOHN A. ROSE. AND THIS TIME WITH A LITTLE MORE INFORMATION. BEFORE I START LET ME JUST SAY THAT I GOT YOUR NAME FROM A COMPUTER PRINTOUT FROM THE EVERTON PUBLISHERS ROOT CELLAR. I PROBABLY SHOULD APOLIGIZE FOR NOT SENDING MORE INFORMATION THE FIRST TIME BUT I HAVE WRITTEN TO SO MANY OF THE NAMES ON THIS LIST ONLY TO FIND OUT THAT THEY EITHER ARE NOT LIVING ANYMORE OR THAT THE CURRENT ADDRESS IS NO LONGER ANY GOOD. NOW THAT I KNOW THAT THERE ACCUALLY IS A PERSON WHO IS THERE AND WILL ANSWER MY LETTER I WILL TRY TO DO A BETTER JOB OF GIVING YOU SOME INFORMATION.

FIRST OF ALL I DO AND HAVE BEEN A MEMBER OF THE ROSE FAMILY ASSOC. FOR ABOUT 3 YEARS NOW. I HAVE WRITTEN TO CHRISTINE ROSE MANY TIMES AND TELEPHONED HER MANY TIMES BUT SO FAR WE CAN NOT QUITE PUT A HANDLE ON THE PARENTS OF MY JOHN A. ROSE.

HERE IS A LIST OF WHAT I DO KNOW FOR SURE.

1. THE NAME JOHN A. ROSE APPEARS ON A COPY OF HIS MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE AS WELL AS APPEARS ON THE DEATH CERTIFICATE AS SUCH.

2. THE BIRTH DATE FOR MY JOHN A. ROSE IS SOMEWHAT IN QUESTION ...HE WOULD APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN BORN ABOUT 1846 AS HIS DEATH CERTIFICATE LISTS HIS AS BEING 54 YRS OLD AT THE TIME OF HIS DEATH WHICH WAS NOV. 9, 1900 IN GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. GALLIA COUNTY.

3. THE DATE OF HIS DEATH WAS EXPLAINED ABOVE, I HAVE A COPY OF THE DEATH CERTIFICATE FROM THE GALLIA CO. COURT HOUSE.

4. AS FAR AS I KNOW AT THIS TIME HE LEFT NO LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. IN ONE OF THE ROSE FAMILY ASSOC. REPORTS FOR GALLIA CO. IT LISTS A JOHN A./H. ROSE 1890 (THE A./H. PART WAS BECAUSE THE WRITTING WAS SO BAD THAT THEY WERN'T SURE OF WHICH LETTER IT WAS) SO I TOOK A FLIER A SENT FOR IT ONLY TO FIND OUT THAT IT WAS NOT MY JOHN A. ROSE. IT WAS IN FACT THE WILL FOR THE JOHN ROSE/MARGARET ROSE OF GREENFIELD TWP THAT YOU HAD MENTIONED TO ME IN YOUR RETURN LETTER.

5. THEY DID OWN PROPERTY AS TOLD TO ME BY LIVING RELATIVES WHO STILL LIVE IN GALLIPOLIS,OHIO. I TOOK A TRIP TO GALLIPOLIS,OHIO LAST SUMMER AND THIS LIVING RELATIVE OF OURS DROVE MY WIFE AND I AROUND THE TOWN AND TO THE CEMT. WHERE MARY E.(EVANS) ROSE WAS BURIED ALONG WITH SOME OTHER MISC. FAMILY MEMBERS. WE THEN WENT TO THE FARM WHERE MY JOHN A. ROSE AND MARY E.

(EVANS) ROSE LIVED. I TOOK PICTURES OF COURSE...THIS FAMILY MEMBER THAT I AM TALKING ABOUT WAS RAISED BY MARY E.(EVANS) ROSE AT THE FARM WHICH SHE EVENTUALLY OWNED AS HER OWN HOME AFTER THE DEATH OF MARY E. (EVANS) ROSE. SHE NEVER KNEW MY JOHN A. ROSE OR ANY OF HIS FAMILY BECAUSE HE DIED IN 1900 AND SHE WAS NOT BORN UNTIL 1913. SHE HAS TRIED TO HELP ME IN EVERY WAY THAT SHE CAN BUT SO FAR WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO PIN DOWN ANYTHING. I AM CURRENTLY TRYING TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO HAVE A TITLE SEARCH OF THE PROPERTY DONE TO SEE IF MY JOHN A. ROSE BOUGHT THE PROPERTY OR IF IT WAS HANDED DOWN TO HIM FROM HIS PARENTS. THEY WERE NOT A VERY WEALTHY FAMILY AND IT COULD BE VERY POSSIBLE THAT HE INHERITED THE PROPERTY.

6. I DO HAVE FAMILY PHOTOS OF MY JOHN A. ROSE AND MARY E. (EVANS) ROSE.

7. NOW THE CENSUS RECORDS FOR JUNE 1,1880 LISTS MY JOHN A. ROSE AS LIVING IN GALLIA CO. GALLIPOLIS,OHIO AS ..WHITE ..MALE ..28 YRS ...HUSBAND ...OCCUPATION..MOLDER...PLACE OF BIRTH ..OHIO...FATHERS PLACE OF BIRTH..OHIO... MOTHERS PLACE OF BIRTH...OHIO... NOW IF THAT WERE TRUE FOR HIS AGE IT WOULD MAKE HIM BORN IN 1852..........BUT........
IN THE 1900 CENSUS FOR GREEN TWP GALLIA CO. GALLIPOLIS,OHIO IT LISTS MY JOHN A. ROSE....WHITE ....MALE....51 YRS....BIRTH MONTH--OCT....HUSBAND...HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD...MARRIED...OCCUPATION--IRON MOULDER...OWNED PROPERTY...CAN READ/WRITE...PLACE OF BIRTH--OHIO....FATHERS PLACE OF BIRTH--FRANCE....MOTHERS PLACE OF BIRTH--OHIO............IT NOW GOES ON TO NAME HIS WIFE AND 10 LIVING CHILDREN AND 1 CHILD THAT DIED BEFORE THE CENSUS WAS TAKEN.....EVERYTHING CHECKS OUT WITH HIS WIFE AND FAMILY'S INFORMATION ....BUT AGAIN IF HIS AGE IS CORRECT HERE THEN IT WOULD MAKE HIS BIRTH YEAR 1849......THERE IS ALSO A PROBLEM WITH HIS FATHERS PLACE OF BIRTH ONE ACCOUNT GIVES IT AS OHIO AND ANOTHER GIVES IT AS FRANCE. WHO KNOWS FOR SURE?

8. I HAVE ALSO BEEN IN CONTACT WITH THE GALLIPOLIS,OHIO LOCAL NEWSPAPER WHICH HAS ALL OF THEIR OLD NEWSPAPERS ON MICROFILM AND THEY HAVE JUST BEEN WONDERFUL TO ME IN GOING BACK INTO THEIR ARCHIVES AND FINDING TWO OLD NEWSPAPER ACCOUNTS ABOUT THE DEATH OF MY JOHN A. ROSE BUT UNFORTUNATELY FOR ME THE ACCOUNTS DID NOT GIVE ME ANY MORE INFORMATION THAN I ALREADY HAD.

9. GETTING BACK TO THE CENSUS RECORDS FOR A MINUTE. I HAVE CHECKED THE 1850,1860,1870, CENSUS RECORDS FOR GALLIA CO.OHIO BUT TO NO AVAIL...MAYBE I MISSED SOMETHING I DON'T KNOW BUT I'VE BEEN WORKING ON THIS FOR WHAT SEEMS LIKE FOREVER AND STILL CAN'T BREAK IT OPEN.

10. I HAVE EVEN ORGANIZED A FAMILY REUNION FOR THE LAST TWO YEARS IN COLUMBUS,OHIO (IT SEEMS LIKE A CENTRALIZED LOCATION) IN AN ATTEMPT TO FIND ANY FAMILY MEMBERS THAT MIGHT HAVE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT MY JOHN A. ROSE BUT IT SEEMS THAT EVERYONE KNEW OF MY JOHN A. ROSE BUT NOTHING ABOUT HIM OR IF HE HAD ANY BROTHER OR SISTERS LET ALONE WHO HIS PARENTS WERE.....IT JUST KEEPS GETTING TOUGHER AND TOUGHER FOR ME.

11. I SORT OF THINK OF MYSELF AS A PRETTY FAIR RESEARCHER BUT I MAY HAVE TO RESORT TO HIRING A PROFESSIONAL TO FIND MY JOHN'S PARENTS AND I DON'T REALLY WANT TO DO THAT IF I DON'T HAVE TO....I QUESS ITS JUST MY PRIDE THAT DOES NOT WANT TO HIRE SOMEONE.....I HAVE ALWAYS DONE ALL OF MY OWN RESEARCH ON ALL OF THE TWENTY SOME FAMILY LINES THAT I HAVE BEEN WORKING ON OVER THE YEARS...IF I DO SAY SO MYSELF I THINK THAT I HAVE DONE PRETTY GOOD SO FAR...WITH ALL OF THESE VARIOUS FAMILY LINES BACK INTO THE 1700'S AND SOME OF THEM INTO THE 1600'S AND ONE OF THEM INTO THE 1500'S. AND IF I EVER GET TIME I MIGHT FIND THE CHARTED LINAGE FOR ONE FAMILY OFFSHOUT AND TAKE IT BACK TO THE YEAR 800 AT LEAST THAT IS WHAT MY INFORMATION STATES.....

WELL THAT MIGHT GIVE YOU A LITTLE MORE TO GO ON BUT IN CASE THERE IS ANYTHING ELSE THAT YOU MIGHT NEED JUST ASK AND IF I HAVE IT I WILL INFORM YOU OF SUCH. THANKS FOR YOUR TIME AND PATIENCE WITH ME I REALLY APPRECIATE ANY HELP THAT YOU CAN PROVIDE.

THANKS AGAIN

MICHAEL ROSE

DEAR MARY,

NOW IT IS I WHO MUST APOLOGIZE FOR NOT BEING TOO QUICK IN ANSWERING MY MAIL AS I SHOULD BUT WITH GOOD WEATHER FINALLY HERE THERE HAS BEEN SO MANY THINGS THAT I HAD TO GET DONE. A POOR EXCUSE AT BEST BUT ITS THE ONLY ONE THAT I HAVE.

ABOUT THE FAMILY OF ABRAHAM ROSE I HAD ALREADY TALKED TO CHRISTINE ABOUT THAT A FEW MONTHS AGO OR SO BUT THAT IS ONE FAMILY THAT I WILL HAVE TO TRACK AND SEE HOW IT WORKS OUT. I ALSO HAVE TWO OTHER POSSIBLY SETS OF PARENTS FOR MY JOHN A. ROSE THAT I WILL BE TRACKING ALSO. SOUNDS LIKE A LONG HARD ROAD WITH NO PROMISE THAT THERE WILL BE ANY RAINBOW AT THE END OF IT FOR ME. BUT I WILL FIND THE PARENTS OF MY JOHN A. ROSE IF IT TAKES ME TEN YEARS. THIS HAS BEEN VERY FRUSTRATING FOR ME AS ALMOST ALL OF THE INFORMATION FOR ALL MY OTHER FAMILY LINES HAVE COME SO EASY AND NOW I HAVE TO HONEST TO GOODNESS WORK FOR SOME INFORMATION.

HAVE YOU HAD ANY DEALINGS WITH THE GENEALOGY SOCIETY IN COSHOCTON, OHIO ? I WROTE TO THEM ABOUT THREE MONTHS AGO AND HAVE YET TO HEAR FROM THEM.

I HAVE JUST PURCHASED A MICROFICHE/MICROFILM READER FOR MY OWN HOME USE AS WELL AS SENT IN A MEMBERSHIP FOR MICROFICHE/MICROFILM RENTAL FROM THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES. SO THAT SHOULD MAKE MY RESEARCH LIFE A LOT EASIER AS I STILL HAVE TO GO TO WORK EVERY DAY AND I ONLY HAVE EVENINGS OR WEEKENDS WHICH TO RESEARCH.

I APPRECIATE YOUR HELP AND INPUT IN MY QUEST TO FIND THE PARENTS OF MY JOHN A ROSE AND ANYTHING THAT YOU SHOULD COME ACROSS OR ANY IDEAS THAT YOU HAVE WOULD BE VERY WELCOME. IF THERE IS ANY INFORMATION MORE THAT I CAN GIVE YOU PLEASE JUST ASK.

SINCERELY,

MICHAEL ROSE

Dear Mike,

Sorry for the delay in answering your last letter. I have been keeping my two grandchildren, ages, 2½ and four months, since 31 Dec and am very far behind in everything...

Don't give up...John A. Rose did have parents and you will find them before long.

I have gone over your letter several times. Census records are so unreliable, as I am sure you know. Many times when they were recopied by the census taker, a family member or a helper, bad mistakes were made. I was not aware that they were recopied until Chris Rose told me.

If I were to consider a record showing current age, I would rather accept the death certificate. The information was probably given by his doctor or a family member.

I have the 1850 census of Ohio for the name Rose which I ordered from Chris. I have gone over and over all families with a "John". The following is interesting:

COSHOCTON CO, OH - 1850

184/184 p 151 Jackson Twp Dist 26 7 Aug 1850

Rose, Abraham	32	m	England	Moalder	$2000
Rachel	28	f	NY
Ellen	5	f	Ohio
John	2	m	Ohio
James	7/12	m	Ohio

FRANKLIN CO, OH - 1850

506/571 p 278 Columbus Ward 4 18 Oct 1850

Rose, Abraham	32	m	France	Moulder	$400
Rachael	22	f	NY
Ellen	5	f	Ohio
John	3	m	Ohio
Frank, Flora	16	f	Germany
Jane	2	f	Ohio
Rose, James	1	m	Ohio

Is this the same family? It seems very possible. It also, seems, if we wish to accept the information, that this John was age two on 7 Aug 1850 (census) in Coshocton Co., and if he is the same John, that by 18 Oct 1850 (census) he had become age three...an October birthday???

The 1860 census index for Ohio lists an Abraham still in Coshocton Co. but none in Franklin Co. Were they just visiting in Franklin and somehow got enumerated?

I saw your query in the Rose Quarterly. I had already looked at the 1850 census and was surprised to find that we had picked exactly the same families as possibles. To at least satisfy your own questions, I believe I would try to follow Abraham in 1860 and 1870 (if he remained in Coshocton. Maybe his John will acquire a middle initial, hopefully an A.

I misplaced you first letter listing the information for the children of John. I am enclosing a family group sheet. You might fill it out and return it to me and I will be on the lookout for information as I do my Rose research in Ohio.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Dennis:

I received your letter this date concerning the family of John and Nancy Balewin Rose of Kansas or Kentucky. I am unable to connect any of the names you sent to the family of Charles and Rebecca Rose of New Jersey and Monongalia County, VA (now West Virginia), which are the Roses that I am researching.

I have checked the index for the Rose Family Bulletin for 1966-1972 for the names you have listed without success. I have all of the Bulletins for 1966-1983, but only the index to 1972.

If you are not familiar with the Rose Family Association, as a Rose researcher, I would suggest that you consider joining. If you are unable to do such, see if your local genealogical library has copies of the Bulletin. It is most helpful and each issue really packed with Rose records from all states.

I am enclosing some information from the Association, which includes available published records and membership information.

Sorry I am unable to help in your search, but at this time, I see no connection. My Charles Rose did have a brother, Jonathan Rose, who was supposed to have gone to Kentucky from New Jersey, but have little information concerning this Jonathan.

Good luck in your research.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Mary,

Thank you very much for your nice letter and the information you sent. I am sorry I haven't answered sooner, but this is a very busy time of the year for me. All of my extra time is strictly devoted to Prairie Pioneer Certificates. It is a very interesting, but time consuming job.

I really do not have very much information on the Rose Family and I haven't heard of Rosemary Lockyer. We do know that Enos Rose was definitely married to Rachel Stout. We have been to the Wheeler Cemetery near Carlinville in Macoupin County, Illinois, and have taken pictures of the tombstones. We know much more about the family of Sarah Ann Rose who married Arter Taylor and their descendants.

You mentioned the Hendricks who came from Kentucky to St. Clair County, IL. Since I live less than ten miles from the Madison - St. Clair County Line, maybe there is something I could do for you to help.

I can understand being a bit "out of it" after the deaths of both your Mother and sister. I surely hope everything is going better for you now.

Thanks again for your letter and the information you sent. If I can be of any help to you in this area of Illinois in your research, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Reba,

Received your letter today and appreciate your offer of help in St. Clair County concerning my Hendricks family. Am enclosing some information about the group and really have no idea where to start. They are such a mystery that I have just about given up on the research. I even hired a KY researcher who was unable to find out a thing which would prove which Hendricks went to IL from Kentucky. I would not consider asking you to do some research in St. Clair without you taking at least what I usually pay researchers. I want you to let me know what you charge for work done for others. The range I have paid is from 4.00 for the KY research to 10.00 for my Hunterdon Co., NJ research. Both were very good, so have no idea why the wide range...

Now to the Rose family. I have checked the Ezekiel Rose report from the Rose Family Association and the Enos 5 Rose material, as I said, was from the data of Rosemary Lockyer. I have checked the membership names and her 1981 address was:

Rosemary S. Lockyer
8530 Westbrook Pike
Knoxville, TN 37923

I have no idea who she is, nor her relationship to Enos Rose. Think you should write to her and find out if she is related or just sent material she found in her research on the Rose family. Those of us who belong to the Rose Family Association are always on the lookout for any Rose material, not just our Rose line, because the Association will publish all Rose material in hopes it gives a big break to someone. Do write to her and if her address is not current, let me know and I will try to find her new one.

I would appreciate any information you have about the children of Enos beyond what I sent from the Ezekiel 3 Rose report so that I could update my report. I have some of the children of Andrew Jackson Rose from the report (those listed in the 1850 and 1860 census).

I can't remember if I sent you sheets from the Association concerning membership and such. If I did, just put them in your genealogical library for someone else who might be interested.

Still have not stopped long enough to copy the material for the Prairie Pioneer Certificate on my Hendricks. Will do it soon, I promise. I think I have everything necessary, but time!

Let me know about the Hendricks research after you see the enclosed. There were other Hendricks in St. Clair Co., but have been unable to tie any of them together. I also, have Browns in St. Clair - my James Hendricks married Sarah Brown and they were in St. Clair by 1840. Sarah Brown Hendricks mother, Susan Brown lived in their household in 1850. Do not know her father's name (W. G. ???).

Will keep an eye out for the Enos Rose material and send it on to you.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mr. Lough:

I am enclosing my check in the amount of $22.00 for your book, "Now and long ago" which we discussed by phone this date. I do understand that the copy you are to send to me has some wear on the covers, but the pages are in good shape.

I will today, write to Jack Sandy Anderson, of Shinnston to inquire about my Charles Rose and wife, Rebecca, who lived (according to the description of his land in his will of 1816) on the road leading from Ices Ferry to the sand spring, 100 acres...the remainder of the land to be sold and divided between his children; Charles; John (married Eda Boyce in Monongalia Co); Thomas; Hopkins(married Susannah Conner in Fayette Co. PA); Mary; Rachael; Rebeckah; Hannah; Freelove; and Elsie (married James Conner in Monongalia Co.).

Charles Rose (a Revolutionary soldier from New Jersey) bought his first land in Monongalia County in 1796 (292 acres on Wolfpen Ridge). He, in 1800, sold land in the same county (140 acres west of Pleasant Furnace) to Richard and James Cain. I have not had anyone to further research land transactions to find the final disposition of his land after his death in Monongalia County, since I have not been able to locate anyone to do such research in that county.

Thank you for the information and will await the arrival of your book.

Sincerely,

Mary

Mr. Jack Sandy Anderson

Shinnston, W.VA. 26431

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Your name was given to me by Mr. Glenn D. Lough of Fairmont, W.VA. I had heard that he was an historian for the area of Monongalia County known as Ice's Ferry, and contacted him in search of information about my ROSE family of Monongalia County. He suggested that you were doing some research on a ROSE family about two years ago and thought we might be researching the same family.

My ancestor, Charles Rose (a Revolutionary soldier from Hunterdon Co., NJ) and his wife, Rebecca, first bought land in 1796 in Monongalia Co. He died between 6 June 1816 (date of will) and 21 Sept 1816 (appraisement of estate) in Monongalia County. Location of burial is unknown.

Children: ROSE, per will -

John	married Eda Boyce 27 Sept 1808 (Monongalia Co. VR)
Thomas	Married, perhaps, Ruth Scudder (1850 census-Monongalia Co.)
Hopkins	married Susannah Conner 22 May 1812 (Fayette Co. PA. VR)
Charles	youngest per will, perhaps married Jane ? - (1850 census-Monongalia)
Elsie	married James Conner 31 Aug 1813 (Monongalia Co. VR) - father Charles Rose, surety, Hopkins Rose
Mary
Rachael
Rebeckah
Hannah
Freelove

Charles Rose is thought to be the son of Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ (one Charles Rose, son of Ezekiel is listed in the will of Ezekiel Rose of that county in 1768).

It is also, thought that Charles Rose might be connected to John Rose who married Rebeckah Bowen and lived in Harrison County and lived variously in Floyd, Montgomery and Clay Cos. in Kentucky. The name Ezekiel has been used extensively in both families.

I would appreciate any assistance you might give to me on the Rose family and can send further information if you desire such.

I am enclosing an SASE for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Malone:

I am writing in response to the mention in Genealogical Miscellany of the May-June issue, 1983, of the Genealogical Helper concerning a surname index for Monongalia County, W VA., among other W VA counties.

I am enclosing index cards for my ancestor, Charles Rose, who lived in Monongalia County, Virginia. He moved to this county, or purchased land, in 1796 and 1800. His will is on file, 1816.

Enclosed is the necessary SASE. Any information you have from anyone, but Mrs. Verna Rosacrans of Moxee City, Washington would be appreciated. Mrs. Rosacrans is a cousin and we share all information, so it would be unncessary to relay her information.

Thank you for this service.

Dear Mrs. Bunton:

I am responding to your letter of 31 July in reference to your great-grandfather, Ralph Rose, b 1818. I am a member of the Rose Family Association of San Jose, California and have all of the family bulletins since the Association began. An index was recently issued covering approximately half of the bulletins since the publication began (1966). I have found a mention of a Ralph Rose, b 1818 in two different bulletins which I have Xeroxed and am enclosing. Since your letter gave such a small amount of information, the enclosed may be of no help, but sincerely hope it is a good lead.

I am enclosing information concerning the Rose Family Association membership and publications. If you are not now a member of the association, I would suggest that you contact Chris and Seymour and send them all of the information you have on your Rose family. They are wonderful to share and help those of us who are doing research on the Rose name.

As you see by the enclosed, if the Ralph Rose b 1818 is yours, the line could be:

George Rose - (1740-1816) (Geo. E. Rose line)
m Nancy Williams

Issue:
- Hannah
- Alberta
- John
- Sarah
- Andrew b
- Charles
- Elizabeth
- William
- Henry
- * Andrew b 1782
  m Elizabeth Daniel

Issue:
- John
- Lucinda
- Phoebe
- Perrena
- * Ralph b 1818
- George
- Wesley
- Josua
- Anson Green

John Rose (Kirkham line)

Andrew Rose b 1782
m Elizabeth Daniels

Issue:
- John
- Lucinda
- Phoebe
- Penina
- * Ralph b 1818
- George
- Wesley
- Joshua
- Anson Green

I feel quite sure that these two people must have the same line, but one or the other is a bit confused. It may well be that the lines are corrected in latter issues of the Rose Family Bulletin, but cannot locate the correction without the assistance of an index.

As earlier mentioned, please contact Chris Rose at the address on the enclosed sheets. She surely will be able to clear up the matter.

Hope I have been of a bit of help on your research and that the ~~John~~ Ralph Rose, b 1818 on the enclosed turns out to be your line. I would like to hear if the material is of any use.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I am very happly to hear from you. However until I can get the first name of my ROSE ancestor I am at a los s to search the line.

I have searched the Census for 1850, 1860 and 1870, for Cambria County, Pa. So far I have not been successful as I cannot locate ADAM VARNER in those years.

According to the Death Certificate of their son George. They lived in Wilmore, Cambria Co. Pa. in 1850 when he was born. The death certificate just shows _______Rose as the wife of Adam.

I wrote to the Rose Family a couple of years ago, but the told me they had no way of checking the names I gave them. Perhaps now they are on computer they might be able.

Should you locate any information you think I might use I am enclosing a SASE for your convenience.

I am sure once I locate the first name of our Grandmother and perhaps her Father, then the data you sent will be most valuable.

Thank you again for answering

Dear Mrs. West:

I have obtained your name from Thelma J. Gibson, County Clerk of Monongalia County who stated that you are a researcher in that county and might be available to do research for me.

My ancestor, Charles Rose, a Revolutionary soldier from New Jersey, apparently moved to Monongalia County, VA about 1796, as he is first recorded as purchasing 292 acres on Wolfpen Ridge in Nov of that year.

Charles Rose died between 6 June 1816 (date of will) and 21 Sept 1816 (inventory and appraisement of estate). His location of burial is unknown, but since his will is in Monongalia County, it is supposed that he is buried in that county or in nearby Preston County.

I have, over several years, obtained some documents from the county clerk, but need additional work done and really do not know what else to ask for or what could be available.

I would like to know if you are available to do such research and what costs I should anticipate, such as your charge per hour, copy costs, or travel expenses.

If you are able to assist me, I would like a list of items you will need from me, and will send items I have so far been able to obtain from that county.

Enclosed, a self-addressed and stamped envelope for your convenience to reply.

Lloyd's Great Grandfather was William Thomas Rose a son of Charles Rose II We will be happy to display your Copies I have a lot of items but none of the ones you mentioned.

We are also trying to get proof of the Garret Rose lineage.

I have the Will of Charles Rose I but not Ezekiel Rose.

Lloyd's cousins from Waterloo Iowa had Visited the W. Virginia Roses when she was a little girl and told us stories of that Visit. She is 76 yrs old. I think It was in 1930 when they visited W. Virginia

I have tried to Contact Lees recently but they were on vacation!

I recieved a phone call from a Mrs Martin whos a descendant of John R. Rose of Penn.

II

She lives near us and I told her I'd try & help her locate her lineage they were from Holland or probably from German descendant!

Sorry you can not attend the Conference but feel free to send

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Rose:

I received my copy of the Rose Family Bulletin today and the insert stated that you were the Family Group Leaders for the Charles Rose family of Monongalia County, W VA.

I have copies of the following items which I would be happy to send for the table top display if you do not now have them:

1777, 20 Oct - Charles Rose, Private (also, Jonathan listed), Captain Chambers Battallion (sic), Captain John Phillips Company (very poor copy from the NJ Archives)

1781, 13 Jan - Marriage bond obtained to marry Rebecca Mulliner. Bondsmen Stephen Moore, witness Nehemiah Sexton (This may or may not be the Charles Rose, later of Monongalia County, VA)

1783, 30 Oct - Judgement secured by John Price, guardian of Charles Rose, against Jacob Quick (Jacob Quick, Rose's brother-in-law)

1784, 1 Nov - Signed petition to receive militia pay, Hunterdon Co. Militia

I have the usual documents which I feel sure everyone has, Ezekiel's will the land records, etc.

My researcher in Hunterdon County came up with the following, which I did not know and do not have copies of the tax records:

1781, Jan - Hopewell Twp., Hunterdon Co., Charles Rose, Tax ratables man and horse

Wish I could attend the conference, but have a bit of big obligations (mainly an 84-year old father who lives alone since the death of my mother in Feb 1983). Also, work at the Bartlesville Public Library, which seems to take a big part of my waking hours.

Now a bit about who I am - a descendant of Elsie Rose Conner, daughter of Charles and Rebecca. My line is: Charles Rose/Elsie Rose Conner/John Conner/Ella (Elsie) Ann Conner Mitchem/William Harrison Mitchem/Orrin Ometa Mitchem/Mabel Inex Mitchem/Metzinger/ then, me, Mary Ruth Metzinger Nunneley. I suspect I could begin with Tormut and Ezekiel, but I only feel that I have proven, possibly, back to Charles.

I joined the Daughters of the American Revolution on the service of Charles Rose in October of 1982, after I found the application of Rebecca for a pension, which was rejected (applied for in Monongalia County, VA). The rejection appears to state that she went to court for further proofs, but have not been able to find those

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Bass:

I received my copy of the Bass Family Bulletin today and the [illegible] stated that you were the Family Group Leader for the Charles Bass family of Monongalia County, W VA.

I have copies of the following items which I would be happy to send for the table top display if you do not now have them:

1777, 26 Oct - Charles Bass, Private (given Jonathan [illegible]), [illegible] Battalion (sic), Captain John Phillips Company. (Very-many [illegible] from the NJ Archives)

1781, 13 Jan - Mortgage land obtained to move Rebecca [illegible] Stephen [illegible], [illegible] (This record was not on the Charles Bass, later of Monongalia County, WV)

1785, 20 Oct - Judgement against [illegible] John Bass, guardian of Charles Bass, against Jacob Smith [illegible]

1792, 1 Nov - Signed petition to resolve [illegible], Monongalia Co. [illegible]

I have the land documents which I had [illegible] Randolph's will, the land records, etc.

My researcher in Huntingdon County came up with the following which I did not have and do not have copies of the tax records:

1790, May - [illegible] Twp., Huntingdon Co., Charles Bass, tax on [illegible] cow and horse

1791, Jan - Hopewell Twp., Huntingdon Co., Charles Bass, tax on [illegible] cow and horse

With I could [illegible], but have a bit of [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] from the [illegible] of my [illegible]. Also [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] which [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] of my [illegible] [illegible].

[illegible] [illegible] I am a descendant of [illegible] Bass [illegible], daughter of Charles and [illegible]. My [illegible] Charles Bass [illegible] John [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. I [illegible] I could [illegible] with [illegible], but I only [illegible] that I [illegible] [illegible] back to Charles.

I joined the Daughters of the American Revolution on the service of Charles Bass in October of 1985, after I [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] for [illegible], which was [illegible] (applied for in Monongalia County, VA). The [illegible] seem to state that she [illegible] for further proofs, but have not been able to find them court records. If, in fact, she did go to court to try to obtain a pension, additional information may be held in those records. BUT WHERE. Apparently not in Monongalia, since Chris Rose did her recent research and did not find anything, at least in the indexed records. I suspect a good deep look at Fayette County, PA might bring up additional records for this family, or another thought, they all are missing in Preston County. A more likely thought.

I correspond with Verna Rose Rosacrans of Moxee City, WA, a descendant of Hopkins Rose, son of Charles and Rebecca. She is a super researcher and a good cousin who has shared much with me, but we are certainly at a dead end trying to follow any of the children other than those whose information is well known.

Just over a year ago, I heard from a lady in Oklahoma who had seen a Charles Rose query I had placed in the DAR Magazine, asking for information and the location of burial of Charles Rose. She is a descendant of Frederick Ice who established Ice's Ferry where Charles owned his land. In 1980, she and her husband went to W VA to do research and found that the area was now under water. A lake had been formed, Cheat Lake, and the area where her ancestors were buried was under the lake and only the bronze marker of Ice's Ferry was at the location. The marker stated that David Adam Ice, the first white child born in West Virginia had lived there. She wrote to tell me that I should not expect to find graves for any of the Rose family who also, lived there. I have not written to the State of West Virginia to see if any relocation of graves was done. Surely such was done. As a former employee of the US Corps of Engineers, my only job was to work on such relocation of cemetery plots when lakes were being developed for water conservation or flood control. It might be good to look into the development of this lake. If it was a Corp project, records of relocation will be available.

Well, I've gone on - but only meant to let you know that the above items are available for the display for the Convention, if you do not have them.

Enclosing an SASE - do let me know if you want them.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

In going through my DAR Magazines in preparation to dutting out articles that I want to keep I ran across your query in the February 1983 issue seeking the burial location of Charles Rose in Monongalia County, W. Va. In your query you list the beneficiaries named in his will. Could your Charles Rose have been the father of Rachel Rose who married John McIntire ca 1775? When was Charles Rose's will made?

I am enclosing my family chart and also a chart on John McIntire. He and his wife Rachel were killed by the Indians near his home at Enterprise, (W) Va. They are written up in most of the West Virginia Histories and also in the History of Harrison County by Henry Haymond - 1976 reprint.

In the Monongalia Story by Earl L. Core I quote "There is a tradition of a power mill built on Quarry Run before 1800, operated for several years by Charles Rose and two men known only Smith and Graham. It is said that Smith drove a nail in the mill, and a spark from it set off the powder, causing the mill to blow up. Smith was so severely burned that he died after walking half a mile to Charles Rose's house.", Volume 2, page 292.

In reviewing the above charts it is more likely that your Charles Rose was not the father of Rachel as she was probably 18/20 when she married John McIntire and 35/40 by 1791. She was more likely a sister if related at all. Also John McIntire was supposed to have fought at Cow Pens in Rev. War. To date I cannot prove this.

If the above Charles Rose is your line I believe Quarry Run is today located in Preston County, W.Va.

Please let me hear from you at your convenience.

Dear Katherine,

I, at this time, do not know of any connection between your Rachel Rose who married John McIntire and my Charles Rose who married Rebecca (Mulliner ?).

I know only a little of your family. Rachel Rose McIntire is supposed to have had a brother, John Rose, born 1760, in East Jersey on the Rockaway River. That location would today, be in Morris Co. NJ. John Rose, in his Rev. pension application, stated that he lived on the Monongahela River in the state of Virginia near to Washington bottom. The only Washington Bottom in VA (now W VA) is in Wood County and not near the Monongahela River. Since Washington, PA would have probably been considered in the disputed, West Augusta County, VA, during this period. John Rose may have lived near Washington , PA.

If you do not now correspond with Christine Rose, of the Rose Family Association, please do so. Chris is actively pursuing this John Rose family of East Jersey at this time. She is trying to find the parents of John and would welcome all information that might help. The Association was formed in 1966 and has a huge volume of Rose information. The address is:

Rose Family Association
San Jose, CA 95120

I really will not beesurprised if your Rachel and her brother John Rose are some part of my Charles Rose family. Charles served in the RW from Hunterdon Co. NJ and purchased his first land in Monongalia Co. VA in 1796. Though long before the Revolution, Morris Co., NJ was formed from Hunterdon Co.

Do write to Chris and let me know if she can help.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

In response to your query regarding your lineage to ——— Showalter I am shooting a bit blind as undoubtedly you are! I am going to try to construct two scenarios, not knowing if you know any more than the ——— Showalter on the death certifate.

I am going to give you a brief outline of the particular branch(es) of the Showalters as I know (?) it. Please bear with handwriting, etc.

To begin: (I will be sketchy, but in the event you uncover more in your future research I will then fill in much more detail.)

Once upon a time there were two brothers, Jacob (my ancestor)(yours?) and Christian (yours?) that came to Phila — Christian in 1749, Jacob 1750.

Christian settled in Earl Twshp, Lancaster County and Jacob in North Hampton County (on the Lehigh River above Allentown).

I believe that most all Showalters stemmed from these two spreading thru Penna and Ohio and down thru the Shenendoah Valley in Virginia.

One of Jacob's sons was Christian, my direct ancestor (not to be confused with brother Christian (1749). Another son was Ulrich who will try to tie to you. Ulrich was born about 1743-44 in Germany. Married to Susannah Watterson. He owned 47 acres of land in Northhampton Co. in 1771. Served in the Revolution 1778—1783. His name has been established by the D.A.R. In 1790 he moved to Rockenham County, Virginia and bought a farm from his brother, Daniel. He remained there until 1806, sold the farm to a son-in-law and moved to Fayette County, Penna where some of his children had moved. He died there in 1815. Many of his descendants are buried at Smithfield in a cemetary maintained by the Odd Fellows Lodge.

You will find Smithfield some miles almost due north of Morgantown, West Virginia, county seat of Monongalia County.

Thus one connection to Fayette Co and Monongalia.

John, Jacob, Daniel, Joseph, Henry, Elizabeth, Susannah, Martha and Mary, married Christian Rhodes.

Now for Connection 2 — (with Fayette/Monongalia)
Emigrant Christian (1749) brought a Showalter Bible with him inscribed "First printed in Zurich by Christopher Froschoner and finished March 16th 1536 — Reprinted by Simon Kurtzner in Strausberg in 1744". This is a rather large book with a wooden cover and back. — fair condition only — The book has been handled down over the years. It is now in the possession of Gladys Viola Showalter of Smithfield, Pa. Fayette County. Still living in 1980 altho in her 80's now.

I am sure you are well enough versed in the "Search" to see the possibilities of Court Houses, Churchs, Cemeteries, Death Certificates etc. Also Census — 1900? Archives?

Wish I could help more — please do not hesitate to request assistance if you get any closer.

One thing — what is your connection to ______ Showalter?

Also on the death certificate it appears to be Manuel Remely.

Sincerely
Henry Showalter Newman.

March 12. 1995

Dear Mary:

My Grandmother committed adultery + got fined for it - She would have had a good time in today's Society! Do you supposed she did Grandpa Hopkins Rose in? She was the bereaved widow + was lonely - gave her children up at least one of them, Ezekiel, + preceded to have more - Did they have welfare back then? It sounds like todays Welfare program!!! I would still like to know what happened to her - I wonder if the name is Karnes under Census records and I was looking for Harness. What is really funny Karnes is not that common of a name - but Jerry's sister is married to a Karnes - + I think they were originally from OK - Now wouldnt that be a riot if the name Harness was changed to Karnes. Next time I see her will ask her about her husbands Karnes family. Maybe Adam did a really dastardly deed and the kids changed their names.

Now for our "Maybe New Cousin" Gwen Snyder" - I did write to her and asked all the pertinent questions - I guess ~~Im~~ wondering where Gwen came up with the name Freelove. (should have been Susannahs name). It doesnt sound like Chris gave it to her but who knows what Chris may have said in her letter and I certainly would have jotted down the source "of someone had told me that they believed Freelove Rose married Charles Bower"! Also wouldnt you have thought Chris would have asked Gwen for family sheet on her Charles Rose - from Prodigy page" you know my Charles Rose had several children when he went to Ky" I'll check their names - could be one of them is in your line" The other alternation is that Chris did send 1850 Monongalia Co. W. Va Census for Charles Rose & Cousin Gwen assumes he is hers.

Thanks for David Shores info - This David is not a desc. of Frederick or Henry. Shore. I ~~guess~~ was really hoping that he had applied for a pension. I guess I will send for his military record. with hopes that some little goody might be in his record.

March 16th - Good Morning - it is 4:30 AM - and my day off & Friday also. I guess I will be working Saturday & Sundays for a while. We are really busy as the other restaurant in the Mall closed - the only other place you can smoke and Woolworth's is cutting back hours - The Coffee Shop is up in sales but the store side is down. They are putting in scanners on the Store side plus we now have a time clock to punch in and out which is located upstairs. No more free time from this lady and will punch in at 8:30 and take my breaks out in the Mall, instead of sitting in the Coffee Shop + jumping up and down running the Cash Register. when I'm on a break.

I heard from our maybe new Cousin Gwen Snyder and I'm enclosing a copy of her letter. I thought it was rather interesting - mainly what she said about Chris - to charge $50.00 for info to someone who is apparently very new at researching is a little much and makes the assumption this Gwen is a desc. of Charles Rose!!! Chris got most of her info from you and I and she is making the money - Most of the info from you. The letter is rather confusing, I admit, since I don't know who she is really researching - Charles Rose - Wm Rose Icelove ~~Bowers~~ (Rose) Bowen and she didn't send a family sheet. Will have to wait for next installment.

Well had best close + get a few more letters written. By for now

Love

Verna.

P.S. Send me the 1880 + 1900 1910 Census Records for Rose Boyd Co. Ky. I'm ready to track down Charles Rose + family

Dear Verna:

So nice to hear from you and it is so nice to find someone hanging from the same tree with you. Most of my information came from The Rose Association in California. My Charles Rose had the middle name of William and that is what he was called. Looking for my Rebecca Rose Johnson's parents I sent for her death certificate and her daughter who had filled it out (Laura or Mrs J.R. Simpson) wrote William Rose. All his deeds, grants, the wills and census had his name as Charles Rose, not even a middle name.

Christine Rose of the Rose Association only took me back 3 generations but it made me very happy. Be careful abt sending to her for information she is rather expensive, charged me fifty dollars, but was worth it.

Here is a rough sketch I'll get copies made and send you later.

The Papers say Charles Rose is from Hunterdon county New Jerseysince he is said in the pension file to have served from there. That he is possibly the son of Efzekiel R ose of Long Island, and it gives no name for his mother. It said this Ezekiel Rose died leaving a will in Hunterdon county dated 26 May 1768 . His son Charles Rose was young and and had to have a guardian until he reached 21. Charles went to Monongalia county Va. by 1796 for he bought land there. He owned a Powder Mill on Quarry Run before 1800, he owned land on Wolfpen Ridge

Charles Rose was married to Rebeckah Mulliner. Their children were:

1-John born May1782 married Eda Boyce - second wife Susanneh E. Shrives
2-Thomas born 1784 in NJ married Ruth Scudder
3-Hopkins born (not sure) married Susamnah Conner
4-Abey/Elsie/Aley-born Sept 12, 1789 married James Conner
5-Mary Ross
6-Rachael born ? married Benjamin Lewellen-son of Dr & Catherine Lewellen
7-Rebeckah born ? Married Jacob Franks
8-Hannah (no info on her)

Freelove sometimes spelled Frelove born ? Married June 3 1819 William Bowen, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Spicer Daugherty Bowen. Children were:

I think John Rose was the brother of Charles and John's father was Efzekiel Rose of Long Island and New Jersey.

The Rose Papers say that unsupported at this time they believe that John Rose who married Rebeckah Bowen and Charles Rose are connected. John Rose lived in Harrison county Virginia and owned land in Monongalia county Virginia. He sold this land and later bought in Fayete county Pa. in 1798. (maybe he sold his land to Charles) In 1800 John sold this land and moved into Kentucky and lived in Floyd, Montgomery, Clay etc. He settled in the area that is now known as Wolfe county Ky. Checking my Handy Book for Genealogists it tells me that before 1784 Harrison county was Monongalia county, so both John and Charles lived in Monongalia county & it looks like John moved there first. John sold this land and bought in Fayette county Pa. in 1798 and Fayette county Pa is just across the line from Monongalia so they lived very close to one another. Hopkins who was a son of Charles and Uncle of Freelove lived in Fayette county as well as Freelove. Perhaps Freelove married John Bowen in Pa before they all went to Ky.

I'll get some papers copied for you and perhaps we can find out more about the Roses and the Bowens.

Will be sending you some papers, So glad you contacted me. What is the name of your friend on Prodigy and her ID?

We're probably Cousins

Gwen

Mary:

The results of Charles' extended test were finally posted yesterday. They verify that his Harvey Rose was indeed fairly closely related to Jachonius and son Phillip (Ruth Talkington), although the path of the relationship still cannon be determined. I had also been hoping that there may be some indication of a relationship to other Roses, but it now appears this group is quite independent of any others, certainly not having any connection since arrival in America. However, tests like this one will certainly be helpful to us in the future, as more are taken.

Thank you very much for this, you have certainly done far more than your share. It is greatly appreciated.

Very warmest Christmas wishes to you !

David,
I had great hopes that the extended DNA test for Charles Rose would give us some clue to the Long Island problem. It is still such a great mystery and even my research (requested by Christine Rose) on the line of this Charles leads me exactly back to the Long Island group.
I do trust the tests, but not my research..................it is faulty at some point, for the tests do show a mistake somewhere ??
Thanks so much for all you do for this Rose project, and Merry Christmas.

Mary:

This is certainly quite a puzzling situation back there. I knew little of this family myself, but Christine got me up to speed a little on all the research you and her had done.The first test we had that had anything to do with this particular group was from Kenneth Rose, descendant of Abraham Lacy and Sarah Rose. This proved that Abe was indeed of the Long Island Group. I know that it was certainly anticipated that Sarah was a fairly close "cousin" to Abraham, and they could have indeed been first cousins. The results of Roger Rose (from Stephen, brother of Sarah) arrived, it was met with a lot of disbelief.

In the circumstances (proximity, documentation, and the fact this Group V has no matches earlier than Phillip & Ruth) I am tempted to think they were all connected as you have them, but that an undocumented adoption may have taken place within the first two generations following Martin. However, this is pure speculation, so would not "hang my hat" on it. This is something we have been able to establish in at least a couple other cases that are very similar. It is certainly not unknown to have two independent Rose families come together in marriage (there is a case in the distant reaches of my own family), but there is certainly a lot of contrary evidence in this case, suggesting some sort of bond existed.

More research is required, and it may be very hard to find. However, us Genealogists thrive on those unknowns. We enjoy the search as much as the find, and what would we do if every answer didn't lead to two more questions ?

I hope you are enjoying a wonderful Holiday Season, although we are stuck scratching our heads !

David

Dear Family Tree DNA Customer:

Please read this message carefully.

Your DNA sample kit, number 41428 was received today at Family Tree DNA.

From now on you can follow the progress of your test by logging in at our home page with your kit #41428 and password D3210. We recommend recording your kit number and password in a safe place, or keeping this email.

The next step is the processing of your sample at our lab. When the lab has completed the processing, you will be notified immediately by email.

Our tests meet the highest standard for precision and reliability which requires individual verification by very skilled professionals. Therefore, typical times between the time when the kit goes to the lab for processing and the availability of results is:
12 Marker Y-DNA - 4 weeks
25 Marker Y-DNA - 6 weeks
37 Marker Y-DNA - 6 weeks
12 to 25 Marker Y-DNA Upgrade - 4 Weeks
12 to 37 Marker Y-DNA Upgrade - 4 Weeks
25 to 37 Marker Y-DNA Upgrade - 2 Weeks
mtDNA Tests - 5 Weeks

(kits go to the lab in batches every 2 weeks)

These times are for tests that have a successful outcome from the first run at the lab. Approximately 85% of the first runs are successful. The tests are rerun on the other 15% until a good result is obtained. Unfortunately, each rerun adds two weeks to the process. We understand that the delay is frustrating to participants. When a delay occurs, your sample is being rerun as many times as it takes to achieve a successful result.

History of DeKalb County, Indiana; B. F. Bowen & Company, Inc., Indianapolis, 1914.

The career of the well remembered gentleman whose name forms the caption of this biographical memoir was a strenuous and varied one, entitling him to honorable mention among the representative citizens of his day and generation in the county with which his life was so closely identified. Although his life record has been brought to a close by the inevitable fate that awaits all mankind, his influence still pervades the lives of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who revere his memory. As a lawyer, jurists or private citizen, he was always true to himself and his fellow men, and the tongue of calumny never touched him. Judge James E. Rose, now deceased, who was not only a pioneer in DeKalb county, Indiana, but who became one of the well known jurists of the state, was born on December 22, 1832, in Mecca, Trumbull county, Ohio, and died at his home on South Main street, Auburn, Indiana, on April 20, 1909, at the age of seventy-six years. He was a son of John and Sarah (Coats) Rose, the former a native of Maryland and the latter of New York. The subject was descended from sterling old English ancestry on his mother's side and Scotch on his father's side. On September 2, 1836, the family left their comfortable home in Ohio and braving the hardships and privations incident to frontier life, they embarked on their weary journey to the new home in the west, arriving at what is now Stafford township, DeKalb county, Indiana, on October 3d, having spent thirty-one days on a journey that now requires only six hours by railroad. That they were there in the actual pioneer period of the county is evidenced by the fact that at that time there were not twenty acres of improved land in the county. Amid such conditions James E. Rose spent his boyhood days, his playgrounds being a labyrinth of stately trees and tangled vines. His first educational training was received before the fireplace in his father's cabin, his devoted mother being his teacher. It was several years before the country was sufficiently settled to establish a school, but by the age of sixteen years Mr. Rose had acquired sufficient knowledge to enable him to teach a common school. He was thus engaged during the winter months, spending the summer vacations in working on his father's farm until he reached his twentieth year, when desiring a better education he entered the preparatory department of the Michigan Wesleyan University at Leoni, Michigan, where by great diligence he prepared himself within a year for the regular university course. He took the scientific course and, excepting a few terms spent in teaching in order to raise funds for his collegiate expensed, he continued in the university until 1858, the close of his junior years. Upon leaving that institution he married Mary J. Moss, of Leoni, Michigan, then returning to the old home in DeKalb county, he resumed work on the home farm until October 1862, when he moved to Auburn, and became principal of the city schools. At the close of the first winter term he entered the law office of James B. Morrison as a student and remained there until December, 1863. He had a natural aptitude for law and made rapid progress in his studies, so that about fourteen months after entering the office Mr. Rose formed a partnership with Hon., E. W. Fosdick, and they opened an office in Butler for the practice of law. During the first year or two Mr. Rose was not overburdened with business, but this time was well occupied in assiduous study, thereby developing his legal knowledge and better preparing himself for the business that was to come to him later on. It was not many years before Mr. Rose became a busy man in his profession, his partnership with Mr. Fosdick continuing until after they had established a good practice, when by mutual agreement their association was dissolved. Mr. Rose continued in the active practice at Butler until October, 1872, when he moved to Auburn and remained alone in the practice until July, 1873, when he formed a partnership with Hon, E. D. Hartman. This firm, under the name of Rose & Hartman, continued until July, 1881, when the partnership was dissolved and Mr. Rose continued in the practice alone until 1882 when his son James H., became his partner. This firm grew in strength and business until they enjoyed the largest legal patronage of any firm in northeastern Indiana. In addition to their ordinary local practice they were attorneys for the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, the Wabash railroad and the Toledo & Chicago interurban railroad. It was characteristic of Judge Rose that, busy as he was, he never relinquished his close and zealous study of law and he thus became well informed on the principles as well as the precedents to such an extent that he was frequently called upon by other members of the bar for advice an counsel. For nearly half a century Judge Rose was identified with practically all the important litigation tried in the local court and was employed in many cases in adjoining counties, while during this period the firm of J. E. and J. H. Rose was regarded as the leading law firm of DeKalb county. As a trial lawyer Judge Rose was vigorous, aggressive and thorough, while as a counselor he was conservative and safe. For a score of years the other members of the DeKalb bar regarded Judge Rose as the dean of the bar and it was the custom to commemorate his birthday with social gatherings, at which he would regale his younger brethren with reminiscences of the early lawyers and judges. For nearly half a century Judge Rose was an active member of the Masonic order, in which he took great pride. In politics he was always a Republican and was active in the ranks, not for personal reward but from a sense of public duty. He was present at the historic gathering under the oaks at Jackson, Michigan, when the Republican party was born, and was thereafter one of its most earnest advocates. In 1876 he was nominated for judge of the circuit court of DeKalb, Noble and Steuben counties. About three years prior to his death Judge Rose was chosen by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company as a representative from Indiana on their board of directors, filling this position until his death. Of an intensely optimistic disposition, Judge Rose resolutely looked on the bright side of life, casting gloom aside and because of his genial and happy disposition he was a welcome visitor in any gathering, and was honored and respected for his noble traits of character, his uprightness, his courage and his sterling qualities. He was temperate in all affairs of life, a lover of home and lived an active and energetic life of usefulness. Judge Rose was married three times, his first wife dying on February 5, 1872, leaving two sons, Frank E. and James H., and a daughter, Ella J. Frank E. is now a railway superintendent at Trinidad. Colorado, while James H. is engaged in the lucrative law practice at Fort Wayne. Ella J. died on November 13, 1910. In the fall of 1872 Judge Rose married Ellen D. Aldrich, of Butler, who at her death left one child, who died soon after the mother. On September 7, 1873, Judge Rose married Mary F. Nimmons, of Butler, the daughter of P. B. and May A. (Brink) Nimmons. Three children were born to this union: Mary E., Ines P. and Laura A. Mary E. is the wife of E. W. Atkinson, a well know lawyer at Auburn, and they have two children, Virginia Rose and Joseph Edward; Ines in the wife of George E. Bengnot, who is a member of the firm Schaab Brothers Dry Goods Company at Auburn, and they have two children, Charles and Mary; Laura makes her home in Auburn with her mother. Mr. Rose has long been prominent in the social life of Auburn and was one of the charter members of the Ladies Literary Society of this city. She was born and reared at Butler, her parents having originally come to this county from New York. Her father was born at Chenango Forks, New York, and was of Scotch-Irish ancestry, while her mother, who was born at Aesopus, New York, was of Holland ancestry, descended from the family of Anneka Jans, who owned sixty-five acres where Trinity Episcopal church now stand in New York city. Mrs. Rose's parents were married in Richland county, Ohio, in 1843, and came to DeKalb county, locating three and one-half miles southwest of Butler, where the father bought land that his brother James had entered from the government. This became the home and there they lived for many years. When they established themselves there only a small part of the land had been cleared and pioneer conditions prevailed. The father was accustomed to go to Defiance, Fort Wayne or even to Goshen to get grain ground and get flour, it requiring from two to three days to go to Defiance, through the trip could be made in less time on horseback when the matter was urgent. He was a life-long farmer but some time prior to this death relinquished his agricultural labors and moved to Butler. Mrs. Rose's mother died in 1860, leaving five children: Laura, Sarah Catherine, Mary Frances, Emblem Bevier and Alice E. Mr. Nimmons afterwards married Mary F. (Westfall) Nimmons, the widow of his deceased brother, Robert Nimmons. One son was born to them, who now lives in Butler. Mrs. Nimmons had one son, George R., by her first marriage, he living now in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Philip Bevier Nimmons was the trustee of Wilmington township for many years, and he and his family were prominent members of the Presbyterian church. Politically, he was a Republican and was actively interested in the success of that party. His death occurred on April 14, 1898. His widow now lives in Butler.

Biography of James E. Rose, pages 924 / 925 / 926. History of De Kalb County, Indiana. Inter-State Publishing Company, Chicago, 1885.

James E. Rose, attorney at law, of Auburn, Ind., was born Dec. 22, 1832, in Mecca, Trumbull Co., Ohio. His father, John Rose, was a native of Maryland, and his mother, Sarah (Coats) Rose, was a native of New York. The ancestors of both the Rose and Coats families came from England. On Sept. 2, 1836, John Rose, with his family, consisting of his wife and four sons, of whom James was the youngest, and two daughters, started from their home in Mecca, Ohio, on a journey to a new home in the West, arriving in this county, in what is now Stafford township, on the 3rd day of October, having spent thirty-one days in performing a journey that can now be accomplished in six hours. De Kalb County was then a wilderness, there being but a few "settlers" and not twenty acres of improved land in the county. It was several years before the settlement became large enough to enable the neighborhood to organize a school, and in the meantime James was instructed by his mother and older brother, improving the evenings in receiving instruction by the light generously reflected by the cabin fire-place. At the age of sixteen he had acquired sufficient education to teach a common school. He taught school during the winter months and worked on his father's farm during the summers until he had reached his twentieth year, when, being desirous of obtaining a better education that the schools of the county afforded, he went to Leoni, Mich., and entered the preparatory department of the Michigan Wesleyan University. After one year spent in that department he entered upon the scientific course in the university proper, and continued in the university until May, 1858, at the close of the junior year, he left the university and married Miss Mary J. Moss, of Leoni, Mich. He then returned to his old home in this county and worked on a farm until October, 1862, when he moved to Auburn and accepted the principalship of the Auburn schools. At the close of the winter term of school he entered the law office of James B. Morrison, Esq., as a student, where he remained until December, 1863, and then removed to Butler, in this county, and formed a partnership for the practice of law with Hon. E.W. Fosdick, devoting his time assiduously to his studies; the business of the firm not being sufficiently large to interfere materially with his study for two years. This partnership continued until the firm of Rose & Fosdick had established a good business, when by mutual agreement the firm dissolve. Mr. Rose continuing in the practice at Butler until October, 1872, when he removed to Auburn and continued the practice of his profession alone until July, 1873, when he formed a partnership with Hon, E.D. Hartman, which continued under the firm name of Rose & Hartman until July, 1881, when they dissolved the partnership. Mr. Rose continuing in the practice alone, Mr. Rose's wife died Feb. 5, 1872, leaving three children, two sons, Frank E. and James H., and one daughter, Ella J. He was again married during the summer of 1872 to Miss Ellen D. Aldrich, of Butler, who died March 22, 1873, leaving one child, who died soon afterward. He was again married in, September, 1873, to Miss Mary F. Nimmons, of Butler. They have three children---May E., Inez P. and Laura A. Mr. Rose has been actively identified with the Republican party since arriving at his majority, contributing liberally of his time and money for its success; not for the personal reward that it may bring him, but in the zealous discharge of a duty. He is member of the Presbyterian church of Auburn, and is a member of the Masonic fraternity, having attained to the degree of Knight Templar. He is a zealous advocate of temperance and a practical temperance man.

THE SEARCH FOR DAVID ROSE (1721-1781)
Research Report

Draft June 1, 2000

By Gerald S. Lenzen

This report will identify the results of several research trips to Salt Lake City, Utah to utilize the Family History Library of the Genealogical Society of Utah. It incorporates material acquired during on-site visits to Washington County, Maryland, Berkeley County, West Virginia, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and Hunterdon County, New Jersey. Research materials were collected in the court houses, libraries, and historical associations in these counties. Some facts and records were obtained from state archives and state historical societies. The report will include material acquired over 25 years of research on the Rose family. It will also pose questions and indicate potential areas for future research.

A goal of this research was to try to find record of David Rose in Washington County, Maryland. He died there in the Autumn of 1781 according to a partial manuscript "prepared by the late Judge James E. Rose of Auburn, Indiana in 1888. It was entitled GENEALOGICAL BIOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL SKETCHES AND REMINISCENSES FROM RECORDS AND TRADITIONS OF THE ROSE FAMILY. It was located and copied by John R. Scoville of Rural Route No. 1, Butler, Indiana. 46721 in 1972."[1]

David Rose and his wife, Hannah Par, are listed as the parents of ten children in the Judge Rose manuscript.[2] These children, the children's spouses and grandchildren, and the records associated with them, will be used to establish a relationship with David and Hannah (Par) Rose. The Judge Rose report was used as a guide to locate and identify records and source documents in the localities described in his work. The report has proven to be very reliable.

Another purpose of this research was to specifically identify and locate David Rose in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania between 1760 and 1780.

A secondary purpose of this research was to use Robert and Abigail Rose, identified as the parents of David Rose by Judge Rose, to help locate and identify David Rose in New Jersey between 1745 and 1760.[3] Judge Rose indicated that the first eight of the ten children of David and Hannah Rose were born in New Jersey between 1745 and 1761. A comprehensive review of the published indexes to the New Jersey Archives revealed no David Rose. However, a David Rose was located in the will books in Morris County in 1750. See details under the New Jersey heading. One Robert Rose, in the period 1737 to 1751, was located in Hunterdon County in the mortgage books.[4] This Robert came from Long Island, New York. A different Robert Rose was not found in any other New Jersey indexes to colonial and county record sources. Daniel Rose was associated with Robert Rose in Hunterdon County, New Jersey. The relationship between Robert and Daniel Rose was investigated.

David Rose and Hannah Par

The following is from the Judge Rose report as published in the Rose Family Bulletin:

"David Rose, son of Robert and Abigail Rose was born on Long Island N.Y. on the 15 day of August 1721. He died in Washington county, Md. in the Autumn of 1781 aged Sixty years and two months. He married Hannah Par who was born on Long Island N.Y. on March 5, 1724. She was a daughter of John and Mary Par. She died in Poland Township Mahoning County Ohio, at the home of her son Jesse Rose on the 1st day of May 1813 at the age of eighty nine years. . . John Rose lived in Poland Township at the time Jesse Rose lived there and at the time of the death of Mrs. David Rose lived in Mecca township in Trumball county Ohio."[5] Judge James E. Rose is a grandson of John Rose and Tacy Reese through John Rose, Junior and his second wife, Sarah Coats.[6]

Another family history was prepared by Charles Ensign Rose, of Warren, Ohio, in 1939.[7] The descendants of John and Jesse Rose, sons of David and Hannah (Par) Rose, are carefully detailed in that monograph. However, even though Ensign Rose claims to have had access to the Judge Rose manuscript, he either ignored or opted not to use pertinent information, which clearly identified the siblings of John and Jesse. These omissions are especially interesting because Judge Rose was a grandson of John through his son John Rose, Junior. Further, he identifies two brothers to David Rose, namely Robert Jr. and Jesse, but provides no record or evidence for them.[8] His introduction contains much reference to historical events in France and England in which the Rose family was purported to be connected. He offers no proof of that involvement. He then tells us that "seven Rose brothers made the voyage to the new world to carve out their fortunes."[9] He claims that Robert Rose came to Berkeley County, Virginia in 1715 as one of those seven brothers.[10]

Of Judge James Edward Rose, Ensign Rose says, "Some forty years ago he gave at a Rose reunion a report of his research into the history of the Rose family in the Old World, of their trials and tribulations there; and of our first Rose ancestor here in the New World, and his descendants in what is known as the Panhandle of West Virginia, which includes Berkeley County where he located."[11]

This information was not included in the partial manuscript located by John R. Scoville in 1972. This raises the question as to whether there ever was a complete and final report.

Ensign Rose claims that Robert Rose was the father of David Rose who was born in Berkeley County, Virginia in 1721.[12] This statement disagrees with the Judge Rose manuscript about David's place of birth. Also, Ensign Rose does not identify David's mother. The Judge Rose manuscript says "David Rose, son of Robert and Abigail Rose was born on Long Island N.Y. on the 15 day of August 1721."[13] Stafford County, the area that became Berkeley County, was a wilderness in 1715. It's doubtful that the elder Rose was there at that time. No Robert Rose can be found in the records or histories of that part of Virginia in that period. A Robert Rose, from Brookhaven, Long Island, New York, is found in the indenture and mortgage books for Bethlehem Township, Hunterdon County, New Jersey as early as 1737.[14]

There seems to be no verification for any of the claims made by Ensign Rose for Robert and David Rose in Berkeley County, Virginia, We must assume that most, if not all, of his writings for the ancestral lines of John and Jesse Rose are not supported by facts. He may have captured family legend, but they appear to be romantic, if not fabricated stories. The approval, correction, or refutation of this work will require a separate report. It will not be presented in this paper. All material in the Charles Ensign Rose monograph for generations earlier than Jesse and John, sons of David Rose and Hannah Par, will be ignored in this research presentation. Details for the descendants of Jesse and John Rose will need to be carefully scrutinized as well. This is left to future inquiry.

Charles Ensign Rose was a descendant of Jesse Rose and his first wife Susan Smith through David Rose and Sarah (Polly) Parshall. The descent follows through Robert Rose and Almyra Edsel, Henry Butler Rose and Mary Eliz. Moherman, to Charles Ensign Rose.[15]

Mary, David Jr., Robert, and Mary [2nd] Rose

Judge James E. Rose stated that four children of David and Hannah Rose had died young; Mary, David Rose, Jr., Robert, and Mary 2nd. Two sons and one son-in-law died in the 1770's while the family was living in Pennsylvania.[16]

Mary, listed as the first child, was born in New Jersey in 1745, and died at the age of four years, about 1749, probably in New Jersey.[17]

David Rose Jr., listed as the oldest son, was born February 14, 1747, in New Jersey, and died in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, about 1771, "from some disease, which resulted in mortification of one arm. He died unmarried."[18] It appears he might have contracted gangrene from a fall or injury.

Robert Rose, the fourth child was born February 1, 1752, in New Jersey, and drowned in the Susguehana [sic] River about 1770 at age eighteen.[19] Nothing more has been found for him.

Another child died as a young mother. "Mary Rose, the sixth child was born in New Jersey on August 17, 1756 and was named after her parents first child which died in infancy. She married Robert Goncher (or Goucher) and by him had two daughters, Elizabeth who died when two years old, and Hannah born in Bath-Town Berkerly (sic) county Virginia on Feb. 4, 1781. She died at the age of 25 years and so far as I can learn left no children."[20] This citation appears to mean that the mother, Mary, died about 1781. Perhaps she died after childbirth, and the newborn infant, Hannah, died also.

Following are brief descriptions known about the other six children of David Rose and Hannah Par.

Rhoda Rose and Henry Gougher

"Rhoda Rose the third child was born in New Jersey on the 26 day of April 1749. She married Morris Lewis [Christine Rose uses the first name of John in her report.[21]] and by him had one son Morris Lewis. Her husband was drowned in the Susgneharma [sic] River near the mouth of the Juniatla [sic] River. She afterward married Henry Goucher. . . "[22] The following is found in the Chester County, Pennsylvania vital records. "Henry Goucher, of Newberry Township, York County and Roddy [sic] Louis [sic], of Derry Township, Lancaster County: Banns first time, June 25, in Middletown; second time July 2, in Maytown; third time at Wenicker's and married in Zebbernick's house."[23] Judge Rose reported that Rhoda had three sons and two daughters by this marriage.[24] This is the only marriage record that has been found for any of the children of David and Hannah (Par) Rose.

Henry Goucher is found in the land records of Washington County, Maryland. Henry Gouger [sic] of Washington County, Maryland, sold two tracts to David Robinson of Hampton, Anne Arundel County, Maryland, on September 5/6, 1804. This contained a tract called Tryal, 31 acres, and Gougers's Delight, a resurvey of Hickory Ridge, 147 acres.[25] His wife, Rodey, was interviewed by John Hunter and William Yates, both Justices of the Peace and witnesses to the deed entry. From a map prepared in the 1930's, this tract is located on the east side of the Old Town - Fort Frederick Road about 3 _ miles north of the Potomac River. The road is in the valley between Sideling Hill to the west and Tonoloway Ridge to the east.[26]

Henry Gougher [sic] is listed in the 1783 Washington County, Maryland Assessments [tax lists].[27] This is for Goughers Delight for 170 acres. The value per acre is minimal. This indicates very little land, if any, is under cultivation. He has two horses worth two Pounds, two cattle worth eight Pounds, and an unnamed number of sheep and hogs worth two Pounds. Household furniture is worth three Pounds. This does not appear to be a very wealthy household. Total amount of all property is worth 70 Pounds. [These numbers are very difficult to read on the photocopy page in the possession of the author]. These values fall in between those found for Gougher's brothers-in-law, James Rose and John Rose.

Compared to others in the same assessment list, 70 Pounds seems about average. Total assessment for individual households in Linton Hundred ranges from a low of eleven Pounds to a high of 1146 Pounds, with only six households above 500 Pounds.

The writer of this report took notes in Salt Lake City, Utah, 27 February 1998, that locates a Henry D. Gough [sic] in the Berkeley County, West Virginia Deed Index A-J for 1772-1926. He is identified as a Trustee of Bath in Deed Book 9, page 391, and the transaction has to do with real property. It can be found on Family History Library microfilm number 0831165. This deed needs to be retrieved.

Henry Goucher [sic] and family are found in the 1790 census in Washington County, Maryland.[28] This lists one free white male of sixteen and upward, including heads of families, and three free males under sixteen. Three free white females are also listed. No other free person or slaves are listed.

John Rose

John Rose was the third son and fifth child of David Rose and Hannah Par. Judge James E. Rose described him as follows. " John Rose son of David Rose was born June 13, 1754 in New Jersey, married Tacy Reese in Redner Chester Co Penn. in 1778. After their marriage they removed to Washington county Maryland near Shoaffs Mills where their children were born. . . .From Maryland he emigrated to Poland township Mahoning county Ohio, where he lived about 10 years and then moved to Mecca township Trumball county Ohio, where he lived until his death. . . He died October 4, 1832 aged 78 years 4 months and 9 days (this does not agree with dates given later in the manuscript. Ed.). His wife died May 10, 1840 aged 84 years 3 months and six days. . . .Mrs. Rose was a Quaker and at one time lived near Independence Hall Philadelphia. . . .Mr. Rose was a soldier in the Revolutionary war."[29] "Early in the 19th century, probably about 1804 they with their family together with a younger brother of his (Jesse Rose) removed to Poland Township in what is now Mahoning County Ohio. Mrs. David Rose the aged mother of John and Jesse came with them to Ohio and lived in the family of Jesse Rose her son until she died."[30]

John Rose is found in the land records for Washington County, Maryland.[31] John sold a parcel called Maple Level to John Adams on 19 October 1804 for $475.00 "Current money." According to the deed recording the following day, this parcel received a Certificate of Resurvey, returned to the land office, for 127_ acres to John Rose dated 5 March 1793. No adjacent landowners or geographic references are listed in the deed. John Hunter and William Yates were witnesses. Tacy, wife of John Rose, was examined separately and willingly released her dower 19 October 1804. Witnesses were the same as for the deed entry.[32] This tract was located about four miles north of the Potomac River on the west fork of the Old Town - Fort Frederick Road. It was about _ mile north and slightly west of Henry Gougher's "Hickory Ridge," also known as "Gougher's Delight." Gougher was married to Rhoda, John's sister.

There are two other land records that were investigated for John Rose. At first glance the surname on both of them appear to be Rose. However, on closer examination the surname is Rape or Ross. John Rape and James Ross are listed in the 1790 U.S. Census for Washington County, Maryland. After careful investigation, no more was done with these records. Washington County, Maryland, Deed Book E, pages 473-474, lists a purchase of household goods by John Rape from Isaac Rue. This is dated 17 July 1787. The original agreement was made 15 May 1787. Witnesses were Wm. McIntosh and John Harry.[33] Another record is listed in Deeds (Leases) Liber E, pages 1047-1056. This was a 99-year lease by John Rape and Conrod Strigler, Washington County, Maryland, from Otho Holland Williams of Baltimore Town, Baltimore County, Maryland, for a lot in Williams Port. Contiguous to the mouth of Conococheague Creek, the lot was part of a tract called Ross's or Rose's Purchase and another called Leeds. The following Commissioners, or any three of them, were appointed to survey the lot; Thomas Hart, Thomas Brooke, Moses Rawlings, Richard Pindell, and Alexander Clagett. The lease was made 10 April 1788 and recorded 28 August 1788. John Stull and Alex. Clagett were witnesses to this filing. Within this 10-page document, the name frequently appears to be Ross.[34]

In the 1783 tax list, John Rose is listed on "Mapole L{ }," [this is indexed as "Maple Seville" in the Maryland Hall of Records] which contained 130 acres.[35] This appears to be the same tract that was patented in 1793 as "Maple Level." Compared to other properties, the value per acre was minimal. It was valued at what appears to be 5 Pounds per acre. This would imply that most of the land was not being cultivated. He had two horses and five cattle. The number of sheep and hogs was not detailed but there was an assessment for them. John's Household Furniture was worth 3 pounds 15 shillings. His Personal Property was worth 29 pounds, 12 shillings, 6 pence. The value of furniture and personal property would imply that John is probably living in his own furnished house.

John Rose is found on the 1790 U.S. Census for Washington County, Maryland.[36] He has one free white male of 16 years of age and upwards and two males under 16 years. There are four free white females in the household. No other free persons or slaves are listed. According to Judge Rose, John "married Tacy Reece in Redner Township in Chester county Pennsylvania on the ___ of ___ 1778. His wife Tacy was born on the 4 day of February 1756. . . "[37]

The 1800 U.S. Census lists John Rose in Linton Hundred, Washington County, Maryland. There are four free white males under 10 years of age in the household. There is one male aged 10 and under 16 years. John is tallied in the over 45 years of age category. There is one free white female under 10 years and one who is 10 and under 16. There are two females from 16 and under 26, and Tacy is listed as over 45 years.[38]

Jesse Rose

Judge Rose says that David and Hannah Rose's fourth son and seventh child "Jesse Rose was born in New Jersey April 2, 1757. He married Susan Smith during the Revolutionary War and six weeks after his marriage he enlisted as a soldier and went into the service. In his earlier life he lived near Warren Springs Va. (Va.?) and at one time near Yorktown in the same state in 1802 he emigrated to Poland township Mahoning County Ohio, and thence to Ellsworth in the same county."[39] Jesse Rose is known to have resided in Berkeley County, Virginia. Jesse purchased two tracts of land from William Smith in 1782 "on Drains of Sleepy Creek" on the east side of the road from Warm Springs to Winchester. Smith had acquired the land by Virginia patents in 1766 and 1770.[40] Jesse Rose and his wife, Susannah, sold the 123 acres to Rev. Matthew Ryan in 1802.[41] Other names mentioned in the deed were connected with "Michael Grays Corner" and "Walkers Corner" and "Mr. Grays line." These tracts of land are located in Morgan County, West Virginia today. William and Sysley Smith are purported to be the parents of Susannah, Jesse Rose's wife.[42]

Jesse Rose is listed in several tax lists for Berkeley County, Virginia. He is listed in 1784, 1785 [First Battalion], 1786 and 1787 [not listed], 1788, 1789, 1790, 1791, 1792, 1793, and 1794.[43]

The 1790 and 1800 census records for Virginia have been lost. The tax records have been collected for several years before and after those dates to substitute for the heads of household. Unfortunately, the tax records do not give us the composition of the remaining members of the family.

James Rose

Judge James E. Rose also described the writer's ancestor as follows. "James Rose was born in the State of New Jersey July 23, 1761. He married Sarah _____. He died in Hancock county Ohio June 2, 1837 aged 75 years. (does not agree with dates given. Ed.) 10 mo. and 21 days. His wife died October 22, 1838 aged 72 years 7 months and 14 days."[44] Subsequent investigation in 1999 by Bruce Dale, professional photographer, has uncovered a slightly different death date for Sarah.[45] After careful setup and appropriate lighting, the inscription on her tombstone clearly reads October 2, 1838. Additionally, the inscription on the stone reads "D'tr of T. Norris." From this, we may deduce that Sarah's maiden name was Norris.

James Rose is found on the 1783 tax lists in Maryland.[46] John Rose, his brother, and Henry Goucher, his brother-in-law and husband of Rhoda Rose Lewis, are listed there also. James was identified on three tracts of land in Washington County, Maryland on the drainage of Sideling Hill Creek. He purchased "Bear Garden," containing 127_ acres, from the Western Land Shore Office on 24 February 1791. It was recorded in Washington County on 23 October 1797.[47] He purchased "Bear Camp," containing 129_ acres, from the same land office on 14 May 1794. This parcel was also recorded on 23 October 1797.[48] The two tracts were contiguous to each other. A Warrant of Resurvey was issued on 10 May 1798 to combine the two parcels into one. The resurvey incorporated some vacant land and found some small additions and subtractions. The final tally was 294_ acres on the14 June 1798 resurvey. "Rose Valley" was sold to George Rizer on 15 October 1804. Jno. Buchanan was witness to the court entry. Sarah is listed as the wife of James Rose. It was entered in the deed books on 28 March 1811 according to the records in the Washington County Court House.[49] The Maryland Hall of Records indicates the patent for this tract was issued by the State of Maryland on 6 May 1816[50] [51]

Both James and John Rose are listed in the 1783 Linton Hundred, Washington County, Maryland Tax Assessments. James is listed on "Rose's Valley," which contained 294 Acres. This appears to be the same tract that was patented in 1798. Compared to other properties, the value per acre was minimal. This would imply that little, if any, of the land was being cultivated. He had two horses and six cattle. The number of sheep and hogs was not detailed but there was an assessment for them. His value of Household Furniture was one pound in Maryland currency. The value of his Personal Property was 19 pounds, 5 shillings.[52] Since he is over 21 years old,[53] the low valuation of both household items and personal property would imply a single man. He is probably living in someone else's house, perhaps with his mother and unmarried sisters. The latter would have their own household goods.

The 1790 U.S. Census lists a James Rose with one free white male 16 years and upwards including heads of families, one free white male under 16, and one free white female. No other free persons or slaves are listed. This appears to be James Rose, his wife Sarah Norris, and their first son, David Rose. There is only one James Rose listed in Washington County, Maryland, in 1790.[54]

That same Washington County, Maryland census lists an Ann Rose with two other females plus two slaves.[55] This could be Hannah, widow of David Rose, and her daughters, Ann, born 1765 and Catherine, born 1767.[56] This could also be Ann, the widow of Jonathan Rose, another resident of the area. There is no known relationship between Jonathan and the descendants of David Rose and Hannah Par. Jonathan was deceased by 12 June 1787 when Ann filed an executrix account with the probate court.[57] Further research is required to clearly identify this family. The listing of the two slaves in the census is a mystery. The David Rose family has no tradition of having owned slaves. From all known evidence, this family was very poor. The Jonathan Rose estate account record does not indicate any slaves. The Washington County, Maryland deed books do not reflect purchase or sale of slaves by either David Rose or Jonathan Rose.

The 1800 U.S. Census for Linton Hundred, in Washington County, Maryland, lists a James Rose with two free white males under 10, and one male of 26 and under 45. There are three free white females under 10, one of 10 and under 16, one of 16 and under 26, one of 26 and under 45, and one of 45 and upwards.[58] There appear to be three inconsistencies in this data compared to what is found in the research report by Christine Rose and the manuscript by Judge James E. Rose. The male child who was under 10 years of age in 1790 does not appear on this census in the 10-16 year age group. Perhaps the oldest son, David, is off working in some other place. The two males under 10 could be John and James, Junior. The 26-45 year old is James Rose, Senior. The three females under 10 are Rachel, Mary and Hannah. The lone females in the 10-16 and 16-26 age groups are unknown. They are too young to be the youngest sisters of James Rose, Senior. The female 26-45 is Sarah Norris, wife of James Rose. The female over 45 is probably Hannah [aka Ann], mother to James Rose. Judge Rose reports that John and Jesse, brothers to James, removed to Ohio "probably about 1804." "Mrs. David Rose the aged mother of John and Jesse came with them to Ohio and lived in the family of Jesse her son until she died."[59] It is unknown what happened to the sisters of James Rose by 1800. Ann would then be about 35, and Catherine about 33 years old if they were still living. Perhaps they have married. This question needs to be researched in the future. Did they marry and stay in Maryland? Did they move on to Ohio with their families and sibling's families?

Neighboring Tracts to James Rose

The tract called "Killicrankey" was located on the northwest corner of "Rose Valley." "Killicranky" [slightly different spelling] was surveyed for Lawrence O'Neale on 4 April 1771, and he was granted the patent in 1774.[60] This parcel contained 48 acres. "Rich Hollow" was located across Sideling Hill Creek to the west of "Rose Valley." It was surveyed for Joseph Franceway 15 May 1767. Patent was granted to him in 1769. It contained 170 acres.[61] In between "Rose Valley" and "Rich Hollow" lay three other parcels. "Green Briar" lay immediately to the west of "Rose Valley." Cynthia Boyd had this parcel surveyed 31 July 1838, and Richard Caton had it patented 1 May 1839. It contained 47 acres.[62] "Piney Bluffs lay immediately to the west of "Green Briar." It was surveyed for Richard Caton 21 July 1838, patented to him in 1839, and contained 30 acres.[63] John Norris surveyed "Norris" Victory" 1 April 1813, and had it patented 24 February 1810 for 212 acres. This tract lay between "Piney Bluffs" and "Rich Hollow." It paralleled Sideling Hill Creek to the south and crossed the creek north of "Rich Hollow." The road that skirted the south side of "Rose Valley" crossed through "Green Briar," "Piney Bluffs," and "Norris' Victory" before it forded the creek to enter "Rich Hollow" on the west side of the creek. Today, Rizer Road goes down the west side of Sideling Hill through "Rose Valley" and crosses Sideling Hill Creek as it leaves Washington County.[64] It is called Norris Road on the other side of the creek in Allegany County.[65]

David Rose in Maryland

Judge James E. Rose reported that David Rose died in Washington County, Maryland in the "Autumn" of 1781[66]. We have no indication of his cause of death at age sixty. Perhaps he contracted a fever or illness moving from Pennsylvania to Maryland that same year.

The site of David Rose's grave is unknown but its general location can be presumed. James Rose, youngest son of David, patented "Rose Valley" in Washington County, Maryland, in 1798.[67] It occupied a small valley west of Sideling Hill and southeast of a large westward bend in Sideling Hill Creek. This tract had a small access to the creek on the south. Several other smaller tracts fronted on the creek. The tract was about 4 miles upstream from the creek's confluence with the Potomac River. Sideling Hill Creek is the dividing line between Washington and Allegany Counties, Maryland today. Allegany was formed from Washington County in 1789.[68] John Rose, another son, patented "Maple Level" in 1793.[69] "Maple Level" was located about two miles east of "Rose Valley." It was on the east side of Sideling Hill on the northwest fork of Ft. Frederick Road. Henry Gougher, who married James' sister Rhoda, owned "Hickory Ridge" on the east side of Ft. Frederick Road, about three fourths of a mile south of John Rose. Jesse Rose, another son of David, bought land in 1782 on the drains of Sleepy Creek in Berkeley county, Virginia, directly across the Potomac from Washington County, Maryland.[70]

No land or tax records have been located for David Rose in Maryland. Based on his apparent behavior in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, David probably owned no land. Since he died in Washington County, Maryland in the Autumn of 1781, it is assumed that his son, James, was still living at home. James would have been 20 years old that summer.[71] John Rose married about 1778 in "Redner Township in Chester county Pennsylvania."[72] His first child, Hannah, was born 11 August 1779.[73] Jesse Rose "married Susan Smith during the Revolutionary War and six weeks after his marriage he enlisted as a soldier and went into the service."[74]

James and John were living two residences apart, but not near Ann, in Washington County in 1790.[75] James was listed with one female, and one male under 16 years of age. John was listed with two males under 16, and four females. David's daughter, Rhoda, had married her second husband Henry Goucher in 1781 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.[76] Goucher is listed with three males under 16, and three females in Washington County, Maryland.[77] David's son, Jesse, was living in Berkeley County, Virginia, just across the Potomac River from Washington County, Maryland. No 1790 Census has survived for Virginia, but there are tax lists that can be used as substitutes.[78]

Several descendants of James Rose have visited the valley along Sideling Hill and Sideling Hill Creek where "Rose Valley" tract was located. Joyce and Bruce Dale have contacted the Trail family, current owners of the old plantation. The owners identified the site of an old abandoned cemetery very near the east side of the road that descends into Rose Valley. Several years ago, a windstorm blew down many trees. The owners had heavy equipment go in to clean up the windfalls. All evidence of the old cemetery was obliterated.

In July 1999, following the final Rose Family Association Conference in Arlington, Virginia, several cousins got together for on-site research. Joyce and Bruce Dale, Gerry and Connie Lenzen, Bill and Helen Rose, and Sue Stalder, visited the site of the now obliterated cemetery in Washington County, Maryland. No physical evidence exists that it ever was there. Since no other cemeteries are known to exist, or have existed, within a reasonable distance of "Rose Valley," it would be reasonable to assume that David Rose was probably buried in the obliterated unmarked cemetery. However, we do not know where any of these people were living when David died in 1781. He could be buried somewhere else, near his place of residence, at death. Further research is required to determine if there were or are cemeteries near where John Rose and Henry Goucher owned land. It's also possible that David was buried in Berkeley County, Virginia where his son Jesse was known to be living.

Joyce Dale is descended from David Rose, oldest son of James Rose and Sarah Norris. James was the third son of David Rose and Hannah Par. Bill Rose is descended from Jesse Rose. Jesse was the fourth son of James Rose and Sarah Norris. Gerry Lenzen and Sue Stalder have a closer relationship. They are descended from Elizabeth Rose and Obediah Hall. Elizabeth was the oldest daughter of John Rose and Margaret Berry. John was the second son of James Rose and Sarah Norris.

Lancaster County, Pennsylvania

A purpose of the research was to try to identify Daniel, John, and David Rose in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in records other than tax returns. They are identified in the Derry Township Tax Lists for 1757 [Daniel and David Russ], 1759 [Daniel and David Rose], 1771 [Dan( ) and David Rose], 1779 [David Roose, David and John Ross, and David Rose], 1781 [Dan'l Rose][79].

Daniel and David Rose are listed as being on Hill Island in the Susquehanna River in 1759 and 1771. The island is not mentioned in the other tax years. This island is located about nine miles south of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, south and slightly west of where Swatara Creek drains from the east into the river from today's Dauphin County. Because the county boundaries are on the western shore of the river, Hill Island appears to have always belonged to Lancaster/Dauphin County on the eastern shore.

The Pennsylvania Archives contain a couple of references to this locality. "Hill Islands, 268 A., In Susq'a opp. the late dwell'g plantat'n of John Day. Note. -- See warrant No. 30, Albright Graff, York Co., by which it is s'd Shelley holds this Island."[80] Another observation reads "______, 2 a. 22 p., in Susq'a River, below Swatara Falls & the E. side of Hill Island."[81]

Visible downstream, and to the south of Hill Island, are the tall stark cooling towers for the now defunct nuclear generating stations on Three Mile Island.

We wanted to determine specifically who were David and Daniel Rose. How were they related to each other? Were they brothers? Was one father to the others? Were they cousins? The tax records are the only "official" records that can be located with these names together, except for the following discussion. There are no other known surviving tax lists for Lancaster or Dauphin Counties, Pennsylvania for the periods between the dates listed above.

Other than these tax references, a Daniel Rose is listed in the Lancaster County probate files index.[82] A standard probate file has never been located, if it ever existed. However, there is a fascinating three-page inventory dated November 25, 1776.[83] Listed in the inventory are "one Windmill," "Grain on the Ground on the Hill Next of house," "Grain in the other field on the Hill," "one Cannoe," and "Rye in the Ground at the point." All these items are indicative of a hilly island locality with free-flowing air. Jacob Tidwiler and John Shank conducted an appraisal of the inventory.

One item that needs to be followed up was given to Gerald S. (Gerry) Lenzen by Elaine Huber. She conducted some research for him in 1987[84]. Among several other good clues, she had identified a David Rose/Roes on 155 acres of land in the 1760/61 tax lists for East Pennsborough Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania[85]. It's unclear whether this was rented or patented land. Also listed was Wm. Rose with 150 acres of warranted land. These persons have never been investigated. East Pennsborough Township is on the west bank of the Susquehanna River, slightly upstream and opposite Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Perhaps this is where the David Rose we are researching was living in the unknown years between 1759 and 1771, and between 1771 and 1781. Gerry did not research this county when in Salt Lake City in November/ December 1999.

Derry Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, was immediately to the east of Hill Island during the early period of this study. Derry fronted on the east bank of the Susquehanna River in the bottom southwest corner of what became Dauphin County in 1785. In 1768, Londonderry Township was created from Derry. The dividing line between the two townships was in constant dispute and had dramatic adjustments until 1826. At that time, the boundaries were fixed. Derry is now inland from the river by several miles. Londonderry now fronts on the east bank of the Susquehanna to the south and west of Derry Township.[86]

Egle's Notes and Queries identify a David Rose/Ross living on Duncan, or Baskin Island.[87] Duncan (Baskin) Island is about twenty miles north of Hill Island. It is the largest of three islands in the mouth of the Juniata River where it joins the Susquehanna River.

The Widow of William Baskins, currently the wife of Francis Ellis, was attempting to remove David Rose because he had not paid rent for the prior year. On May 5, 1767, David and nine character references[88] claim that Rose had been driven off by Indian deprivations two years earlier, before his rent period had been satisfied. He lost his animals because of having to flee in such a hurry. Further, he claimed that the earlier farm buildings and fences had been burned, and the place had lain six or seven years with no person living on it when he rented it from the Widow Baskins. (The Indians had shot and scalped William Baskins on Duncan's Island in the summer of 1757)[89]. The deposition states that Rose and his hired hands cleared fifteen acres, fenced it, put grain in the ground, and built a house on the place. After fleeing the island, he had worked at day labor for the past two years to support his wife and eight children, and was in a destitute position.

In December 1999, Gerry Lenzen attempted to track the nine men who signed the David Rose court petition through the microfilmed land records in Salt Lake City, Utah. Their names were Wm. Richardson, Sam'l Gowdy, Marcus Hulings, James Reed, Samuel Cochran, Abraham Jones, Sarah fforster (sic) Thos. fforster (sic), and Samuel Hunter. Richardson, Reed, Hunter, and Hulings are found in the Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Land Warrant Registers.[90] Each of them has at least two entries. The various warrants, surveys, and patents are abstracted in Appendix A of this report. The other petition signers are not listed.

Richardson, Cochran, and the two fforsters are not found in the 1765-1769 East and West Side Applications.[91] The other six supporters each have at least one warrant application or patent. Abstracts of these applications are found in Appendix B. They are found in Upper or Middle Paxton, Halifax, and Reed Townships. These townships are to the east of the confluence of the Juniata and Susquehanna Rivers. All are on the east bank of the Susquehanna. The townships were in Lancaster County until they went to Dauphin County in 1785.

Gerry wanted to see if he could find David or Daniel Rose listed as adjacent landowners, residents, or renters to any of the nine signers of the petition. He found about 40 other names in the first tier out from the six petitioners mentioned above.[92] None were Rose. Goucher was not seen in any of its variant spellings. He did not pull the patents or warrants for those who were adjacent to the other 40 residents. He only investigated the first tier, observing the adjacent landowners in the second tier.

The David Rose of the Judge James E. Rose manuscript[93] would have had a wife and eight children in May 1767. The oldest daughter and first child, Mary, had died previously. The children at home would be David Jr., Rhoda, Robert, John, Mary (2nd), Jesse, James, and Ann. The youngest child, Catherine, was born September 4, 1767. She would not yet be born at the time of the petition mentioned above. That accounts for eight children in May 1767. All would be of the proper age to still be living at home. Is the David Rose in the Judge's manuscript the same David Rose/Ross on Duncan's Island in 1767?

These points of information raise several other questions. Is the David Rose/Ross on Duncan's Island in 1767 the same person as listed with Daniel Rose on the 1757, 1759, and 1771, tax lists for Derry Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania? If so, where is Daniel? Egle does not mention him as being involved with Duncan Island. Hill Island appears to have been in Derry Township. Duncan Island appears to have been in Paxtang or one of its resultant children townships.

Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Tax and Military Lists

(Londonderry Township needs to be reviewed again for Roses).

Daniel Russ (sic) and David Russ (sic) are listed in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on the "S. End E. Side of Derry Tax for the Kings use 1757." [94] The type of return is not specified. Each was assessed three shillings. Every other person on the page on which the assessment was listed was assessed at greater value. This implies that the two Russ men were relatively poor, or perhaps on rented land. If on rented land, the assessment for the value of the land would be on the landowner. The Russ names may have been assessed for only a poll tax.

"Rose Danil & David" are listed in Hill Island in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in "The West End of Derry Assesm't for the County 1759." [95] This indicates they had 260 acres of land with 50 cleared.

Both the number of total acres and the number of cleared acres seem to be two to five times larger than other entries on the page. No animals are listed. The "Hill Island" designation is in a column labeled "Rent." No other assessments on the page are listed under "Rent." It appears as if the entry was made at a later time. The writing is smaller and appears to be squeezed in between two other entries. As in 1757, these two men appear to be on rented land.

"Rose Dan{ } & David for hill Isl'd" are listed in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in a "Kings Tax and county levies" for Derry Township dated "the Ninth Day of December A.D. 1771."[96] The Kings Tax is valued at 1 £ (pound), 7 S (shillings), 6 P (pence). The County tax is 1 S. On a line below the names is listed 1£, 2 S, 6 P with no indication to what this amount applies. The Kings Tax is greater than the amount for any other taxpayer on the same page. Unlike 1759, for this year, it appears that the value of the farm land is assessed to the Rose men. However, the county tax is equal to or less than all the other individual assessments. This would imply that the Roses were still renting the land on Hill Island.

There is no Daniel or David Rose listed in the Derry Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Assessment of Nonassociators for August 1777. A Daniel Rose died in 1776 for whom there is an inventory.[97] There are a John Roush (sic), a Martin Roush (sic), and Michael Road listed in 1777.[98] There appear to be others with variations on these surname spellings in later records.

Morris Lewis is listed on the August 1777 assessment. The name was ruled over with a solid line. The name Daniel Shelley was written in above the Morris Lewis name that was ruled out. Morris Lewis was the name of the first husband of Rhoda Rose, daughter of David Rose and Hannah Par. According to the manuscript of Judge James E. Rose, "her husband was drowned in the Susgneharma (sic) River near the mouth of the Juniatla (sic) River."[99]

Elaine Huber has done extensive research on the islands in the Susquehanna River. Her main purpose was to write a 200-year history of Three Mile Island (TMI), site of the 1979 nuclear accident. She identifies Hill Island as being immediately above the head of TMI. Her previous research identified the Shelly family as later owners of the island adjacent to Hill Island -- Shelly's Island.[100]

David Rose took the Revolutionary War Oath of Allegiance before Joshua Elder, Esquire, after June 1, 1778. This is called L397T (continuation of same list starting as L396B) in Mayhill's book.[101] The Pennsylvania Archives has a couple of references to David Rose's participation in the "Melitia." He is listed as a 7th Class Private in the muster rolls of Capt. Robert McKee's Company , Third Battalion of Lancaster County, commanded by Coll. Alexander Lowrey, on August 24, 1778, and again on April 19th, 1779.[102] Jacob "tatwiler," one of the assessors of Daniel Rose's 1776 inventory, is listed as a 6th Class Private. Daniel Shelley, resident of Shelley Island next to Hill Island, is listed as an 8th Class Private.

The Derry Returns for [1st Continental?] Tax for Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, 1779, lists a David Roose (sic).[103] There are two sets of numbers, with three columns in each set. They appear to represent pounds, shillings, and pence. The first set reads 19, [blank], [blank]. The second reads [blank], 19, [blank].

David Ross (sic) is listed on the 2nd Continental Tax for 1779 (?) for raising of the first supplies for Derry Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.[104] John Ross (sic) is listed in the same place. This tax was for persons over 53 years of age, and for those persons who had not taken the Oath of Allegiance.[105] David Ross is listed as having no acres of land, no rents, no mills, no servants, no Negroes, 2 horses, 2 cows, 3 sheep, and no stills. The taxable value was 22 pounds, no shillings, and 5 pence. John Ross has 1 horse and 1 cow with no other assets. His tax value was 9 pounds, no shillings, no pence. The David Rose in the Judge Rose manuscript had a son, John, born 13 June 1754.[106] It appears that John Rose was married by 1779. His daughter, Hannah, was born that year.[107] It appears this could be the David and John Rose in the manuscript.

In the same tax list, Daniel Shelley had 300 acres of land, no rents, mills, servants, or Negroes, and 3 horses, 4 cows, and 12 sheep. His taxable value was 1,856 pounds.

"Derry Assesments 2nd Continental 1779" for Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, lists a David Rose.[108] No John Rose is listed. Rose's assessment was valued at 9 pounds, 10 shillings, no pence.

The "Derry Appeal Duplicate 1779" for Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, lists both David Rose and John Rose.[109] David's valuation was 6 pounds, 10 shillings. His tax was no pounds, 10 shillings. John's valuation was 6 pounds, no shillings, no pence. His tax was no pounds, 7 shillings, 6 pence. Daniel Shelley was listed with a 69 pound valuation with no tax assessed. Shelley's valuation was the highest listed on the page of the tax list.

The Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, Derry Township, tax list "Dated the Sixth Day of September A.D. 1779," shows David ROSS (sic) and John ROSS (sic).[110] David's State assessment was 7 pounds, 10 shillings, no pence. County assessment was 3 pounds, 9 shillings, no pence. A third category, labeled Non-Ju [this probably means Non-Jurors Tax -- see later], was valued at no pounds, 10 shillings, no pence. John's State valuation was 7 pounds, no shillings, no pence. The county valuation was 3 pounds, 6 shillings, no pence. The third category was valued at no pounds, 7 shillings, 6 pence.

The Returns for Derry Township for the "first Supplies of the Year 1779" include David Ross and John Ross. The cover sheet for the data reads partly as follows: "The Tax raised for the said first Supp____. The Tax called the Nonjurors Tax raised of those person (sic) who have n[ ] taken the Oath of Alegiance (sic). And the Tax raised of Persons abo[ ] the age of 53 years or otherwise exempted from Military Duty. Together with the whole amount of said Taxes and Account."[111] The first page lists columns for Land, Value; horses, value; cows, value; and sheep; and mills. There are four sets of columns on the second page describing Total Value, Continental Tax, Nonjurors Tax, and Old Mans Tax. David Ross had no acres of land listed. This, again, is indicative of a renter. The landowner would be the person being taxed for the land. David Ross had two horses, two cows, and three sheep. No value was listed for any of the items. He had Total Value of 22 pounds, 5 shillings. Continental Tax was 7 pounds, 10 shillings, and Nonjurors Tax was 10 shillings. There were no entries for Old Mans Tax. John Ross had no land listed. He had one horse and one cow with no value listed. John's Total Value was 9 pounds. Continental Tax was 7 pounds and Nonjurors Tax was 7 shillings, 6 pence. There were no entries for Old Mans Tax.

For contrast in terms of values, Daniel Shelley, who owned the island adjacent to Hill Island, had 300 acres, 3 horses, 4 cows, and 12 sheep. His Total Value was 1856 pounds, and Continental Tax was 72 pounds. He had no other assessments. Jacob Tatwiler (sic), who was one of the assessors of the 1776 Daniel Rose inventory, had 70 acres, 2 horses, 2 cows, and 4 sheep. Tatwiler had Total Value of 248 pounds, Continental Tax of 25 pounds, 10 shillings, and 3 pounds Nonjurors Tax.

David ROASE (sic) is listed on the combined Additional Supply Tax List for Continental Tax, 1779, and first four months, and second four months, of 1780, in Derry Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.[112] The first page of the tax schedule provides for Lands, Negroes, Horses, Cows, Mills, and Stills. There are no entries for David in any of these categories. Again, for contrast, Daniel Shelly (sic) had 130 Acres, 2 Horses, and 4 Cows. Jacob Tetweiler (sic) had 130 Acres, 2 Horses, and 4 Cows. The second page of the schedule listed Total Value, 2nd Continental Tax 1779, Fines, Money Tax, first 4 Months Tax 1780, and 2nd 4 Months Tax 1780. Roase had no Total Value, 9 pounds, 10 shillings for 2nd Continental Tax 1779, and 19 shillings for both the first 4 Months Tax for 1780 and the 2nd 4 Months Tax for 1780. Shelly had Total Value of (2?)6,600 pounds, 108 pounds for 2nd Continental Tax 1779, 108 pounds for Fines, 216 pounds for first 4 Months Tax 1780, 216 pounds for 2nd 4 Months Tax 1780. Tetweiler had Total Value of 10,900 pounds, 40 pounds for 2nd Continental Tax for 1779, 40 pounds for Fines, 80 pounds for first 4 Months Tax 1780, and 80 pounds for 2nd 4 Months Tax for 1780.

"Derry Duplicate 4th four Months Tax, Fines, & County Tax 1781" for Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, lists "Dan'l Rose."[113] This first name is clearly written. It's possible that Daniel Rose, who was deceased about 1776, was the named person on the tax register. It's most probably just a mistake in names by the tax assessor, especially if both Daniel and David were both known to the assessor. The numbers listed appear to be for taxes and fines. The Rose tax numbers appear to be 4 pounds, no shillings, no pence. In the second set of numbers there is a 2 in the pounds location. The shillings and pence positions are obscured and not readable. Immediately next to Rose's name there is an extra set of numbers. These may be assessments for personal property. There are three other individuals on the same page with identical numbers. The numbers are 3 pounds, no shillings, no pence. Dan'l Shelley is listed in the tax columns with 7 pounds, 10 shillings, no pence, and in the second set of data with 18 pounds, 7 shillings, and the pence is obscured.

Another "Derry Return 1781," Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, tax list does not contain anyone with the Rose surname or variations thereof.[114] It has no entry date. For relative evaluation, Daniel Shelly is listed with 4 horses, 6 cows, and 150 acres of land. Total Value for tax purposes was 2,254 pounds, and he had given Oath of Allegiance. His Hard Money Taxes were 14 pounds, 1 shilling, and 7 pence. State Taxes were 11 pounds, 14 shillings, 7 pence.

According to the Judge James E. Rose manuscript, David Rose "died in Washington county (sic), Md. in the Autumn of 1781 aged Sixty years and two months."[115] We would not expect to find him in the 1781 tax lists for Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

New Jersey Research

Extensive research in the deed and mortgage records in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, from about 1730 to about 1750, has not resulted in the discovery of a single reference to David Rose in those records.

The author located a reference to a David Rose in the Morris County, New Jersey Record of Wills when in Salt Lake City in February 1998.[116] A nuncupative will for John Parr, Junior, was witnessed by Elijah Horton, Phebe Horton, and Nath. Horton on 26 June 1749, the day before Parr died. The will was recorded and proved 13 November 1749. It leaves monies to brothers Cornelius, Matthias, Elihue [sic], Eliphalet, and Jess, and to sister, Jemima. Cornelius was executor and did the inventory. The inventory listed account and receipt of 1 Pound, 11 Shillings, and 6 Pence from David Rose on August 13, 1750. There was also a debt upon John Parr of 1 Pound, 9 Shillings, 9 Pence. Many other names were listed in the inventory and accounting.

Could the deceased John Parr possibly be a brother-in law to David Rose? John and Mary Par were listed by Judge James E. Rose as the parents of Hannah Par, wife of David Rose. This requires further investigation.

Additional Research Questions

Is it possible that David Rose, Jr., might have married and had one or more children before he died in 1771? Could these same persons have gone on to Maryland, and eventually Ohio, to settle among their uncles and aunts?

David Rose/Ross on Duncan's Island in Pennsylvania

Nine individuals signed a petition for David Rose/Ross to stay on rented land on Duncan's or Baskin's Island in the Susquehanna River on May 7, 1767.

Following are the abstracts of the land records and names of the petitioners and the adjacent residents or landowners. The key to locating specific Warrant, Patent, and Survey books can be found in the Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Land Warrant Registers [Index].[117]

Williamson(sic) Richardson received Warrant Number 25 for 204 acres in Salisbury Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, dated 02 January 1734 that was surveyed 20 January 1734. Adjacent landowners were James Varner, Thomas Fleming, and Josiah Ridgeway. Patent was issued 4 March 1735/36.[118] Another 105 acre tract called "Dry Bank" was in Lancaster, County, and is now in Huntingdon Township, York County, Pennsylvania. It was patented 17 October 1769 to Abraham Bower on Warrant Number 116 issued to William Richardson dated 28 May 1743 (should be 1734 or 1769?). Marcus Huling returned Warrant number 1834 on 27 August 1766 for 50 acres called "Hulings Landing" in Upper Paxtang Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Indenture is dated 16 January 1769. The survey includes "side of the Susquehnna River," "end of Peters Mountain," and "Musser and Companys Land." No individuals are mentioned.[120]

Marcus Huling was issued Warrant number 497 on 14 December 1774 in Penn Township, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, for 100 acres. The same tract of land was sold by George Kaylor, Treasurer of Dauphin County, as the property of David W. Huling for taxes due thereon. By deed dated 10 August 1848, tract was conveyed to Jacob W. Haldeman. The survey lists Hulings Ferry Place, Robert Clark, Level of Peters Mountain, and William [P]ower.[121]

Two Warrants, number 253 dated 10 March 1743 and number 144 dated 17 August 1749, were granted to James Reed. James Reed's last will and testament, dated 7 October 1773, devised the two tracts, containing a total of 145 acres and 46 perches, to his sons, William and James Reed. William and James Reed received the patents on 12 November 1811. At this time, the tracts were located in Fawn Township, York County, Pennsylvania, along the Maryland line. Names in deed include James McCandless, William McCandless, Thomas Street, James Graham, and "Barrens."[122]

James Reed Warrant number 352 dated 1 July 1755 was conveyed to George McLaughlin to whom a patent was issued 5 December 1808. The patent was found to be erroneous, surrendered to the Commonwealth, and the said George since died. Robert King, Esq., and James McLaughlin, Executors of the estate of George Mclaughlin, conveyed by deed the tract to George Lamborn on

29 April 1817. Entered 8 February 1819. The tract, located in Martic Township, Lancaster County, contains 128 _ acres. Neighbors were Alexander McLaughlin, George McLaughlin, James Robinson, John McDowel, James Pagon's claim, and James Duncan.[123]

Adjacents listed are John Graham's claim, Nicholas Brotherlous claim, Widow Jane McGaheys Settlement, Samuel Lackey's Survey, and John McMullen's Settlement.[124]

One warrant granted to John Kroker dated 10(?) January 1766, another warrant granted to Samuel Hunter dated 17 June 1767, and another warrant granted to Joseph Lytle dated 8 November 1773, all located in Halifax Township, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, were combined to sell to Joseph Lytle as "Lytle's Ferry" on 18 April 1806. The total tract contains 200 acres 8 perches. Adjacents were Alexander Scott, Widow Duncan and "Berrys Mountain."[125]

Resurvey number 377 of Warrant number 635 issued to Samuel Hunter and Catherine his wife and Wm Foulke and Jane his wife in trust for the user (strange term?) a certain tract of land in Pextang Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania containing 382 acres. It is subdivided and 289 acres are sold by proceedings in the Orphans Court and by deed by William Foulke and Samuel Hunter to John Garber 3 May 1770. Samuel Hunter also sells a parcel dated 14 May 1770 to John Garber. John Carson is listed as a neighbor. The tract crosses Fishing Creek twice and one side is parallel to the "river Susq.". William Foulke has "the remainder of the said tract in [Pl.?] of Jane his wife and of the daughter of Joseph Chambers deceased in the said warrant mentioned." Foulke and Garber wish to obtain a patent for each of their respective parcels after the survey. The entry is sealed in the Land Office in "Philad." on 28 September 1773.[126]

William Richardson was issued Warrant Number 25 on 2 January 1734 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, for a tract of 200 acres ". . . about a Mile beyond Pequia adjoining to James Clemson & Thomas Berwick. . . " The warrant was returned 2 March 1735/36.[127]

Warrant Number 116 was issued to William Richardson 28 May 1743 for 150 acres

"... Situate on the West Side of Susquahannah River Adjoining the Land of Sebastian Graas(?) near Bermudian Creek" This warrant was returned 16 October 1769.[128]

James Reed was issued Warrant Number 144 on 10 March 1743/44 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, for 50 acres "Situate on the West Side of Susquahanna River near the Land of Alexander McKinly about a halfe (sic) a Mile from the Temporary Line." Warrant was returned 12 November 1811.[129]

Warrant Number 253 was issued to James Reed 17 August 1749 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, for 40 acres "adjoining his other Land granted by Warrant of 10th March 1743 in Fawn Township." The warrant was returned 12 November 1811. There is a note near the return date that reads "James Steel has entered a Caveat ags't the Acceptance of a Survey made in pursuance of the within Warrant."[130]

Warrant Number 352 was issued to James Reed 1 July 1755 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, for 70 acres. The original warrant was evidently lost. A "true copy" is included in the file. It says "including his improvement adjoining George McGlaughlin and John McDowel in Marlick Township." The copy was dated 29 July 1809. The warrant was returned 4 February 1819.[131]

Warrant Number 353 for James Reed was issued 26 November 1756 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, for 50 acres. It was ". . . more or less adjoining the Widow McGahey, Samuel Lackey and Joseph Read (sic) in Martick Township." The warrant was returned 16 September 1851 for 150 acres with Warrant Number 367R.[132]

Warrant number 635 for Samuel Hunter & Others was issued 8 December 1763 for 300 acres in Paxton Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. This was a complicated issue. Joseph Chambers had been given permission by the Proprietors to settle on the 300 acres on the north side of the Kittatinny Hills on the Susquahanna River many years earlier. Joseph Chambers had died intestate twelve years earlier. He left sons Thomas and James, and daughters Mary and Jane, and Catherine his widow now the wife of Samuel Hunter. James was to pay his siblings their share. He paid brother Thomas and sister Mary who married John Croker, but did not pay Jane who was a minor at the time. Since then, Jane married William Foulks. James Chambers was killed by the Indians at Munsey Hill up the West Branch of the Susquahanna River the prior August (1763). James died intestate leaving wife Catherine, daughter Catherine, and "Widow enseint of another child." The wife and children of James, Thomas Chambers, John Croker representing Mary, William Foulks representing Jane, and Samuel Hunter representing his wife Catherine, widow of Joseph Chambers, entered claim for their share of the descendant estate of Joseph and James Chambers. John Carson, Paxton Narrows, Kittitinny Hills, and the River Susquahanna are listed as the boundaries of the tract. Warrant was issued from the Land Office by the Proprietors at Philadelphia 8 December 1763. There are several notes on the cover of the warrant. One indicates a return by Samuel Hunter & Others for 300 acres on 10 May 1773. Another shows a return of 277 acres to John Garber on 21 October 1773. There appears to be a reference to a Book G. Another shows a return of 144_ acres to Wm Foulke on 5 December 1774 with reference to Book F. There is a separate note that reads "See War't of Resurvey Letter G. No. 377."[133]

Warrant number 660 was issued to Samuel Hunter for 75 acres on 17 June 1767. The tract "adjoining his other Land granted by Warrant dated the 10 January last to John Croker & the Land of Alexander Scott, Berrys Narrows, & Sasquehanna River" in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. No return date is listed.[134]

Warrant number 680 was issued to Samuel Hunter, Senior of Lancaster County for 60 acres on 6 July 1773. It adjoined "his other land on the west John Garvers land on the East the Blue Mountain on the North and the Kittating Mountain on the East on Fishing Creek including his Improvement in Paxton Township in the said County." No return date is listed.[135]

Survey number 665 was issued on 12 January 1769 to Marcus Hulings on Warrant number 1834 from 27 August 1766. This 50 acres was located in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. It was returned 14 January 1769. This record is included in the land warrant file even though identified as a survey. [136]

Warrant number 697 was entered by Marcus Hulings on 15 December 1774. The 100 acres was "lying on the Levil of Peters Mountain adjoining his ferry Land right opposite the Mouth of Juniata in upper Paxtang Township in the County of Lancaster," Pennsylvania. No adjacent neighbors are listed. The return date is 30 November 1850.[137]

Appendix B

East Side Applications, 1765-1769, Pennsylvania

Nine individuals signed a petition for David Rose/Ross to stay on rented land on Duncan's or Baskin's Island in the Susquehanna River on May 7, 1767.

Following are the abstracts of the applications made by six of those testators. The applications are found in the Pennsylvania Surveyor General's Office. They are labeled East and West Side Applications, 1765-1769.[138] Only the East Side applications were abstracted. They contain the application number, date of application, book in which application and surveys were entered, township and county in which books can be found, description of original tract, and occasional reference to original township and county from which current descriptions are derived. The "East Side" refers to land claims on the east bank of the Susquahanna River.

Samuel Hunter received application number 393 on August 16, 1765. This is found in Book D, page 63 of Dauphin County Deeds. [Need to verify that these references are to Dauphine County and not to Provincial records; research notes not clear]. The 200 acre survey is copied on page 131. It is located in Upper Paxton Township on Fishing Creek. The 200 acres was included in a claim of 300 acres returned March 12, 1776 for John Brown. This record is found in Book D on pages 52 and 294

Marcus Hulings (sic) made application number 1834 on August 27, 1766. This is found in Book C, page 76. The 50 acre survey is in Book C, page 8, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania Deeds. It's located in Reed Township adjacent to Peter's Mountain on the Susquehanna. French Jacobs and a Musser are neighbors.

Application number 2069 went to James Read (sic) for 100 acres on November 7, 1766 in Halifax Township. It can be found in Book C, page 144. The survey is in Book C, page 184, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania Deeds. The tract included improvements made five years earlier in Paxton Township on the banks of the Susquehanna adjacent to Jno. Taylor and William Willson. This was returned April 19, 1827 on a warrant to Thos. and Mary McConnell. It's recorded in Book C, page 178, and survey is found in Book C, page 237-238. A second return was made December 19, 1828 to William Read.

Abraham Jones took application number 2534 on April 27, 1767. This 25 acres is found in Book D, page 63, with survey in Book D, page 183. Even though the survey calls for Halifax Township (probably a later designation), Dauphin County, the land description is Paxtang Township, Lancaster County, on the east side of the Susquehanna, joining the Widow Powell and Peters Mountain. This tract was returned to Robert Clark by patent dated June 22, 1832. The recording is found in Book C, page 105, and the survey in Book C, page 24.

James Reed is found in application number 2688, dated June 15, 1767 in Upper Paxton, Dauphin County. Patent was returned to James Reed on March 4, 1814 for this 200 acres. It joined his other surveyed land on the east side of the Susquehanna River in Lancaster County. The entry is in Book B, page 2, and survey copied in Book B, page 227.

Samuel Gowdey's application was number 2708, dated June 15, 1767. It was for 300 acres in Upper Paxton, Dauphin County. It was located on Fishing Creek joining John Baer, John Ryan, and a mountain in Paxtang Township, Lancaster County. The entry was in Book C, page 202, and survey entered in Book C, page 44. The application was returned and patented to George and Joseph Straw on May 7, 1805 on warrant dated May 6, 1805.

Sam'l Hunter was issued application number 2709 for 300 acres in Upper Paxton, Dauphin Township, on June 15, 1767. It was located on Fishing Creek joining John Ryan and Hunter's other land in Upper Paxtang. Application is entered in Book D, page 46; survey is in Book D, page 294.

Samuel Cochran had application number 3326, dated May 23, 1768. This was for 260 acres in Middle Paxton, Dauphin County. It joined John Black, John Murray and others in Upper Paxtang Township, Lancaster County. Application can be found in Book C, page 174; survey is Book C, page 144-145. There were five later returns for this application. They appear to be for a total of acres greater than the application. Rachel Cochran returned 24.35 acres on January 11, 1827. Entries are in Book C, page 29, surveys are in Book C, page 132. Jno. Hatfield returned 19 acres on April 30, 1827. Entries are in Book C, page 90; surveys are in Book C, page 211. William Foster and Martha his wife returned 14.131 acres on June 29, 1827. Records are in Book C, pages 62 and 199. G. and B. Geiger returned 226.66 acres on April 26, 1836. Entries are in Book A, pages 10 and 230. Jno. Powell returned 14.99 acres on September 11, 1838. No entry locations were listed.

Biography of George H. K. Moss, page 49. Atlas of DeKalb County, Indiana, J. H. Beers & Co., Chicago, Ill., 1880

George H. K. Moss, (deceased). A man who, in the presence of poverty and poor health, makes his way to a responsible position, has within him the elements out of which great heroes are made. But, in studying the life of a fellow-citizen, we must limit ourselves to his surroundings. We must measure him by the men in whose presence he had done his work. Thus measured, it is no extravagance to say that George H. K. Moss was one of the first and most-honored citizens of DeKalb County. He was born in Ceresco, Calhoun Co., Mich., on June 14, 1848. Rev. Hiram Moss, his father, a minister of the Methodist denomination, was stationed at Leoni, Mich., during April, 1850 and there died in February of the year following. The surviving family consisted of the widow, a daughter and two sons, of whom George was the younger. They continued to reside at Leoni until May, 1858, when he came, with James E. Rose, who had married his sister, to Indiana. He remained in the family of Mr. Rose until 1864, when he entered the army as a member of the One Hundred and Fifty-second Indiana Volunteers. He was on duty with his command from the day of enlistment until the regiment was mustered out of service at the close of the war. Returning home, he found employment as a salesman in the dry-goods store of D. Farnham & Co. at Edgerton, Ohio, until August, 1870, when he became a student at law in the office of J. E. Rose, Esq., at Butler, DeKalb County, and assiduously devoted his time to the preparation requisite to entering upon legal practice. In October, 1872, Mr. Rose removed to Auburn, leaving the business of his office with Mr. Moss. He was now twenty-four years of age, ambitious to succeed, and willing to pay the price in laborious application. At a time when many would have been disheartened by poor health, he toiled hopefully on. The fruits of natural courtesy strict integrity and patient industry, were speedily apparent in the growth and permanence of a business far greater and more remunerative that usually falls to the lot of young men entering upon professional life. He was called from his office to fill the position of Clerk of DeKalb County, to which position he was elected in October, 1874. He brought such system into his new office and conducted its routine so satisfactorily that, after serving the people four years, was re-elected to the position and entered upon his second term in November, 1879. During the progress of his term, his industry and care were so manifest that members of the bar, and others having knowledge of the requirements of the office, denominated it as a model worthy of imitation. His home life was as happy as his public life was honorable. From the day of his marriage, May 5, 1873, to Miss Hannah Reed, of Edgerton, Ohio, he was a lover of his home. To him it was an earthly paradise, where were found love, sympathy and care. He knew that to these he owed a lengthened existence. And his highest pleasure was to decorate his home with objects carrying comfort and realizing beauty. He won and merited the appellation of "faithful husband and a lover of his home." In his relation to religion, he was always reverent toward sacred things and died a Christian. There was a touch of beauty in his thoughts upon death. As some traveler in a foreign land would gladly step upon a ship that would bear him away to the dear home across the great sea, so Mr. Moss looked upon death as going home. In character, he was manly, just and generous. As a citizen, he was public-spirited, leader, and his counsel was influential in the canvass. He became a Mason in Forest Lodge, No 239, F. & A. M., Dec. 8, 1871; was elected Senior Warden December 13, 1872, and appointed Senior Deacon, in December, 1874; in these position, he served the craft acceptably, and zealously entering into the true spirit of Masonry in his brief, noble life exemplifies the sublime tenets of the order. His death occurred on March 2, 1880, at his home in Auburn, Ind., surrounded by family and friends. His funeral was memorable and imposing, and many Masons, with a multitude of friends, took this opportunity of doing honor to the departed. Resolutions of regard and condolence were unanimously adopted by the officers and members of DeKalb Circuit Court, and the county officers; by Asylum of Apollo Commandery, No. 19, Knight Templar; by Forest Lodge, of Butler, Ind.; by Auburn Lodge, No. 214, F. & A. M., and by the Union Soldiers' Association, Post No. 1, of Auburn. The Auburn Courier, of DeKalb, spoke of Mr. Moss as "a young man who held a high position in our midst, and was universally esteemed for his many good qualities of heart and mind." The Waterloo Press said: 'it is rare, indeed, that any one secures the place in the affections of the citizens of a county, that Mr. Moss held with his people, at so early an age;" and the Republican added that "by the admirably system established, business could be transacted in much less time than formerly, and attorney and client could but acknowledge the great saving." These genuine tributes of respect and appreciation on the part of Masons, eidtors, soldiers, attorneys, and friends, furnish indisputable proof of innate virtues and popular regard. True, life was brief, bu it is not measured by the number of its years; he did not shine as an orator, nor aspire to the homage paid to opulence, but, almost lavish in his donations and wasted by disease, he rejoiced in the nobility of usefulness, and departed as one called to a higher and broader field.

Obituary

Eleanor Ruth (Ballard) Rose passed away at her home on West Side Road on Sunday, July 24. She was 89. She is survived by her husband, Arthur Francis Rose, to whom she was married for 52 years.

Born May 2, 1916, in Jericho, Vt., Eleanor was the daughter of Irving and Anna (Miles) Ballard. She came to Block Island in 1934, at the age of 18, to work for her uncle, Henry Ballard. Henry and his wife Alice owned Ballard's Inn at Old Harbor. Eleanor was first cousin to the Ballards' daughter Mabel, who subsequently owned Ballard's Inn with her husband, John Thomas.

Eleanor met Arthur Rose on Block Island in the early 1940s, and the two started keeping company. "His beautiful smile was what got me," Eleanor always said.

Arthur, for his part, was smitten from the start: "I liked everything about her!" he said.

When the U.S. entered World War II in 1941, Arthur joined the Army. Before he left, he told Eleanor, "I hope I live to see you when I get back." After serving in the invasion of Europe, in 1945 he returned to Block Island and the sweetheart he'd left behind.

The Roses were married on Sept. 20, 1952, at the home of close friends George and Madeleine Burgess on Old Town Road. The couple's first home on Block Island was at Sands Farm on Sands Pond Road, one of several properties that Arthur took care of. The owner, Colonel Hart, converted a former cow barn to a cottage for the young couple. Sands Farm is now known as Lynn's Way.

The Roses also lived for 18 years in the red house at Red Gate Farm, where they kept cows, horses, chickens, ducks and pigs. The Roses' son, Marshall, vividly remembers milking cows by hand with Arthur while growing up there. The property was owned by Richard Dodge, nicknamed "Dead Eye Dick." It was Dodge who built the restaurant of that name at New Harbor.

For a couple of years, Eleanor and Arthur lived on Swede Hill, overlooking Graces Cove, at the home of Bert Alves. Alves and Arthur Rose both worked for Giles Dunn, a Rhode Island state senator who owned two fish markets, one at Payne's Dock and one at Old Harbor.

The Roses' one move off-island was to Jericho, Vt., where Eleanor opened a restaurant and Arthur worked on the town road crew. Tiring of sub-freezing temperatures after a year, they returned to Block Island. Embedded near the entrance to the West Side home they built 29 years ago, and have lived in ever since, is a white tile with a red rose design.

Eleanor held a number of jobs during her long life on Block Island, and was involved in church and volunteer groups.

For five years she worked for Ernest and Hazel Mitchell at the Public Market, in the brick front building on Dodge Street. She also papered and painted walls, wallpapering the huge Ocean View Hotel by herself. Her wallpaper was in place when the hotel burned in 1966.

She painted the outside of the Burgesses' house alone, and worked as an auto mechanic for Art Ryerson at his High Street garage. When Ryerson left the island, Estelle Heinz hired Eleanor to work at Seaside Market, telling her, "I may not let you go." Eleanor stayed 31 years.

Eleanor always involved herself in quiet community pursuits. She was a charter member of the Harbor Church SSB and a member of the Firemen's Auxiliary.

And, always, Eleanor cooked, mostly for others. An early riser, her habit was to bake every morning starting at 5:30. Not a sweet eater herself, she baked as a hobby, summer and winter, delighting friends, neighbors, and local businesses with morning deliveries of breads, blueberry muffins, cinnamon rolls, pies and cakes, hot from her oven.

In addition to her husband, Eleanor is survived by two sons, Irving Rose of Hinesburg, Vt.; Marshall Rose of Micco, Fla.; and a daughter, Jan Mulcahy of Barefoot Bay, Fla. Eleanor also leaves a sister, Mimi Rose, of Barefoot Bay, Fla., as well as six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Following a funeral service at the Harbor Baptist Church, Eleanor was laid to rest in the Island Cemetery.

Donations in Eleanor Rose's memory may be made to Block Island Fire and Rescue or the Block Island Medical Center.

I want to describe a feature of our Group System pertaining to fi information about a specific person in our vast array of messages is time now to start taking advantage of computer systems such as have here. This is especially useful when you realize that all me moved through our Group are archived in the "Message" area. Now t Walter and a few others have begun offering so much research information it is difficult to keep track of all that is there fo

Try this. At top of the Message area you will see the various vie options available - pick "Expanded". Go to the bottom of the mess window and in the Search box place "Sarah Howell" (with the quote key "GO". You will see every message that has Sarah Howell in the the expression is in bold characters - easy to spot. This is a po tool and will be especially useful now with so much being offered you merely key in the surname "Howell" (without the quotes) - all instances of that expression will be culled out for you to view.

Have Fun!!!!

Subj: [ROSE_DNA_K] Passenger List for 1635 voyage of "The Peter Bonaventurer"

In reading about a John Hand who settled the Maidstone area of Long Island, NY, with our Robert ROSE, I learned that he came to America from England on the Peter Bonaventurer in 1635 so I looked up the passengers and they included a John HYND, age 24, and a Robert ROE, age 19. Maidstone was a town in County Kent, England, where Hand came from and it was also the original name used for the settlement at Easthampton. Also, this voyage on the Peter Bonaventurer was to Barbados rather than to New England so evidently, John HYND came on to New England on another ship or, the Peter Bonaventurer came on to New England from Barbados. I'm NOT certain that any of this is of much help but it does point out that there may have been more than one voyage made coming over.

Subj: [ROSE_DNA_K] SIX ROSEs in Southampton, NY, in 1698.

In reviewing the inhabitants of Southampton, NY, in 1698, SIX ROSEs are listed and all should be the descendants of Robert & Dorothy. Their oldest son, Thomas, is thought to have married a Miss White and had a son named Israel ROSE. He sold land in Southampton to George Miller in the settlement of his mother's estate so he was there in the 1660s we know. Listed living by each other are a Thomas ROSE & an Israel ROSE who are most likely father and son or, brothers.

Also living beside each other in another area are FOUR ROSEs whose names are David; James; David, Jr.; and Martine/Martyn ROSE and they appear to be the sons of John ROSE and Abigail Raynor who are known to have lived in that area. David ROSE, Jr., appears to be quite young to be John & Abigail's grand son as I have an estimated birth date for their son, David, for 1674 but he could have been born earlier. They did have sons named James, Martine/Martyn, and David, plus a Thomas, William, and John ROSE, JR. William and Thomas are thought to have removed to Orange County, NY, prior to 1700 and John ROSE, Jr., is believed to have removed to southwestern New Jersey across the river from the state of Deleware.

Jonathan ROSE was the youngest son of Robert & Dorothy but he lived in the Bellport/Brookhaven area several miles West of Southampton where he raised his family. The other son, Samuel, is unknown after his mother's death and may have removed to Orange County, NY, or to Western New Jersey.

It is my best guess that John ROSE who married Abigail Raynor died in the 1696-97 time period and that the four ROSEs living beside each other were his sons. The Thomas & Israel living beside each other in another area are quite likely the oldest son, Thomas and his son, Israel, or, they are both sons of Thomas ROSE. It is important to note where these ROSEs are living in the 1698 time period and we know that Jonathan's family lived in the Bellport/Brook Haven area so we can possibly seperate them using the places where they lived. The Robert ROSE who purchased land in Hunterdon County, NJ, in the 1735-37 time period was recorded as being of "Brook Haven" so he would be a descendant of Jonathan & Jane (Williams) ROSE, most likely. It also appears quite likely that children of at least two sons removed to Orange County, NY, and to western New Jersey to include Hunterdon County. When one reviews the DNA testing, those results tend to agree with the conclusion that they lived in the Orange County, NY area, and in at least two locations in New Jersey as we find the families in those areas.

I continue to look for any record of passage for Robert ROSE to the Bay Colony in the 1630s time period. The ship, Defence, sailed from England in 1635 and has a Robert with unknown last name listed. There are also two Dorothys that would be about the correct age. One is Dorothy Knight, age 24, who appears to be traveling with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Knight. The other Dorothy is an Adams who appears to be traveling on her own and she is also 24 years of age. The Robert UNKNOWN appears to be a servant of a Roger Harlakenden but in those days, that was often a guise to get out of England. Based on the ages of the children of Robert & Dorothy ROSE, this could be them. I have tried to find out what happened to these two Dorothys without any results to date and would ask that you keep this in mind as you do your research.

Mary, I hope you are doing well. I am still searching for Stagton/Stockton Rose and Sophia Smith. Our DNA project has been growing, but I still can't make that final link. I was wondering if you could tell me what web address I could view for the Ross Stockton of 1820 you mentioned in the attached response that you sent me a while back? I would appreciate it. Thank you, Gary Rose.

Yes, I too am very interested in Christopher #7298 and his line, which is, I think, the one recently posted to this study group, but I would certainly prefer to have Christopher Rose himself tell us about this.

David Brown feels, based on the DNA evidence, that there is probably an error in the line proposed by Christopher #7298.

Here is a message from David about this, that might be generally useful to our understanding of things. David at first, when he found the three mutation match between Wilmot Rose #14018, the representative of the line of my Matthias Rose b. ca 1721-1727, and Christopher W. Rose #7298, that my Matthias then also could be traced to John of Mannington-son Abraham etc.. But on further reflection, Christopher's test doesn't match DNA of others from the line he claimed, so David then felt that my Matthias and Christopher Rose's line were linked to each other, for two to three generations, but not to John of Mannington.

Here David identifies William 1757 as the level of the problem in Christopher's proposed line. Rather than try to interpret David's comments, here they are verbatim. Evidently he feels that, based on the DNA results, Christopher's William 1794 can't be linked to William 1757 and Rachel Du Bois.

connected to your friends and family through blogs, photos and more. Create your own 360° page now.

He feels that my Matthias and Christopher's line might well both descend from "a different son of Robert". At least I THINK that is what he is saying here.

Some basic information in evaluating these:

1)All of those without any mutations are genetically indistinguishable in the 25 marker sample.

2)Any participants that share one or more identical mutations share a common ancestor since any tie with the others. For example, 6854, 11535, 4346, 3798, 20034 share a mutation of 31 at DYS 389-2. This means they share a common ancestor since their ties with any of the others. In this case, this ancestor has been established to be John Rose (Rebekah Bowen) 1761 of VA, although we cannot establish his precise lineage before that. Number 3798 has another single mutation. If any future tests show this as well, it not only indicates he is from this John, but also through son John Jr., etc. Others established in this way involve 5922, 10701, 22375, 10264. 5922 is well documented back to Ezekiel 1705 through son Jonathan, and has as no mutations. 10701 is also documented back to Ezekiel 1705, but through son Ezekiel 1746, then Ezekiel 1779. However, he has a mutation (13 rather than 12 at DYS 439). 22375 could only be documented back to a Jonathan, born 1807, although his father's name was an unknown "John". However, he shares the mutation with 10701. Therefore, Jonathan 1807 must also be a descendant of Ezekiel 1705 through Ezekiel 1746. The only way that can be is if Ezekiel 1779 and 22375's "John" are brothers. By this, it is now established that 22375 has a firmly established lineage of Ezekiel 1705-Ezekiel 1746-John c1777-Jonathan. A major find! 22375 also has another separate mutation at DYS 464c, which could come into play later. (The 464 series of markers are treated much differently from all the others, and the fact that Wilmot & Chris also have 15's there is just coincidental.) 10264 is also from Ezekiel 1705, but through a third (probable) son, Charles. Two mutations have occurred in his line since Ezekiel.

Now, with 7298 Christopher, and 14018 Wilmot, they share 3 mutations with each other from the rest. We know their most recent common ancestor has to be prior to 1710, as their paths are established since Matthias and Abraham, although I very seriously question the lineage provided Abraham-William, etc. (6982 claims this same lineage, but does not have any of these mutations). We also can be reasonably certain that everyone here is descended from the immigrant Robert, as the similarities indicate that rather strongly.
This really means that these three mutations all took place between Robert and 1730+-. That many mutations in that short a period is very unusual in almost totally unreasonable. That is why I would suggest they were from a different son of Robert than all the rest. It also rather strongly indicates Christopher and Wilmot shared the same lineage for at least 2-3 generations! Keep in mind though, there are very strong indications the lineage of Christopher must have a fault somewhere, as he does not appear to be of William 1757. He also has another separate mutation, but this would be since his tie with Wilmot.

This can be awfully confusing, but with some study, it becomes much clearer. This is really what I was going to try and illustrate in a drawing, but have not had time yet. If you still want it, let me know.

As you see, perfect matches remove any doubt whatsoever of a common ancestry, but the mutations can actually yield a lot more valuable information on the individual branches extending out since that common ancestor.

I trust you will be able to follow this, but it will take some thought !!!

David

John of New Jersey

6982 John R (Mary&Eliz) 1703-55 Salem NJ; Abe 1729;Wm 1757; Abe 1785

grrorela71@... Graham Rose

24916 John R (2Eliz) 1703; Ezekiel b. 1745, liv Union Co., IN, d. 1824

Rosedunbar@...

7298 John 1703-1755 ; Abe (Phebe Hildreth) 1729; Wm 1757; Wm 1794 (Due to numeric results, I strongly suspect a problem with Wm 1794 as being from a different line than listed for him) cwrose@... Christopher W. Rose

To say that all of this is "awfully confusing" is something of an understatement, but since Christopher Rose, whatever his line, matches with three mutations the line of my descendant of Matthias Rose, and nobody else tested so far has these three matching mutations, I would very much like to compare notes with Christopher, to determine how far back he can take his line with documentation, and discuss what he knows about his earliest documented Rose ancestor, and what little I know about Matthias Rose.

Regards,

Sharilyn

Hi Gary,
Every time I hear from you I start the search for Stockton Rose again...............
Other than the census records, the only thing I have is the following (probably have already sent it) is the deed record as follows:
Deed Book 11 / page 811
20 Nov 1823
Bill of sale. Stockton Rose of twp of Turkeyfoot, Co. of Somerset for $80, to Michael Yingle ? of twp ________? same county, land I got into possession about 3 or 10 Apr 1822 (?), in Turkeyfoot twp., adjoining lands of William Ogg, John King, John McMillan, Esq., and Robert McClintock, etc. Signed: Stockton (his x mark) Rose.
Witnesses: John Hannah, John Bowman. Acknowledged: 20 Nov 1820. Recorded:
21 Feb 1829.

How did Stockton Rose acquire this land ??? He does not say "land that I purchased", but "land I got into possession". Did someone give him the land or did he purchase it ?? Think you need to search the deeds in Somerset Co. to see how Stockton "got possession" of the property.
I was unable to open the tax list you sent........cannot download on my computer and that is the way it arrived. The Cutlip Rose is listed on a different tax list as "Rose Cutlip"
Also, the 1810 census of Somerset Co. lists John ROOSE (he has a male age 0-10) and Andrew ROOSE (he is apparently older and has no sons listed).
Somerset Co. was not formed until 1795, so any search before that time period should be in Bedford Co. PA.
Keep looking........and do look at the LDS records that have been filmed for Somerset Co. The deeds and lots of other records are available.

Mary, Hope all is well. I came across a pre 1800 tax list for Lower Turkeyfoot Twp., Sommerset County, Pa. which shows a Charles Rose and a Cutlip Rose. Might you have any ideas as to a possible relationship to my gr-gr-gr grandfather, Stagton Rose, supposedly born in New Jersey? It seems mighty strange that a Charles should be located in the same area that my gr-gr grandfather Charles was born. Also, Cutlip Rose is as strange of a name as Stagton don't you agree? Thought I would run this by you. Thanks, Gary Rose grose2@neo.rr.com group K.

Mary:

This test on Charles certainly has the potential of leading to a breakthrough, as I understand his lineage is well documented all the way back to Robert through son John. Those first couple of generations from Robert are really shrouded in a lot of mystery, leaving some doubt on all of those connections before 1700. We also have something else underway right now, which could also complement this test. Last month some of the participants from this Long Island group ordered their tests upgraded to 37 markers, in hopes that this may also help differentiate the lines involved. However, there is nothing like a new test with established ties, as yours is. Thank you for your generosity, which may help all researchers of this family! Incidentally, I would be very interesting in knowing a little of your own connections in this family. I don't seem to have anything here on it. Just the early lineage would be fine.

Thank you very much for the feedback on the chart. Very few people take the time to suggest how improvements can be made, and I seriously invite any suggestions at all. I prepare that for Christine, and she puts it in every second issue. Some of this is rather difficult to explain, as I am sure you understand. We definitely want to include all the tests, and the project certainly takes up a lot of space as it is.

I will try to help a little with the listing on the chart, and the Long Island Group in particular.

Each of the Groups (A to Z, with "K" being Long Island), I have divided up into those that would be related, or share a common Rose ancestor in the period since the introduction of surnames. This period of the last several hundred years I like to term the "Genealogical Time Frame". Each test within each group are estimated to descend from a specific individual in that period. As all mankind is related at some time in the past, these various groups would also have relationships among each other, but that would likely be several thousand years ago, and of no value to our Genealogy, although it may provide some very deep "origins".

Within each of the groups, several mutations may be found, but when these are added up for each test, they still leave them genetically close enough to each other to indicate they still share a common ancestor. There are some "judgement calls" that I must make, but actually the vast majority is very "clear cut". Whenever any doubt arises, I don't hesitate to ask assistance of Geneticists in this field. They are most helpful, and willing to provide great detail and statistical analysis. Specifically on Group K, there are only 2 in which there is a considerable chance that they do not share a common Rose ancestor in the last 400 years, that single ancestor being Robert of Long Island. These two exceptions are kit 7298 and 14018. However, the numbers strongly indicate that both of these are also related to Robert in some way, although it may be through an earlier ancestor of Robert. To account for these, we strongly suspect the lineage provided for 7298 is flawed, and is much closer related to 14018. The lineage of 10089 is also likely to contain an error, and is not from Matthias. Actually these mutations within a group are usually very beneficial. For example, it was only through these mutations that we were not only able to establish 22375 was not only of this family, but also the exact lineage back to Ezekiel 1705 was established. Some of the groups mutate much faster than others. This Long Island group has an unusually large number of mutations, while Group T (including Samuel below it), The Roosa family, hardly moves at all.

I hope this is helpful to you in understanding the chart. Any questions or comments you may have are most welcome. I would certainly like to improve the presentation of this!

The kit is on its way to Charles, and the long wait begins. It just seems to take SO long when we are sitting on the edge of our seats!

David

Just had an e-mail from Christine Rose on 1 Aug. She has FINALLY had contact with a proven direct line of a man who lives in NJ and is descended from the very early (1630s) Robert and Dorothy Rose of Suffolk Co. Long Island, NY. The man was even born in Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk Co. NY in 1935. He has agreed to have a DNA test to see if he matches to the other 14 tested lines that appear to all have Long Island ties. I have great hopes that his test will match our Ezekiel of Hunterdon Co. and Charles of Monongalia Co. VA. The tests now prove that Ezekiel and Charles are related.........which we knew.
It is interesting that the man from NJ who just contacted Chris told her his brother had contact with her over 20 years ago. She checked and found, indeed, that the man had contacted her about their Rose family.
I had told Michael Reck that I would keep him updated about the DNA project, but he has changed his e-mail since we last corresponded..........do you have his current e-mail address ?? The last one I have is: moreck@juno.com.
Hot summer in OK.........

Michael,
Christine Rose has just located a direct and proven descendant of Robert and Dorothy Rose of Long Island. The man just sent in his DNA sample this week, per Chris, and it will take about six weeks for the testing to be completed. As you probably know, 14 people have been tested, including four from our Ezekiel Rose family. All seem to have ties to Long Island, Suffolk Co. NY. This test on the man born in Southampton, Suffolk Co. NY in 1935 should tell us if our Ezekiel is tied to Robert and Dorothy if his test matches ours..............
Sadly, will not tell us who Ezekiel's parents are or when and where he was born, but will give us an idea if we should do our seach in NY. So far, only five tested persons are tied to Tormut Rose (thought for 50 + years to be our line). It is interesting that some of them are from South Carolina and Tennessee. Will let you know when the test is complete.

So far, only five tested persons are tied to Tormut Rose of Block Island and such a surprise to find some from Tennessee and South Carolina.

Michael,
I think I sent you a copy of the will of Mary Ring (Mary Dodge Rose Ring) mother of an Ezekiel Rose, dated 28 Jan 1751 in which she names her son, Ezekiel, and calls him of the town of New Shoreham on that date. As we know, he has been thought to be the Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. NJ. Now the following will of Thomas Brush, formerly of Suffolk Co., Long Island, New York to Hunterdon Co. NJ :

> Calendar of New Jersey Wills / Vol. II / 1730-1750
> Amwell, Hunterdon Co. NJ
> 13 Apr 1749
> Will of Thomas Brush
> Yeoman, being sick, to wife Martha, one-third of estate. Eighty pounds due to EZEKIEL ROSE. Son, Philip, 60 acres of land at end of 200-acre tract on which testator lived; also, "a chest that was his brother, Eliphalet's". Son, Abner, 140 acres, remainder of plantation; and 100 additional acres adjoining. Daughters, Elizabeth Scidmore, Abigail Killsey, Sarah, Martha and Mary Brush. Son Abner, executor. Witnesses: Charles Sexton, Timothy Brush and Andrew Smith, Jr.
> Proved May 24, 1749.

I have no idea the relationship between Thomas Brush and Ezekiel Rose, but find it interesting that he is named just after Martha, wife of Thomas Brush. I feel that this also shows that there were two men by the name of Ezekiel Rose. One in Hunterdon Co. NJ in 1749 (will of Thomas Brush) and one living in New Shoreham, Rhode Island (will of Mary Dodge Rose Ring).
Do not know if you have heard from Christine Rose lately, but as of 24 Feb 2003, the following DNA markers (25) show the following to be closely matched:

> David Rose m Hannah Par / LI - PA - MD - OH
> Ezekiel Rose m Mary Fidler / NJ
> Robert Rose m Joana / NJ - VA
> Israel Rose m Phebe / Orange Co. NY
> John Rose m Rebeckah Bowen / VA - KY
> John Rose m #1 Mary - #2 Elizabeth / Salem Co. NJ
> William Rose m Mary DeWitt / Ulster Co. and Orange Co. NY

We are now looking for a descendant of Charles Rose who married Rebecca Mulliner (Hunterdon Co. to Monongalia Co. VA). As you know, it must be a direct descendant through a male Rose who still carries the name Rose. This is tough..........since I descend through their daughter, Alsey Rose who married James Conner, my line is out.
Also, need a male Rose descendant from the Tormut Rose line (one has been located still living on Block Island, but no DNA as yet) and a male descendant from the Robert and Dorothy Rose line of early Long Island.
Lets keep working on this Rose family. One day, hopefully soon, we will know if we descend from Tormut Rose of Rhode Island or Robert Rose of Long Island.
Still enjoying your work on the Darke Co. OH site. Great pictures of the tombstones.
I know so many people appreciate your help.
Later,
Mary R. M. Nunneley

ABRAHAM LACY ROSE OF NEW YORK AND FRANKLIN CO., OHIO
EZEKIEL ROSE OF WASHINGTON CO., PENNSYLVANIA
TYCHICUS ROSE, WASHINGTON CO., PENNSYLVANIA

25 marker tests on several early Roses closely match several families, all of whom appear to have Long Island connections.

1. David Rose (m. Hannah Par) supposed to be from Long Island. Documented in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and Washington County, Maryland. Family later to Trumbull and Mahoning Counties, Ohio.
2. Ezekiel Rose (m. Mary Fidler) of Hunterdon County, New Jersey (and including descendant Charles Rose of Monongalia Co., Virginia)
3. Robert Rose (m. Johana --) of Frederick County, Virginia, and probably earlier of Hunterdon County, New Jersey. (Robert was father of Tychicus Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania; two tests from descendants of Tychicus match this group)
4. Israel Rose (m. Phebe) of Orange County, New York
5. John Rose (m. Rebeckah Bowen) of Harrison Co., Va.; Wolfe Co., Ky.
6. John Rose b. 1703, m. 1st Mary, 2nd Elizabeth, liv. of Salem Co., N.J., probable brother of Ezekiel Rose above who m. Mary Fidler
7. William Rose b. 1747, m. Mary DeWitt (she of Ulster Co., N.Y.), liv. Orange Co., N.Y. - he matches with the Roses who appear to be from Long Island
8. John Rose b. 1764, of Greene Co., Pa. (w. Hannah Addleman)
9. Charles Rose b. c1819, liv. Somerset Co., Pa.
10. Descendant of Charles Rose (b. prob. 1759-1765), m. Rebeckah Mulliner, liv. Monongalia Co., Va. and previously Hunterdon Co., N.J., matched Ezekiel and Mary (Fidler) Rose of Hunterdon Co., N.J.
11. Samuel Rose (b. at least by 16 May 1714, m. Anna Duckworth, lived Burlington Co., N.J.) matched perfectly with several of the Long Island Roses. Samuel MAY be a son of Ephraim Rose, though not proven.
12. A descendant of Matthias Rose b. c1727, lived Albany and Saratoga Cos., New York and Canada, matches with Roses known to have come from Long Island, New York Roses.

13. Abraham Lacy Rose who m. Sarah Rose (daughter of Phillip Rose of Franklin Co., Ohio and granddaughter of Jachonias Rose of Westmoreland Co., Pa.) tested to be from the groups connected with Long Island Roses. It had been reported many times that Abraham Lacy Rose was not related to his wife Sarah Rose, and this test probably re-affirms this. [Additional note: A test from a descendant of Phillip Rose through a son does not match with other Roses. Seeking another test from a male descendant of Phillip Rose, through one of his sons.]
14. Ezekiel Rose (m. Mary Higgins) of Hampshire Co., Va. [W. Va.] and Washington Co., Pa.; a test through his son Ezekiel (m. Sarah Tharp/Thrap) matches this group.

The above Roses match closely in 25 marker tests, indicating a relationship. These tests would give weight to the consideration that the above families of Long Island are probably all related to the early Robert and Dorothy Rose of Long Island who were there by the 1640s.

COMMENTS: In an exciting result of a DNA test, the exact generation of a relationship was determined! This is unusual, but it did happen to this "lucky" testee. According to David Brown our Project Administrator, this came about as the result of two tests.

First, a test was conducted on a descendant of Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., N.J.. (b. ca 1705, m. Mary Fidler) father of Ezekiel Rose (b. sometime before 7 Aug. 1747, m. Mary Field), father of Ezekiel Rose (b. 1779, m. Francine "Frankie" Brittain). This test showed close matches to other Rose families known to have Long Island, New York connections.

In a later test, the testee descends from Jonathan Rose (b. ca 1807, wife Jane, lived Hunterdon Co., N.J.) whose death record shows his father as John Rose. Nothing further was known. But through the testing, we now know that John was a son of Ezekiel Rose who married Mary Field.

David explains that there was a mutation and that the testees of the two families mentioned above are the ONLY ones of the Long Island matches that have this mutation. David further explains that the mutation had to occur upon the birth of the Ezekiel Rose (b. before 7 Aug. 1747) and thus, the two testees would be be descended from a son (or two sons) of this Ezekiel. In this case, since the death record of Jonathan Rose whows his father to be named John, it is determined that John and Ezekiel (m. Francine Brittain) were brothers.

Hi Mary...Glory be, I think we've found a Rose to test for DNA of the LI Roses! I just got an email from a Charles Rose who says that one of the letters I have written inquiring about a descendant of LI Roses reached him, and that his family is:

I, [He is} Charles Frederick Rose, am the son of Hervey Strong Rose, who is the son of Charles Rose. Hervey was an only child, I believe his father had a brother Frederick. I was born in 1935 in Southampton, Long Island, Suffolk County NY and now live in Blackwood, NJ

I have one son, Austin Frederick Rose, who now resides near Orlando, FL. I doubt that Austin will ever produce a son, and I'm reasonably sure that my brother John will not either, so it looks like this line is about extinct.

My brother, John Baker Rose, is in St. Paul MN. After talking with him this evening, he mentioned that he had been in touch with you some twenty years ago, when you mentioned that we might be descendants of 'the other' Robert Rose.

I would have no objection to a DNA test, although I don't see how it would 'help so many people...'
The main challenge is that my income is severely limited, so someone would have to fund the test.

I checked, and indeed I had been in touch with John Baker Rose years ago, and have him down as a descendant of the LI Roses.

I need to find some people who would chip in to pay for the test. Would you be willing? I can check with some others too. I know however that some of the LI group is already paying towards extending their markers to 37, so I don't know if it will be difficult to find some that will chip in on this Charles Rose test. Let me know!

We just got back from Nebraska where I lectured at the National Homestead Monument. I lecture on federal land and homesteads so it was fun to see the site of the first homestead under tghe 1862 act. Lovely spot, and actually cooler than when we left DC!
Love, Chris

Hi Mary...I have contacted David Brown and you'll be hearing from him. I think he'll have Family Tree DNA bill you directly. I think they do this via email. I have told the descendant Charles Rose that someone will be paying for the test. Do you want him to know it is you? I only said a descendant was paying for it.

This is really exciting. He is a descendant through John 2 Rose, which is the best documented branch. He is from Hervey 7, Simon 6, Moses 5, Zaccheus 4, Martin 3, JOhn 2, Robert 1. You'll recognize that descendants of Martin/Martyn Rose went into Hunterdon Co., NJ!!

Hi Mary...I started to compose an email and it disappeared! You are right - he did have Silvester as father and Sophie Smith as mother, and we had discussed Stagton as probably being Stocton.. I do think you are probably right and that it is Stockton. I have:

Samuel3 Rose Jr. (Samuel2, Ephraim1) was born ca 1740-1742, died at least by 23 March 1812 (estate). He married 18 June 1765, Burlington County, New Jersey VR, Hannah Carman (Liber R. p. 183).

Researcher June Methot followed the possibility that Hannah was not born a Carman, but was instead the widow of Jasper Carmen of Hunterdon County, New Jersey. June Methot further thought that she could be the daughter of William and Elizabeth (Smith?) Hoff, both of whom were from Hunterdon and were residents of Middletown, Monmouth County, New Jersey at the time of their deaths. [The will of Elizabeth Hoff dated 1 July 1758, of Middletown, Monmouth County, New Jersey, leaves a bequest of L-6 to daughter Hannah Carman, among others (N.J. Archives, Vol. XXXIV, Wills V. Though the marriage of Hannah Hoff to Jasper Carman is not known, in his will dated 10 April 1759, Amwell, Hunterdon County, he leaves all to his wife wife Hannah who is also the executor, except for a bequest of 5 shillings to Hezekiah, son of brother John (N.J. Archives XXXII, Wills III)]. However, the evidence is not overwhelming that the Hannah Carman who married Samuel Rose was the same Hannah who was daughter of William Hoff. There was a John Carman who married Ann Stockton, daughter of Daniel Stockton and Hannah Fisher, and if he had a daughter Hannah (yet unproved) it is possible that it was she who married Samuel Rose. It could account for the name of Stockton among the Rose children. At this time this has not been resolved.

According to Surveyor's Association of West New Jersey Proceedings (p. 349), Samuel Rose and his brother William Rose inherited the farm after the death of their father. Samuel had the part that the dwelling house was on, and William had the westerly section.

There is recorded in Burlington County the following mortgage:

Mortgage Bk A p. 67 [from a book titled Mortgages but was actually Abstracts of Mortgages], Samuel Rose to Robert Ridgeway, Feb. 4, 1768, for 80 lbs., 110 acres, in Little Eggharbour, part of a larger tract of 760 acres [we are uncertain how much of this larger 760 acres was owned by Rose, probably all he owned of the larger tract of land], line of William Rose, Samuel Rose, Joseph Parker. Discharged 11 Aug. 1789. Rec.: 12 Nov. 1768.

From the deeds of Burlington County:

Deed Bk N pp. 524-527, 21 Mar. 1803, Samuel Rose of twp. of Little Eggharbour, co. of Burlington and Western Division of State of NJ, yeoman, to Francis Bodine of twp. of Washington in same. Mentions that Jacob Ong the Elder, formerly of Little Eggharbour dec'd, possessed two parcels seized of 210 acres in Little Eggharbour, on 12 of third month called May 1718, conveyed the same 210 acres "unto Samuel Rose father to the abovesaid Samuel Rose" by deed 16 May 1735, said Samuel Rose Sr. did have survey, recorded in Record of Surveyor General Office, in Burlington, Liber S No. 6 pp. 229-230, and surveyed fifty acres, Book S No. 6 Folio 236, said Samuel Sr. conveyed ten? acres and 100 acres to "his son William Rose" by Deed of Gift and being seized of remainder died intestate whereas the same became property of his Eldest Son, parties hereto as heir at Law, said Samuel and William Rose resurveyed the said 73 acres and 50 acres, approximately 119 acres and 1/2 acre, etc., now Samuel for 1266 dollars, deeds to Francis Bodine, land on line of Rozer and Parkers Plantation, etc. and Samuel Rose with wife Hannah who conveys right of dower. Dated: 1803. Signed: Samuel (his x mark) Rose. Ack.: 14 May 1803. Rec.: 2 Aug. 1803.

The estate of Samuel Rose was filed in Burlington County, New Jersey. From New Jersey Archives:

Burlington Co., N.J.: 1812, Mar. 23, Rose, Samuel, of Little Egg Harbor, Burlington Co. Int. Inventory, $256.57 1/2; made by Samuel Deacon, John Mulliner. Affirmed by Hannah Rose, Job Rose, Adm'rs. 29 Sept. 1813. File #12674 C (State Library, Trenton)

The fact that Hannah Rose and Job Rose affirmed the inventory is interesting and may indicate they (or she) were Quakers.

From an examination of the account in Orphans Court Book 2 p. 636, November Term 1813 (Burlington County), Hannah Rose and Job Rose, administrators of Samuel Rose deceased, return Account. It totalled 304.09 minus 147.71, for a balance of 156.38 in their hands.

Children: ROSE.

Stockton4 Rose (Samuel3, Samuel2, Ephraim1) was born ca 1770. He married, date and place unknown, Bathsheba Troth of upper Burlington County, New Jersey. She was born in what is now Medford (then a part of Evesham), Burlington County, died 24 January 1850, Tuckerton, Burlington County. [She should be located the 1850 mortality schedule.]

From the deeds of Burlington County:

Hi Mary: I am sending you Kirk's line as we have it. I THINK it is solid but I've been fooled before! I don't have Kirk's email address - the one I had was not good the last time I tried it, so I wrote to him instead. But, I didn't hear from him regarding the possibility of doing a test. Kirk and his wife Shirley are very nice people. He came to our conference in Denver in 1984, with his pipes and kilt.

I do have one more person I can try for DNA - a female descendant but she was nee Rose so maybe she has a relative who will do it. I'll write to her.
Christine

Extracted from my Ephraim Rose report of Burlington Co., NJ (father of Samuel Rose who m. Anna Duckworth). This is Kirk Rose's line.

John4 Rose (Samuel3, Samuel2, Ephraim1) was born ca 1760-1770 (1840 census). He married, Jeanette Ridgway, widow of Thomas Ridgway (son of John3 Ridgeway). Jeanette's maiden name has been given as Low, but we are told that in Ridgeways, USA by Gertrude N. Brick and Thurman Ridgway, page 63, it is listed that Jeanette Patterson married Thomas Ridgeway of Tuckerton, New Jersey in 1791. The marriage was recorded we are told in records of Christ Church, Philadelphia and should be re-checked to confirm that she was a Patterson. It is possible she had married prior to her marriage to Thomas Ridgeway.

After the death of his first wife, John Rose married Laurain — who survived him. If John Rose had a marriage before Jeanette, it may have been 17 October 1798, Burlington County, New Jersey VR, to Anna Sharp. [In the published record this Ross, but some published as Ross are known to be Rose.]

It is said that they removed to the county (country?) of Genesse, state of New York, and that he was a local preacher among the Methodists. Most of the Ridgeway children went with them to New York. A son Allen Ridgeway died in 1822 in Tuckerton, New Jersey, and a daughter Jennet Ann Ridgeway was in Monmouth County, New Jersey (Bk D2 p. 439) when she deeded to Joseph Cox on 7 Mar. 1820, shows she is daughter of Thomas Ridgeway of Little Egg Harbor, deeds plantation and cedar swamp belonging or adjoining Jennet Ann Ridgeway and brothers and sisters at the death of their father, the aforesaid Thomas Ridgeway, bequeathed to him from his father John Ridgeway. Though they may indeed have first removed to the county of Genesse, they lived in Ontario County for a number of years as will be seen hereafter.

He may be the John Rose listed p. 347, in Perry, Genesee County, New York in 1840 with 1 male 70/80 and 1 female 40/50. He may be the John Rose in 1820 census of Ontario County, New York in the town of Victor with a male 45+, and others in his household.

From deeds of Burlington County, New Jersey:

Deed Bk N p. 275, 30 June 1802, Jeremiah Mathis of twp. of Little Eggharbour and Hester his wife to John Rose of same, for $75, land in village of Tuckerton. Signed: Jeremiah Mathis Jr., Esther Mathis. Wit.: John Forman, William Watson. Ack.: 18 Aug. 1802.

Deed Bk P p. 231, Quit Claim, 20 Feb. 1805, Job Carr of twp. of Northampton, co. of Burlington, do release to John Rose all rights of action and demands on land, 11/100 acres, in twp. of Little Eggharbour in village of Tuckerton where my uncle Caleb Carr was seized of 7 acres from Robert Ridgway deeded by Quit Claim, begin at stone east and John Roses House. Signed: Job Carr. Wit.: Thos. Brown, Nathan Loorborough. Ack.: 4 Apr. 1805. Rec.: Aug. 14, 1805. [This unclear, needs to be re-checked.]

Gillis his wife became seized by heirship from her father Thomas Ridgeway decd and the said Thomas Ridgeway decd became of the same by the last will of his father John Ridgeway decd, and also Jennet Rose late wife and widow of said Thomas Ridgeway decd, gives up right of dower. Signed: James Gillis, Mary B. Gillis, Jennet W. Rose. Wit.: Jennet Ann Ridgeway, Caroline Louisia Rose. Ack.: 25 May 1820, state of N.Y. [no. county given]. Rec.: Mar. 11, 1823. [This deed should be re-checked to verify the relationship of John Ridgeway.]

John Rose removed to Ontario County, New York at least by 1844 though likely much sooner. From the deeds of that county:

77:149, 14 October 1844, John Rose of Victor, Ontario County, surviving husband of Jenett W. Rose, to Caroline Louisa Aylworth, Thomas Rose, John F. Rose and William B. Rose, now or late of Victor, for $600, lot conveyed by Harvey Boughton to said John Rose on 12 May 1806. Rec.: Ontario Co., reserving about 2 acres, conveyed by John Rose to John Ladd?, reserving life interest. Signed: John Rose. Wit.: James L. Gillis. Ack.: 14 Oct. 1844. Rec.: 15 Oct. 1844.

From his estate filed in Ontario County, New York, John Rose died intestate, petition of Levi C. Aylworth of town of Victor, states that John Rose late of said town died 22 December 1847, personal property valued at about $500, surviving him:

Thomas5 Rose (John4, Samuel3, Samuel2, Ephraim1) was born ca 1805, New Jersey (1850 census). He married, perhaps 2nd, Mary — (from 1850 census), born ca 1820, New York (1850 census). He evidenty married again before the 1860 census, Samantha —, who is listed with him in the 1860 census of Jackson County, Michigan (we don't have the listing).

He may have had two marriages for the death certificate of his daughter [Susan] Elizabeth Rose shows her father to be Thomas Rose, and her mother to be Mae Patterson. Informant was Mrs. John Frahm.

Children: ROSE, full list unknown.

i. William b. ca 1835

ii. Susan Elizabeth b. 10 Oct. 1843, d. 26 June 1924, unm. Her obit. appeared in the Abilene Daily Reflector of Thurs. 3 July 1924...Susan Elizabeth Rose was born Oct. 10, 1843 and departed this life on June 26 1924...after spending her girlhood in New York, she moved with her parents near Jackson, Michigan, where thirty years of her life were spent teaching school..." She left a sister-in-law Mrs. C. M. Rose, and 15 nephews and nieces. Her d.c. shows her as Elizabeth Rose, d. Hayes twp., Dickinson Co., Kans. on 26 June 1924 aged 80y 8m 16d, born 10-10-1843, N.Y., father: Thomas Rose b. N.Y., mother: Mae Patterson b. N.Y., informant: Mrs. John Frahm of Abilene, Kans.

iii. Charles H. b. ca 1845-1846, d. 22 Oct. 1905, Grand Rapids, Mich. (obit.), age 60, well known dentist, born in Victor, N.Y., to Mich. with his family in 1849, Priv. 17th Inf. Wisc. Civil War, survived by wife and five children: Clarence, Arthur, Grace, Edith and Barton (Grand Rapids Press., Mon. Oct. 23, 1905, p. 1)

25. iv. Edward b. 14 Oct. 1847, m. Carrie Maria Bowerman

Note: It seems likely that if William Rose aged 15 in the 1850 census with Thomas Rose is a son, that Thomas likely had a previous marriage.

Note: Full name and dates of Susan Elizabeth and Edward from records of Catharine Stargel. She also adds a son John born ca 1851, Mich., and possibly a dau. Mary born ca 1833. She says the obituary of Edward Rose states there were six children. From the 1850 and 1860 census she believes that Mary might be the sixth child and the age on census on error.

Mary...Samuel who m. Hannah Carman was the son of Samuel Rose of Burlington Co., NJ and his wife Anna Duckworth. The reason Mulliner sounds familiar to you is that the name appears both with your Charles' wife Rebecka Mulliner, and in the Samuel Rose documents.

The DNA that was taken was from a descendant Charles Rose of Somerset Co., PA, son of Silvester (who as you say could be Stagton/Stockton). The descendant and I had discussed Stockton Rose and his connection to Samuel of Burlington. We don't have DNA from a Samuel Rose descendant UNLESS of course Silvester Rose is.

Here is what I have in the first two generations of that family. If it doesn't come through okay in the email let me know - it might be too long.

Samuel Rose Family

Little Egg Harbor twp., Burlington County, New Jersey

Compiled by Christine Rose, CG, CGL, FASG

Note: This is subject to corrections, additions, omissions etc. and is only for the purpose of further research. It is based on personal research at the courthouse of Burlington County, New Jersey and Ontario County, New York, supplemented by records from personal search at the State Archives in Trenton, New Jersey; also from various other sources cited.

Important: This report is not a commissioned report. It is only a correlation of various data collected during the years. Some of it is from undocumented information that has been supplied by others, but appears to be important enough to include as clues. Those undocumented or uncited items need further investigation. Some of it is from personal trips to various courthouses and repositories, and that information include the source. This report should be considered not as a "final" word on the family, but as a tool used to further research.

Ephraim1 Rose, ancestry unknown, married Martha —. Though it has not been proven that he is father of Samuel Rose of Little Eggharbour, Burlington County, New Jersey, published histories do so state. Further, there is documentation that he is indeed in that area, though further study is needed.

It is possible that Martha, wife of Ephraim Rose, was Martha Clark, daughter of John Clark who left a will dated 14 December 1702, John Clark of Elizabeth Town, to wife Martha property. Executors: wife and brother Ephriam Clark. This was witnessed by Samuel Melyen (?) and Samuel Carter, proved and the widow Martha Clark sworn in as joint executrix, probated June 8, 1705. (Ref.: ----). This will was located by June Methot who believes it explains why the Roses went to Burlington; she believes that they probably went to Little Egg Harbour at the same time as Thomas Clark III.

Ephraim Rose, of Little Eggharbour, yeoman, died sometime prior to 8 [or 18? date to be re-checked] March 1747 when letters of administration were granted to his widow, Martha (Lib. V, West Jersey Wills, p. 437).

From New Jersey Calendar of Wills 1730-1750:
1748, March 5, Rose, Ephraim, of Little Egg Harbour, Burlington Co., yeoman. Int. Inventory, L-277.17.4 1/2; made by Samuel Andrews and Joseph Parker.

1748, March 8. Adm'x, Martha Rose, widow. Samuel Andrews and Elisha Stout, of same, fellow bondsmen. Lib. 5 p. 537.

Daniel Lamb Smith in his Genealogy of Lamb, Rose & Others, 1904, pp. 12-16, erroneously gives the ancestry through Samuel 2 Rose, son of Robert and Margery Rose of Wethersfield and Branford, Connecticut. The latter Samuel is fully discussed in Christine Rose, Descendants of Robert Rose of Wethersfield and Branford, Connecticut, Who Came on the Ship Francis from Ipswich, England in 1634, (Ann Arbor: Braun-Brumfield, 1983).

Ephraim Rose owned land in Burlington County, though deed of purchase has not been located. It is evidenced however by the following (Book A-S p. 444, N.J. State Archives):

25 Dec. 1740, Ephraim Rose and Martha his wife of little Eggharbour, co. of Burlington, prov. of West New Jersey, to Thomas Ridgeway of same, for 175 lbs. current money, 150 acres of land and meadow at little Eggharbour, bounded by line of land formerly surveyed to Henry Jacobs, adjoining land of Hannaniah Gaunt on west side and on east side adjoining land of Thomas Ridgeway, said 150 acres Ephraim Rose purchased of Nicholas Wainwright and Mary his wife by indenture dated 6 Feb. 1734/5, etc. Signed: Ephraim Rose, Martha Rose. Wit.: Caleb Carr, Jacob Falkinberg. Ack.: 7 June 1757 by Caleb Carr.

Children: ROSE, full list unknown. Following unconfirmed.
2. i. Samuel, born at least by 1714 but perhaps sooner, m. Anna Duckworth

Samuel2 Rose (Ephraim1) was born at least by 16 May 1714 for he purchased land 16 May 1735 (see later), and died, administration of his estate 16 January 1762. He married 26 February 1739, Burlington County, New Jersey VR, Anna Duckworth, said to be born ca 1718, died probably shortly before 18 February 1782 when her estate was administered, died Hopewell, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, daughter of William Duckworth. Anna married 2nd, at least before 19 April 1768 when she is called Anna Price in the estate of Samuel Rose, to Joseph Price. He left a will naming wife Anna (see following) in Hunterdon County. [It would appear that Anna removed with her husband to that county and therefore record of some of the younger Rose children may be in Hunterdon County records.]

[On the Duckworth family, William Duckworth died before 7 March 1727/8 when administration was taken on his estate. His widow Grace requested confirmation of William Bowgar (elsewhere as Bowker) and William Dean as guardians for her minor children Joseph, Anna and Mary. (Burlington Co. Minutes of Common Pleas 1717-1733, May 1728)].

The will of Joseph Price was dated 14 April 1772, proved 21 September 1775: of Hopewell, Hunterdon Co., yeoman; wife Anna Price my house and land, while my widow, except 12 acres of my mountain land to be sold, for the use of bringing up my son, Benjamin. To son Joseph, my heir-at-law, L-5. To son Benjamin, my house and land, when he comes of age, and the rest of the mountain land; if he dies, to be sold, and the money to go to my grandchildren. He named as executors John Titus and Timothy Smith. This was witnessed by Simeon Smith, Jonathan Smith and Joseph Smith. Inventory was taken 6 Sept. 1775 by Andrew Muirheid and John Akers; Account 24 July 1786 by Timothy Smith the surviving executor; and 6 Aug. 1794, account of executor. Liber 17, p. 234 (New Jersey Calendar of Wills 1771-1780, p. 406).

The earliest deed for Samuel Rose that has been located is in Burlington County (Book A-E p. 364):

16 May 1735, Jacob Ongg of little Eggharbour, co. of Burlington, Western Division of New Jersey, yeoman, to Samuel Rose of the same place, weaver, for 145 lbs., 210 acres, being part of a tract of 760 acres in little Eggharbour on north east side, line of Charles Dingee, Jacob Ongg, Steven Burcham, etc. Signed: by the O mark of Jacob Ongg, Elizabeth (her x mark) Ongg. Wit.: Wm. Bickley, Row'd Ellis, John Jones. Ack.: 6 Nov. 1795 by Rowland Ellis who testifies to handwriting of his father.

Samuel Rose disposed of 100 acres of land evidenced by another deed in Burlington County:

Deed Bk W pp. 664-665, 20 June 1761, Samuel Roose [sic, later shown as Rose] of Little Eggharbour in county of Burlington, for love and goodwill toward "loving son William Roose," 100 acres, adjoining Samuel Andrews and also 110 [or 100] acres below the road between me and Samuel Andrews, etc. Signed: Samuel Rose. Wit.: Samuel Andrews, Jonthan Petit. Ack.: 5 Feb. 1791. Rec.: 28 Aug. 1810.

[This wording has been questioned and needs to be rechecked.]

In a book of mortgages in Burlington County he is again listed:

Mortgage Bk A p. 67 [from a book titled Mortgages but was actually Abstracts of Mortgages], Samuel Rose to Robert Ridgeway, Feb. 4, 1768, for 80 lbs., 110 acres, in Little Eggharbour, part of a larger tract of 760 acres [though evidently Rose was mortgaging only 100 acres; his total acreage from this larger tract uncertain], line of William Rose, Samuel Rose, Joseph Parker. Discharged 11 Aug. 1789. Rec.: 12 Nov. 1768.

Samuel Rose died at least by 16 January, 1762 (see his estate file). His administrator was Anna Rose, widow, who on 19 April 1768 is designated as Anna Price, late Anna Rose.

From New Jersey Colonial Documents, Calendar of Wills 1761-1770, p. 364.

I too am interested in a Thomas White. I don't believe it is the same person since my reference material shows he died in 1807 in Mount Hope, Orange County, NY. The "History of Orange County, New York" compiled by E.M.Ruttenber and L.H.Clark has a number of references to him. He is also prominent in the book; "The Journal of the Records of Peter E. Gumaer, 1771 - 1869" by Lucile Gumaer Ogden. This Thomas White was a native of England to which country he was strongly attached.

This Thomas White was a teacher of prominence and was entwined in the history of my ROSE/De WITT families.

How very nice of you to follow up on this. I will give you the information that I have on this material:
Library of Congress / National Union Catalog of Manuscript Collections
Author: Bellport-Brookhaven Historical Society
Title: Genealogy file, ca. 1800-1989.
Description: 1.5 cubic foot notes
Materials on the genealogy of Bellport area families, including letters, photographs and financial records. Family names: includes many names, including ROSE.
Bellport-Brookhaven Historical Society, 31 Bellport Lane, Bellport, N>Y> 11713.
Control No.: NYHV93-A240 (I presume this number is a Library of Congress
Index number to the holdings. The material is not in the Library of Congress, but is only an index to the holdings of the Historical Society in Bellport.)

When I talked to the Historical Museum, they told me since they were without a curator, I needed to talk to a Mr. Victor Principe. They said he was the local historian. Also told me, they did not have his telephone number or how to contact him, but felt sure he had a phone and probably a computer...............I just cannot seem to find any way to find out about this ROSE material filed in the "materials on the genealogy of Bellport families".
Thanks so much, again, for your effort to find this material. Maybe someday.......

Hi! I called the Brookhaven-Bellport Historical Society. They told me to call town hall. They said they do not have historical records that can be independently researched. I then called their town hall. They will not allow anyone to look through their records. They have records on birth, death, and marriage. They charge $11 for each request. The town hall # is 1-631-451-9101. Their records go back only as far as 1881. Diane

Hi! I called the historical society again. I read them the the paragraph you had sent me pertaining to the manuscript info. on the Rose genealogy. I asked her for the # of Mr. Principe. She wasn't sure if he wanted his # given out. I heard her wisper in an aside {should I give her his #?} She asked for my # to have him call me. I said, "I live only 20 minutes from Brookhaven Twp. and I work and I am hard to reach". She gave me the # Victor Principe 1-631-286-1426. I hope he can help you. You are the only person amongst the many people I have e-mailed searching for my ancestors, that needed any info. from NY. That's nice for a change. Diane Still working on trying to get to Tulsa for the conference. That weekend is our son's 50th birthday (July 8) and we are waiting on his wife to decide about a party / when and where. Hope I can get to Tulsa and, finally, meet you in person.

Two Roses bloom for Valentine's Day

By Fran Migliaccio

Eleanor and Arthur Rose at their home on the West Side.

On Valentine's Day, the subject is Roses: Eleanor and Arthur Rose, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last fall.

Embedded near the entrance to the West Side home that they built 27 years ago is a white tile with a red rose design. Outside the living room window, chickadees flutter at well-supplied feeders. Indoors, the Roses are cozily at home — although, the day of this interview, Eleanor admits to some annoyance; the oven won't light and she can't do her daily baking.

The Roses' romance began on Block Island. Eleanor Ballard arrived from her hometown of Jericho, Vt., at age 18 to work for her uncle Henry Ballard. Henry and his wife, Alice, owned Ballard's Inn at Old Harbor.

"That tells you how long I've been here," said Eleanor. "I'll be 87 in May."

Arthur, meanwhile, had been here all his life. Born in a small white house that still stands between Lakeside Drive and Fresh Pond, Arthur Francis Rose was the son of Bridget Carroll and Ezra Arthur Rose. His mother was Irish and his father was a direct descendant of Tormut Rose, one of 16 settlers who arrived here in 1661.

Arthur attended the one-room Center School and went to high school in the building that is now the Block Island Health and General Store. He then went to work for the power company as a pole climber. "There was no bucket," he observed. "Once you got up there, it was two hands for the company, and the belt was for you."

He also drove a truck for Giles Dunn, a Rhode Island state senator who owned two fish markets: at Payne's Dock and at Old Harbor.

Eleanor and Arthur met in the early 1940s, and started keeping company. "His beautiful smile was what got me," confided Eleanor.

"I liked everything about her!" exclaimed Arthur.

When the U.S. entered World War II, Arthur joined the army. Before he left, the smitten young man told Eleanor, "I hope I live to see you when I get back." After basic training in Tennessee, he became a staff sergeant and served in the invasion of Europe, crossing the continent to Salzburg. He returned to Block Island and the sweetheart he'd left behind in 1945.

Four years later, when the island's airport was built, Arthur got a pleasant surprise: a piece of his land on West Side Road contained gravel — lots of it. Arthur gave permission for removal of the topsoil, and much of his gravel was used for the airport. Arthur eventually sold the gravel pit; it is now owned by Joe Sprague.

The Roses were married on Sept. 20, 1952, at the home of close friends George and Madeleine Burgess, on Old Town Road. The wedding was small and quiet. Eleanor wore a lavender waltz-length dress and strappy heels and carried carnations. Her matron of honor was Berganetta Burgess Rachels. Arthur's best man was Adrian ("Tiny") Sprague. Rev. Elliot, of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

Arthur was too busy at the power company to allow for a honeymoon. He also took care of properties; one was Sands Farm, then owned by a Colonel Hart. The Roses' first home, joked Arthur, was "the cow barn," a cottage that Hart converted for the young couple from a former barn.

A variety of jobs

Throughout the years, Eleanor and Arthur have held a variety of jobs.

For five years, Eleanor worked for Ernest and Hazel Mitchell at the Public Market, in the brick front building on Dodge Street. She also papered and painted: "I wallpapered the Ocean View Hotel by myself; the wallpaper was there when the hotel burned," she said. She painted the outside of the Burgesses' house alone, and worked as auto mechanic for Art Ryerson at his High Street garage.

When Ryerson left the island, Estelle Heinz hired Eleanor to work at Seaside Market, telling her, "I may not let you go." Eleanor stayed 31 years.

Arthur continued to drive trucks: for Bob Rice, and for Lester ("Shorty") Littlefield after the latter suffered a heart attack. Arthur was also town police chief for 13 years, fire chief for 10, and for many years the island's state game warden. An electrician by trade, he is still the town electrical inspector. He still watches houses, currently 12.

"In the old days," Arthur summarized, "we took on a lot of jobs to try to help people, especially the old people."

The Roses' one move off-island was to Jericho, Vt., where Eleanor opened a restaurant and Arthur worked on the town road crew. Tiring of sub-freezing temperatures after a year, they returned to Block Island.

The Roses have involved themselves in quiet community pursuits. Eleanor was a charter member of the Harbor Church SSB and a member of the Firemen's Auxiliary. Arthur has been with the American Legion for 55 years.

And, always, Eleanor has cooked. She bakes every day but does not eat sweets. Instead, summer and winter, she delights friends and neighbors with morning deliveries of breads, cinnamon rolls, pies and cakes, hot from her oven.

What is the Roses' secret for a long and happy life together? "She takes good care of me," said Arthur without hesitation.

"And he takes good care of me," echoed Eleanor, smiling.

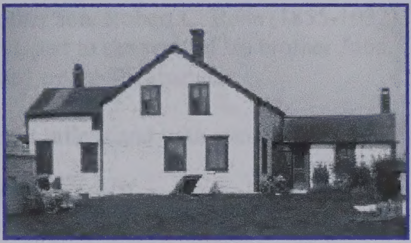
This week in Block Island history —Nov. 20, 1852—

By Robert M. Downie



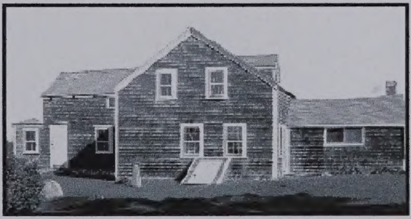
Home of Peggy and Caleb Rose, on Dorries Cove Road, built by Caleb in 1852 for his wife's 20th birthday — as the house looked about the time of Peggy's death in 1925.

On this day in history — Nov. 20, 1832 — Peggy Mott Dodge was born on the West Side near Dorries Cove. Eighteen years later, in January 1851, she married her 20-year-old neighbor, Caleb Littlefield Rose Jr., a farmer.

For Peggy's 20th birthday, in November 1852, when she was also eight months' pregnant, Caleb presented her with a newly built home.

The house still exists, and is owned by the Healy/Cooper families — at the first driveway on the left side of Dorries Cove Road. Although the property was in recent decades given the name "Tormut Rose Farm," after one of the original settlers, the house is Caleb and Peggy Rose's.

The contractor was Lemuel B. Rose Sr. (1819-1865), a distant cousin of Caleb Rose, who lived to the south in the old Cape Cod-style home known to many present-day island residents as belonging to the late Carnes Dunn. Lemuel's daughter Icivilla became Mrs. James E. Sprague and lived a few hundred yards to the west, in a home that burned in the 1920s, where the Lang's house is now located.



The house of Caleb and Peggy Rose is still recognizable today, although three interesting chimneys have been replaced by a single one, and the old door and window in the right ell have been replaced by a more modern-looking window.

Lemuel Rose's bill for the total cost of construction in 1852 was $180, which included the lumber, a trip to Stonington on the coast of Connecticut to fetch the lumber, and overnight lodging at Stonington.

The home is one of only nine erected before the 1870s for which the exact year of construction is known, and the circumstances of the origin are the most "complete" of any house built earlier than the 1870s.

One of Caleb and Peggy's sons, John Rose (1852-1938), built his own house just across the lane. That house also still stands, now owned by the Taylors — at the first driveway on the right side of Dorries Cove Road. His former hardware store was on Dodge Street, across from the liquor store.

Another son, Robert C. Rose (1855-1932), also lived on Dorries Cove Road, just to the west of his brother John. That home has long been owned by the Weitmanns.

A tight little island with even closer-knit neighborhoods.

In 1875, when Peggy Rose was 42, her last child — a daughter also named Peggy — died at the age of 1 year, 3 months, and 15 days, as the gravestone in the nearby Dodge Cemetery explains.

Caleb Rose passed away in 1880 at the age of 50. Peggy lived for another 45 years as a widow. A younger widow or widower of that era, especially with small children, would have soon remarried to ensure the family's well-being.

On Jan. 13, 1925 — six days before what would have been her 74th wedding anniversary, and at the age of 92 — Peggy Rose died in her home on the beautiful hill overlooking the sea. First driveway on the left.

Christine,
Have been going over the report I just received concerning Robert and Dorothy Rose of Suffolk Co. LI, NY. I noted that you still do not assign a name to their daughter who married Anthony Waters. You cite a MANN article as saying that "the eldest Rose child was a girl and that by October 1654 she had married Anthony Waters".
I have spent several days on the internet......looking. Many, many people are researching this Anthony Waters and almost all have listed his wife as, Rachel Rose.
Some list her parents as Robert Rose and Dorothy Conkling...........
I found the following:

> http://www.longislandgenealogy.com/1665-1707.html
> "Whereas ANTHONY WATERS, late of Jamaica, upon Long Island, died intestate." His widow Rachel Waters, is appointed administratrix. April 15, 1675.

Several people list the children of Anthony and Rachel Rose Waters. One man, Paul D. Schenck, on GenForum/Waters site states that their son, Jonathan Waters who married a Deborah ? died about 1761 in Hopewell, HUNTERDON Co. NJ.
Let me know what you have on this unknown daughter of Robert and Dorothy Rose and if I can add anything, I will send what I have copied on Anthony and family.
I found Anthony Waters served on a jury ye 2d of October 1665........this pertained to the trial of Ralph and Mary Hall for witchcraft. Also, found the following:

> New Haven Colonial Records, Vol. II, p. 349-50, shows that ANTHONY WATERS, attorney for John Concklin, Tho. Osman & Tho. Rider, inhabitants on the land called Hashamommock, plainteifs, entred an action of the case agains John Budd, Senior, for breach of an ancient order made for ye preservation of good neighbourhood, 28 May 1660...........NOTE..quite lenghthy, but, Hashamommock was in Southold, Long Island.

Hi Mary...goodness, you HAVE been busy! Thanks for the info. I did not have further than what was on the report, for I had not done any real research on her. Therefore, your info was of great interest.

We now have the 25 marker tests for:
Ezekiel Rose Hunterdon Co., NJ
David of Lancaster Co., Pa. and Washington Co., Md. (m. Hannah Par)
Robert Rose of Frederick Co., Va. (w. Johana), f/o Tychicus Rose

All with exact matches (or maybe it was 24/25) of their tests! Still trying to get someone still living on LI who is of the early Roses there.

Dear Family Tree DNA Customer:

Your DNA sample kit, number 8400, was received today at Family Tree DNA.

The next step is the processing of your sample at our lab. When the lab has completed the processing, you will be notified immediately by email. The email will give directions for viewing your results online at FamilyTreeDNA.com. You will be logging into FamilyTreeDNA.com, using your kit number and a password, E9965. We recommend recording your kit number and password in a safe place, or keeping this email.

Typical times between receiving kits and the availability of lab results for various tests are:

12 Marker Y-DNA	- 4 weeks
25 Marker Y-DNA	- 5 weeks
12 to 25 Marker Y-DNA Upgrade	- 4 Weeks
mtDNA Tests	- 5 Weeks

These times are for tests that have a successful outcome from the first run at the lab. Approximately 85% of the first runs are successful. The tests are rerun on the other 15% until a good result is obtained. Unfortunately, each rerun adds two weeks to the process.

We understand that the delay is frustrating to participants. When a delay occurs, your sample is being rerun as many times as it takes to achieve a successful result.

Thank you for choosing Family Tree DNA,

Michael...we still don't have all the answers that are needed. What we know is that Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ (who m. Mary Fidler) is related in other Roses whose ancestry came off of LI.

Whether Tormut Rose of BI had any connection to the LI Roses we don't know, and won't know until we get DNA from a Rose branch that stayed on Block Island, to compare. We are also seeking DNA from a desc. of the early Robert Rose of LI (who m. Dorothy and was there by 1640s).

We also hope to get DNA from James and John Rose of Cumberland and Salem Cos., NJ.

In the meantime, on Ezekiel Rose, Hunterdon Co., NJ and LI are the places to search for his parentage.

Hope this helps.

Just a note to let you know that my suggestion that our Rose family does not descend from Tormut Rose of Block Island, Rhode Island has now been confirmed by Christine Rose of the Rose Family Association.
DNA testing (24/25 markers) confirms that our Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. NJ is of the same line as:
  David Rose of PA and MD (married Hannah Par/Parr)
  Robert Rose of VA (married Johana) father of Tychicus Rose
I now believe it is a possibility that we descend from the Roses of Long Island, NY and have thought that for several years. Many of the early Long Island Rose families (along with Thomas Brush and others) were very early in Hunterdon Co. NJ. Our Ezekiel is mentioned in the will of Thomas Brush.
With the DNA testing completed on these three Rose line, we can now begin to "clean up" the many mistakes made since the 1950s on our Rose genealogy.
Hopefully, a male descendant of the Robert Rose family of Long Island can be found quickly for DNA testing, which can confirm the tie from Robert Rose to Ezekiel (NJ), David (PA) and Robert (VA).
Good luck in your new research.

We are not descended from Tormut Rose of Block Island, or so the new DNA testing indicates. Many of us have doubted for years that we were descended from that line. I believe a man by the name of Fred Rose (not sure of his given name) was the person who started the idea that Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. NJ was the son of John Rose of Block Island. This man made a mistake (he did not look at all of the records) and the Ezekiel, son of John, still lived in Rhode Island when our Ezekiel was already in Hunterdon Co.

There is quite a lot of information concerning DNA testing for genealogical proofs on the internet. I have a friend who is also a Rose descendant (not our line) and she recently told me that their Rose line had done the DNA tests and proved what she already knew by her research. She was so happy to know that her years of research were correct.

I have tried, over the years, to tell my "cousins" that we should be very careful in showing our Rose line from Tormut, because I doubted that it was correct from various records.

Now we need to try to discover exactly what our line is...........is it from Robert and Dorothy of Long Island...........still to be proven, but a possibility.

I would suggest that you discuss this with Christine Rose of the Rose Family Association.

Thanks, Mary for keeping me updated on the ROSE DNA testing. I haven't been watching too closely because of other projects, but please keep me informed and updated as things go.

I am glad that you enjoy the DCO Web site. A lot of work has been placed in that site fromvarious people. I am glad that the site is helping a lot of people.

Again, thanks for keeping me updated. You don't know how much I really appreciate it. Thanks, Cousin!!

Notes for EZEKIEL ROSE:
Parents of Ezekiel are not clear. There seems to be two Ezekiels that have been confused here. Review notes here and on Jonathan Rose.

Ezekiel 3 Rose (John 2, Tormut 1), born 17 July 1705, Block Island, Rhode Island VR (1:114).

It is said in records of Fred W. Rose (now deceased) that he is the Ezekiel Rose who died 1768, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, and who married, Mary Fidler, daughter of John Fidler Sr. (and his wife Sarah, per John Fidler's will Oct. 1759, Hunterdon Co., N.J.; N.J. Archives #2139i). However, serious doubts have arisen on this identification. It is noted from records of Hunterdon County that Ezekiel Rose was there as early as 1749 when he is mentioned in the Thomas Brush will (see later), and appears to have resided there continuously after that date. The will of Mary Ring, remarried mother of Ezekiel 3 of the Tormut Rose family, left her will dated 1750 and left a legacy to son Ezekiel Rose in case of his sister, in spite of the fact that he was about forty five at the time. And, she gives his residence as Newshoreham.

Another reason for believing that there may have been a mis- identification are the ages of the children of the Hunterdon County Ezekiel. His eldest son was Ezekiel Rose was executor of his father's will which was proved 9 August 1768, and would have had to be twentyone at the time. This places his birth ante 9 August 1747. The will of Ezekiel Rose also names two married daughters. For them to have been married when he left his 1768 will places them it would seem probably at least 18-20 at the time. It is also noted that the Ezekiel Rose family of Hunterdon County does not carry any of the traditional Block Island names. Further, we have proven records of various Roses from Lona Island being in Hunterdon County at this time, and... the name Ezekiel was used in the Long Island family. Indeed, there is at least one Ezekiel Rose in the Long Island family in this time period who disappears from the Long Island records. However, until this can be researched further, the records of Ezekiel of Hunterdon County are left in the Tormut Rose compilation for further study.

The will of Thomas Brush of Amwell, Hunterdon County, New Jesey, yeoman, dated 13 April 1749, gives to wife Martha 1/3; also L-80 due Ezekiel Rose; he also gives to son Phillip, mentions son Eliphalet, son Abner, daughters Elizabeth Scidmore, Abigail Killsey, Sarah, Martha and Mary Brush. [Cal, of Wills 1730-1750, N. J. Col. Docs., Vol. -? pp. 7071 (poss. Vol. II].

Bob Rose Jr. (bobrosejr@yahoo.com); earliest known ancestor Ezekiel Rose (Mary Fidler) 1705-68; through Charles of Monongalia Co., Va. (W. Va.)

As you are probably aware, the results of your DNA test were posted this morning. Although you have no perfect 25-25 matches, you have no less than 7 that are very close to you, strongly indicating you are from the same family, despite two mutations that appear in your line.

Thus, your results are quite consistent with your being directly descended of Ezekiel and Mary, as suspected, who by previous tests are closely related to others, as listed below

All of the following were perfect matches with each other, two single steps different from your own:

also of Ezekiel through Ky & Ill.;

descended of David Rose (Hannah Parr) of Lanc. Pa through Md & Ohio; descended of Robert Rose (Johanna) of Hunterdon, NJ & VA through Tychicus Rose; of Israel Rose (Phoebe) of Orange Co., NY; through Ruben Rose;

of John Rose (Hannah Addleman) of Greene Co., PA;

of William Rose (Mary DeWitt), b. 1747; of Orange Co., NY

of John Rose (Mary & Elizabeth) 1703-1755 of Salem NJ

I will forward a copy of this email to them also, as the information can be helpful to them as well.

A relationship is also strongly indicated between this group and John Rose & Rebekah Bowen of VA and Wolfe Co., TN.

Thank you very much for your participation! We sincerely hope this will be very helpful to the research on your early Rose ancestors. Any questions are most welcome.

You have a match!

A high resolution match has been found between you and another person(s) in the Family Tree DNA database. You and the other person(s) have matched in 23, 24 or 25 loci, which means that there is a 99.9% likelihood you have a common ancestor.

The link below will take you to your Family Tree DNA Login. From there you can see a list of your matches. Newer matches will be at the top of the list. Addtional emails will be sent to you as we find new matches between you and your "genetic cousins."

William:

As you are doubtless aware, your completed DNA results are now in. You have two very close matches, and two others that are fairly close as well.

You are a 24/25 match with:

A test from a very well documented descendant of Tormut Rose, sponsored by Mary Nunneley (Nunne002@aol.com). Tormut was originally from Scotland, captured by the English, and sent to Block Island, Rhode Island about 1650. One of the earliest Rose progenitors in America.

also Michael T. Rose (senator@myexcel.com); who documents as far back as Green Rose (m Lydia Black & Charity Taylor) 1809 Laurens SC; later in Cocke Co. TN.

The two others that are fairly similar are:
Tom Rose (tomrose@redshift.com); from George Rose, 1795 SC; later Polk Co. TN; through Thomas J Rose 1831;

Noel J. Rose (nolikethis@aol.com); from William Stillwell Rose 1825 (m. Abigail VanHise); of Matawan NJ. (monmouth Co)

I am sending a copy of this also to them, as it could be valuable to their research.

For you others, please allow me to introduce to you your new relative:
William E. Rose (WERose@lmus.leggmason.com), documented back to George Rose (m. Janey ?); through son William Aaron Rose 1918 of Angels Camp CA. (CALAVERAS Co)

William, the meaning of this is that you are quite definitely descended of Tormut Rose of Block Island, although it is not possible to establish any lineage as yet. This is not quite certain as yet of Tom or Noel, but they are doubtless related as well, possibly earlier than Tormut. I will be studying this more closely in the next few days to see if anything further can be established from this test.

I will be away until Monday, but your questions are most welcome.

ROBERT ROSE / SOUTHAMPTON, SUFFOLK CO. NEW YORK/1644

Researching the families of Robert and Dorothy Rose family of Long Island. First located in Southampton town records by 7 March 1644. Robert Rose died between 13 May 1651 and 10 June 1652, per town records. His widow Dorothy Rose married, date unknown, to Ananias Conkling. Both Dorothy and Ananias are deceased by 29 Jan 1657/58 per the settlement of the estate of Ananias by his son-in-law, George Miller (this settlement lists some of the children of Robert Rose. Probable children of Robert and Dorothy Rose: Rachel (married Anthony Waters); Thomas; John (married Abigail); Samuel; Mary; and Jonathan (married Jane Nearon Williams, widow of William Williams). I am seeking any information concerning this Rose family who was one of the first settlers of Long Island. Especially interested in locating current residents of Suffolk Co. NY who descend from Robert and Dorothy. Other names associated with this family are: General Abraham and Mary Pierson Rose; Dr. Rufus and Mary Sanford Rose; Dr. Samuel Haines and Mary Topping Rose; Dr. Rufus and Phebe Sanford Rose. Capt. Nathan and Sarah Rumsey Rose. I appreciate your help and contact.

Hello!

I am a member of the Rose Family Association still searching for information about a Rose ancestor who removed from Greene Co., Pa. to Scotland Co., Mo. in the 1860's.

My father's great, great grandfather was the John Rose from Greene County, Pa., who was married to Hannah Addleman. John and Hannah's children were: John, Hannah, Jacob (my father's great grandfather), Aaron, David, Edon, Amon, Elizabeth, Rebecca, Mariah(Sarah?) and Margaret.

Among the children of Jacob and Catherine (Lantz) Rose was:
Commodore Perry Rose (my father's grandfather)
Andrew (lived in Wetzel Co., WVa)
Christopher (I have found him on 1870 & 1880 MO census, Scotland Co., and also found him, wife Margaret and son John E. age 16, on the 1900 Scotland Co.census; Margaret alone, as a widow on 1910 Scotland County census ("5 children, 3 living") and a John a few pages away the right age (26) with wife "Rosie" and daughter Opal. I haven't yet identified Margaret and Christopher' other 2 "living children" - they may be Frank and Bertha)

In 1861 Commodore Perry married Elizabeth Caroline Stephens in Warren Co., Illinois and immediately enlisted in the Civil War Army at Jasper Co., Iowa. He returned there after the war, later moving to the area around Page and Taylor County in Western Iowa where his children and grandchildren, including my father, were born.

I would really appreciate it if you would send me some information about your ROSE line and especially any descendants who migrated to Scotland County, MO.

Thanking you in advance, I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Lois

Dear Mrs. Allison:

Thank you for your letter concerning the burial location of Charles Rose of New Jersey and Monongalia, West Virginia, as published in the DAR magazine of February, 1982.

It saddens me to think that there is a possibility that the graves of our ancestors may, indeed, be under the lake in the area of the Cheat River. Until my employment at the Bartlesville Public Library in 1978, I was an employee of the United States Corp of Engineers and worked on research (field work) to relocate cemeteries where lakes were being developed. It was a wonderful job to assist families in the relocation of their loved ones when an area was needed to further power and/or water conservation. Wish the Corp had been in charge of that project, but they probably did not exist when it was done.

I was pleased to receive your letter and thrilled it was from an Ice - almost feel like I know that family after so much research in the area. Everywhere I have turned the name appears and know they were a prominent family in the area.

I have tried to locate the book, "Now and long ago", but it apparently is out of print. I do not know if I contacted Glenn D. Lough at Fairmont, W. Va., if he could give me any information concerning the Charles Rose family, but might be worth a try if he is a good historian for the area.

We have been unable to trace seven of the ten children of Charles and Rebecca Rose, so there is a possibility that they remained in the area and their graves are also in the area of the lake.

Thanks again for your letter. It was very nice of you to send the information.

Sincerely,

Mary

Mrs. Mary M. Nunneley,

Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I read in the last issue of the D.A.R. Magazine your request for information concerning burial location of Charles Rose, a Revolutionary soldier. You also stated that he owned land near Ice's Ferry (at the forks of the Cheat River on Patterson Creek in West Virginia.

Am not sure that I can help you, but will try.
About three years ago my husband and I were in Morgantown West Virginia; and went out to Cheat River (now Cheat Lake) about eight miles northeast of town to Ice's Ferry. Frederick Ice, who established Ice's Ferry in 1759 is an ancister of mine. (I am a 7th generation direct descendent). All that we found was a historical marker of Ice's Ferry with inscription, and a bronze memorial of David Adam Ice -- "first white child born in West Va".

Next day we went down to Fairmont, W. Va. and contacted Glenn D. Lough, who wrote a history of that area entitled "Now and Long Ago". He gave me much useful information regarding my family and other early settlers and pioneers there.
From his book, I learned that when the Cheat River was dammed up and made into a lake, that the cemetery where Frederick Ice, his family and many friends were buried, had been covered by the water. Do you suppose that the grave of the Revolutionary soldier you are seeking could have been in the same cemetery?

" I was very sorry about this, as we found many of our relatives graves in four or five different cemetaries in the surrounding district.

Just thought I would share this information with you.

Sincerely,

Laura (Ice) Allison

Mr. Tom Jackson County Clerk
Monongalia County
Morgantown, W. VA. 26505

Dear Mr. Jackson:

Enclosed is my check in the amount of $1.50 for deeds so kindly copied by your office.

I would like to obtain all deed transactions for any one with the surname, Rose, who bought or sold land in Monongalia County, West Virginia. Since I feel this would be all too time consuming for your office, I would appreciate any names of persons who you would permit to do such research in these old and valued records.

If I am able to obtain copies of these records, they will be placed with thousands of other records in the computerized files of the Rose Family Association in San Jose, California. As a member of the Association, it would please me to make this contribution of deed records of the Rose family of Monongalia County.

I am enclosing a self-addressed and stamped envelope for your convenience to reply to my request.

Thank you for your services concerning my previous research requests.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Sherwood,

I had a letter from George Robinson, Jr. today. Had written to him to see if he had any of his records for sale (one was listed in this quarterly of the Ohio Gen. Soc. quarterly). He said he did not, but suggested that I write to you and see if you would copy them for me and I could send you the cost of copy. I have the book Fayette County, Ohio Chancery and Common Pleas Court Records, 1828-1878, which I just recently purchased from the Genealogie Shoppe, but would surely like all of his other records. Will you please consider copying the others for me? He said he had loaned them to you and you had copied them. He said he knew you and to quote "your nice son-in-law, Mike Clegg, who is at the marvelous Ft. Wayne Library".

My dear sister Nancy Anne Phillips, passed away on 2 June 1982 at Collinsville, Oklahoma. She was buried at the cemetery at Catoosa, Oklahoma. It was such a battle for her for two years and though I didn't want to lose her and miss her so much, her battle with lung cancer was over whelming. She was very brave and had a loving husband to take very good care of her. She chose to spend her last three months at home and was happier. They lived on an acreage with a lovely home and swimming pool. Her time was much better there than being in the hospital and her doctor allowed it to be that way. We were grateful. She quietly went to sleep early on the morning of 2 June.

I have only last Friday, been informed by the Bartlesville Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, that my papers on Charles Rose of Monongalia Co., VA, and Hunterdon Co., New Jersey have been accepted by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. National has not informed me as yet, but they did notify the local chapter. I was doubly thrilled, as I was not a member on any of my lines and no one has ever been accepted on Charles Rose. Apparently, according to DAR, others have tried to prove the Charles Rose of Hunterdon and Monongalia counties were the same man, but were unable to do so. I can't imagine what I could have found that others were unable to. Since this is our mutual line, you would also be eligible for SAR on Charles Rose. If you are interested, when DAR notifies me, I would be happy to send my proofs on which they passed my membership if you are so inclined to join SAR.

I ordered my papers for FFO and find it so strict that I do not think I will even try to fill them out. I had been told someone here in Bartlesville who belongs or has been accepted, that they are stricter than any other organization. I know that my Edward Popejoy and Martha (Patsey) McGarey lived in Ohio before 1820, because they were married in Butler County, 13 January 1814, but since I do not know for sure who her parents were, I doubt that they could accept that. I think it was John McGary, but do not know her mother.

Hope you are fine and would like to hear from you. We are really having some hot weather. It was 106 here today and badly in need of rain. Such heat really dries the lawns and shrubs quickly. We water so ours looks good, but many are burning fast.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Chris:

Received both letters of 24 July and felt like I had seen you in person and had just had a great visit - really enjoyed the great ideas and all of the information. Today, received the deeds of Charles and James Rose. I have compared signatures on some of the material from Roxanne Carkhuff, the NJ researcher, who obtained some Charles Rose signatures. I just cannot tell if it is possible that they are even near the same. I am just no good at old "writin".

Now to some items in your letters - John Rose of Wolfe Co. KY - who married Rebecca Bowen - see also, Isaac Rose, RW pension application by children, in Rose Family Bulletin, Volume 5, Dec 1970, page 528. The names of his children also, are quite akin to the Charles Rose family of Monongalia Co., VA and he apparently was of the same county in earlier years.

I have often wondered if the papers of Rebecca Rose, widow of Charles, were some place in the Archives, as you suggest, misfiled, or were they returned. There is another Charles, but Ross, from VA. I may try to get someone to look at these records to see what is included. I have just received the 1850 census of Fayette Co., PA to devour - in hopes that I might find something (like Rebecca living in the home of her daughter Freelove Rose ??) so far nothing. I was also looking for a John Ewing who was the attorney who handled her pension papers from Fayette County. No John Ewing as yet, but did find a Mary Ewing, widow, whose age could be near that of Charles and Rebecca's daughter, Mary. (I am really grasping) - I only know that in another line of my family, my great-grandfather who was a judge and attorney handled the Civil War papers for pension of his son-in-laws mother, so thought the very same thing might apply in this case that maybe John Ewing handled his mother-in-law's pension application. But have found only the Mary Ewing, widow.

I need to find someone in Monongalia Co., W.VA. to do some searching as you suggest. I might mention that Mr. Tom Jackson, county clerk of Monongalia Co. is surely the best in this United States. I have never had such service. If you write with a request for a record or information concerning a record, it arrives within a few days and with a small bill. I have requested material and enclosed an evvelope asking the price of copy. He does not send the price - just the material and a bill. He and his office are very business like, but absolutely super. Wish Monongalia Co., had a Genealogy Society so that I could "publish" my thanks. I may write to their office and ask if they can recommend someone to search all Rose deeds for that county.

I have been on vacation for a short time at my parent's in Drumright, OK with my daughter from Kansas. Last night (just came home this afternoon), the Vice-Regent of the Bartlesville Chapter, DAR, called me long distance to tell me that they had been notified that my DAR papers on Charles Rose of VA and Hunterdon Co, NJ had been accepted. I sent in to National everything I had on Charles and Rebecca Rose many many months ago at the urging of the local chapter. They felt it was solid (I did not). I received in June a letter from Washington, that they were very impressed with the material, but since many others had tried to join on this Charles Rose of Monongalia Co., I needed to send more proof. I had not included Rebecca's pension application since it was rejected. I then sent that after their June request, plus the material which I just sent to you from Roxanne Carkhuff of NJ. They have notified the Bartlesville Chapter that I have been accepted on Charles Rose of New Jersey and Monongalia,Co., VA. I have not been notified as yet.

No one knows it as yet, but you and the local chapter members. I am truly thrilled that another Rose will be accepted as a Revolutionary War veteran, but do hope all of my proofs, and I had many, are as accurate as I believe them to be. If they are not, I so hope that some Rose descendant out there will challenge me and set the record straight. I really wish I knew who else had tried to join on him and was rejected membership. No one has ever been accepted before on his service. I must have sent in some proofs that had not been sent in, but have no idea what I could have sent or found that someone else who had tried could not find. Do you know of anyone who has tried to prove his RW service and could not do it - if so, I would like to share what I have that they may have missed.

I hope that if I was accepted as a DAR member, as the locals say, that when it is published it will flush out a bunch of Roses (even more than a dozen) which may provide more information about this group which eludes so many.

Must get busy - after even such a short vacation, seems that much needs to be done when I return.

Thanks much for the Rose deeds and am enclosing some postage and copy money to defray our Association expenses.

Would like your thoughts on my DAR membership when you have a little time to reply.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Chris,

Received your letter today, and the letter from the Pension Office to John K. Ewing, Esq., dated 28 May 1847 concerning the pension of Rebecca Rose, widow of Charles Rose, definately states that the proceedings will be before a Single Magistrate in a court of law during its sessions. I had completely overlooked this fact (or rather the date) and thought the depositions taken concerned the Pension Office's statement in the letter to Ewing. After you mentioned the court, I reread the entire application. All dates are prior to the letter of 28 May 1847, so further proceedings must have taken place. But where?? - I am currently reading the 1850 Census of Fayette Co., PA, which I just purchased. I have found few Rose names and none that I believe tie into the Charles Rose family. Also, have found nothing that really tells me that any of that family (daughters included) were in Fayette Co. I have not even found the "John K. Ewing, Esq." There was a Mary Ewing, age 47, widow. This would place her birth ca 1803 - Charles and Rebecca Rose did have a daughter, Mary (named in his will). There was in the 1810 census of Monongalia Co., VA, a female under 10 in the household of Charles Rose. Just wonder if John K. Ewing, Esq., handled his mother-in-laws application for her pension??? I mentioned this in an earlier letter (last week), but still think I will look into the possibility. Surely some of those girls married besides my Elsie Rose Conner.

I did not receive extra Rose Family Bulletins with the exception of one issue, Vol. II, December 1967 - you sent two. I will send it back when I send you another "packet" of things, rather than mail it separately.

I have noticed for some time, ads in the Genealogical Helper by a Mary and Bob Classon, who have quite a lot of Fayette Co., PA records. I may order some of those, though they are rather costly for what I think they are offering. But as usual, certainly much cheaper than a trip. I alwasy justify my genealogical expenditures with that statement - I can't travel there for 30.00 or whatever (ha). It is just that I have nothing to prove any of this Charles Rose family in Fayette Co., and the only mention I have ever seen is the letter from the Pension Office to John Ewing. Other researchers have said they thought some of the family went to Fayette, but I do not know it for a fact. I know there were Edward Rose's there, but far as I know, no connection.

Thanks for the newest suggestion. Will try to decide how to proceed with it.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

The Census + Charles Rose report arrived. I have been trying to get a letter off to you ever since I talked to you on the phone. It seems like every time I have a free minute - someone is there to take advantage of it. I've looked through the census one time and read the Charles Rose report. Chris left out a lot of info on some of the families. + I have some she doesn't have. + Three fourths of the info in the report was supplied by yours truly.

When they were putting together the census, to bad they didn't list the families that were next to the Roses, the one above and below. I ask a lot I know! Here goes for Penn.

Cambria Co.
Phillip Harner / Homer family wife Rachel + Sarah Rose living with them.

Fayette Co-

Cyrus Black - Hannah Rose age 40 living with them.

In Clinton Co. - 3 children named Black are living with a David Rose b. N.J. but probably no connection

Fayette Co.

Colbert Ewing family or Ewing Colbert - ~~that~~ darn Ewing name - Susana Rose age 53 living with them - except Charles Rose didnt have a daughter named Susanna. Maybe she is the elusive wife of my Hopkins. The age would be right. and I certainly cant find her on the 1850 Ohio Census but she was there in 1851

Mercer Co.

Adam McCracken family

Nate wife b. Maryland & has Rebecca Rose living with them.

I went through and checked all Roses from New Jersey, Maryland. (only Bedford Co. One thing is for sure the family names arent in Penn. & Charles family - at least the ones we found were big on the family names.

Note in John Rose s/o Charles that children married into both Cain and Horner families. Charles Rose sold land to Richard Cain and James Cain 1800. I know I have mentioned this before to you + I keep wondering if there is a correction.

Just ate a piece of strawberry short cake for breakfast, no less. Doesnt make me think any better but it sure tasted good. Have the Virginia census in front of me. Noted Hannah Rose^{57} in Gilmer Co. right next to Braxton. ~~d/o~~ daughter of ~~[illegible]~~ Isaac? Ohio must have had the most Roses living there in 1850. I didnt find a stray Susannah in Ohio - did you?

Mrs. Elms chart was interesting. Her Powells and Johns were in Ohio before the Roses + Conners. I found the address of the man in Ohio researching Rachel Rose b. 1742 ~~N.J.~~ Hunterdon Co. N.J. I will send her the address as I want to know where Kevil Kentucky is. Must close and take care (over) of ~~the~~ Granddaughter while Mom goes and interviews for a job.

Love
Verna

P.S. Did Chris say anything to you about the McShane family in the Charles Rose report on page 24. Dummy me - I have Mary Nelson's address - just have to find it. Why don't you live next door to me and get me organized. What is your opinion on the $25.00 thing. How about if I send the $25.00 and will copy the report for you.

Clarksburg, W. VA 26301

Dear Mr. Pedersen:

I wish to thank your for your time and the information concerning a former resident of 428 Hornor Ave, Mrs. C. C. VanScoy.

I called, as you suggested, Mrs. Virginia Hartsock, and she was most helpful and provided the name of a sister of Mrs. VanScoy who still lives in Clarkesburg. The sister of Mrs. VanScoy, a Mrs. O. M. Hurley, could not provide any information, but gave me names of other family members who live in various areas of West Virginia. I have called two of them, to no avail, but found a most interesting gentleman, a brother of Mrs. VanScoy. He is Mr. Henry McKinley, apparently a former state senator of West Virginia. Quite a delightful man, who lives in Elkins.

Mrs. C. C. (Orma) VanScoy died circa 1978-1979 without issue, so her genealogical work and papers apparently were not retained by any family members, which is rather sad.

Again, thank you for your assistance and hopefully, will one day be able to visit your state and the areas where my ancestors lived (also, certainly must see the new Clarksburg-Harrison Public Library).

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Kevil, KY 42053

Dear Letona,

Received your letter today and was amazed - we both ordered the will of Ezekiel at almost the same time. I ordered it on 28 Feb and have now received my copy of the will and estate settlement. They also, enclosed a copy of your letter and another letter of someone else searching the same family (you probably received the same letters). If not, I am including the address of the other lady:

Mrs. Ione Olen
1115 W. Raye Street
Seattle, WA 98119.

I had never heard that Rachel Rose Powell had a sister named Joanna who married a Snyder. Send me anything you can about this Joanna and I will do some more looking. I may have mentioned that I belong to the Rose Family Association located in California and have all of their quarterlies since they began publication in 1966. They have just recently gone on computer, so feel that they will be able to find some really good items which have probably been "hidden" for years.

I have checked the index for the first years, 1966-1973 and though there are several Joanna's listed, saw nothing to make me think there was a tie to Rachel and Joseph Powell. An index has not yet been prepared for the years 1974-1982, so it would mean a page by page search for those years.

Sent your name and address to a cousin of mine in Moxee City, WA, and think she may drop you a line. She has been researching the Rose family for much longer than I and may have more information. Her name is Varna Rosacrans.

It still surprises me how many people feel that Rachel and my Charles Rose are brother and sister. The one big question still remains, what was Joseph Powell, born in PA, doing in New Jersey when he married Rachel and then returned to PA?? Another thing, my ancestor, Elsie Rose Conner, dau of Charles went to Greene Co., Ohio in 1820 / Joseph and Rachel Powell's children apparently went to Montgomery Co., Ohio (the adjoining county) at about the same time. Might not mean a thing, but interesting.

Must close, do let us keep in touch if either of us come up with something. I will continue to be on the lookout for Rachel in my research and may look into the families of Montgomery. I do know there were Powells in Greene and Fayette Co., Ohio, because they were living with my Conners in 1850 in Fayette Co.

Write again -

Sincerely,

Mary

March 25, 1983

Dear Mrs. Nunneley,

Sorry about your mother. I began this hobby in earnest after my mother was unable to enjoy what I learned of her ancestry. And hers is the one I've been most fortunate with. She would have loved it but couldn't have helped as she knew so little. But she did enquire of a cousin on their common grand parents and that was a great help to me later.

I wrote the New Jersey archives February 16, sending a check & SASE for a copy of Ezekials will. Haven't heard one thing nor a reply of any sort.

So thanks very much for the typed copy of his will. Seems very definite though that Rachel wasn't married in 1768 when the will was written so guess another good lead gone down the drain for my Rachel, Since I have the exact birthdates of her's & Joseph Powell's children - The first one being born in Jan. '65;

Of course Allen Rose (Rev. war - DAR etc.) was the son of William Rose. The latter left no will but have a copy of deed of "Rose Garden" to Allen - Seems to have been an affluent family.

Allen's will, Bedford Co. Pa., probated 11 Nov, 1805 lists daus. Rachel; Ann; Mary; 7 sons, Edward; Samuel; Wm.; Thomas; Allen; John; Arthur (under 21). His bro-in-law John Kinton (wife was Mary Kinton, Allen's was).

So we, or I, need to just keep on searching.

My Rachel is supposed to have had a sister, Joanna, who married a Snyder some say.

Good luck — Letona Elms

Dear Mrs. Rosacrans:

Have recently seen your query in Ridge Runners, Vol. 13, 1981 concerning Charles Rose. Seems that we are working on the same line, along with another person in Ohio who I have recently found, Mr. Sherwood A. Conner. Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner(?) are my g-g-g-g-grandparents through their daughter Elsie (Alsey) Rose who married James Conner.

I am enclosing some material which I feel could further our search, but have no proofs as yet(the New Jersey materials).

I will be anxious to hear if you have found the same material and are working toward the same Charles and Rebecca of NJ. The "Soldiery of WV" book has pretty well convinced me that I am surely working in the right direction, but still no proofs -

I have marriage licenses, wills, inventories, etc., for some, but feel by your query that you also have the same, so am not sending them.

Hope to hear from you soon -

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Rose Researchers:

Do any of you have Roses who lived in Liberty, Union County, Indiana or In Salem, New Jersey?

If any of you were of the Rose Family of Salem Co.,N.J., I have a lengthy and detailed history of that family that appeared in the Woodstown Monitor (N.J.), 26 March 1920. It goes back to Tormut Rose, who died in 1684 and was one of the 16 purchasers of Block Island, Rhode Island., and follows his decendants into the early 1800s.

It says: "Abraham Rose, the son of William and Hannah Burroughs Rose, m-1, Sarah Garrison, Dec.2,1812. She died 17 years later. They had 7 children: Cornelius, David, John Burroughs Rose,William, Phoebe, Eliza and Mary Jane Rose.

By his second wife, Lydia Butt (Bowers) he had two children Marian and Nathan. It is probable that this entire family lived in the west."

That was an incomplete list of of the children of Abraham and Lydia Butt Rose. Their children were:

1. Abram, who died in infancy.
2. Martha Ann, b-8 June 1835; m- Thomas Slocum; lived in Knox Co., Missouri and had 12 children: Dora, John Scott,Thomas, Jane, AnneHomer, Francis Nathan, Alice, Olive and Daisy.
3. Francis Marion Rose, nicknamed "General". A Captain in the Missouri Home Guards during the Civil War. He was a traveling Disciple minister. B- 30 Jan. 1837 in Indiana, he died 14 March 1905 at Glenwood, Schuyler Co., Mo. He married Alziria Jane Crawford (b- 27 June 1841; d- 27 Feb.1902) on 29 Sept. 1860 at Greensburg. Their two children were: Virgil C. Rose (b-1861; m- Clara V. Jackson, 1886); and Minnie Rose, who m- a Dr. Dabney and died in 1936 in Californ
4. Nathan Worley Rose, b-8 Dec. 1839 and died 8 Sept. 1896 at Hillsboro , Oregon. He married Dulcina Campbell : They had eight children: Norah May, William L., Mary Belle, John Abram Francis Marion, Bessie Pearl, Dulcina Kate and an infant. By his second wife, Mary E. Corb in, there were three children: Don Carl, Emma E. and Nathan.

5. Missouri Elizabeth Rose was the fifth and last child of Abraham and Lydia/ Born 18 Aug.1843 in Union County, Indiana, she died 18 Dec. 1907 in Arkansas. She married James Mason Crawford,son of Harrison Perry Crawford of Ohio Co.,Kentucky, and Margaret Crawford, daughter of William Crawford and his wife Alziria Doughty of Nicholas Co.,Kentucky. It was James Mason Crawford's sister Alziria Crawford, who married Francis Marion Rose, as noted above. James Mason Crawford and his wife Missouri Elizabeth Rose, had one son ,William Denson Crawford, born in Scotland Co., Mo. 31 Oct. 1865. He was the father of my husband William Ernest Crawford.

Would like to hear from any of the descendants of Abraham and Lydia Rose.

I understand that Christine has put the Tormut Rose line into the computer. That should be interesting.

Good luck to all you ROSES,

Thank you, Frances.

father made his will. The second part is shown to be a mere assumption by the following entry in the diary of Christiana Leech:

> "1786 June 15. My son John Leech has bought the place at Kingsessing, belonging formerly to my brother."

The words "belonging formerly to my brother" indicate at least a family understanding that some real estate was to have been devised to William Young, Jr., by his father, when the latter should make his will. But, as we have already learned from the Penn correspondence, the botanist finally relinquished his share of his father's estate long before the latter's death, and what the records show is, that William Young, Sr., devised the residue of his 27-acre farm in Kingsessing to his executors to be sold and that it was this property which was bought by John Leech, Jr., April 11, 1786.[52]

3. Catharine Young; daughter of William and Elizabeth Young, was born about 1745, and died April 13, 1785, on the birth of her fourth child.[53] She married, May 6, 1776, Jacob Hoffman, a farmer of Blockley township.[54] He saw service in the Revolution, being in Captain Gibson's militia company that went to Amboy, in August, 1776, and later in Captain William Rose's 8th Company, 3d Battalion, Philadelphia County Militia.[55] As already noticed, he was imprisoned by the British, during their occupation of Philadelphia, for about six weeks. He was a trustee of William Young's Burying-ground from its founding until his death, September 13, 1829, aged 83 years.

His will, dated January 6, 1826; proved September 16, 1829, mentions children William, Jacob, Elizabeth wife of Jacob Reaver, a deceased daughter, Catharine Benner, and the latter's daughters Mary Elizabeth and Catharine. Son William and friend Henry Leech, Jr., are made executors.[56]

4. William Leech; son of John and Christiana (Young) Leech; b. July , 1756; d. September 9, 1793, of yellow fever, aged 37 years 2 months.[58] He was a soldier of the Revolution, serving in the Kingsessing militia, under Captain Rudolph, on its march to Amboy in May, 1776; in Captain Young's company that went to Bristol a year later, and in Captain William Rose's Company, 1781. As already related, he was taken prisoner by the British, but released shortly. He made a journey to Carolina in 1784.[59]

5. John Leech; son of John and Christiana (Young) Leech; b. ab. 1759; d. September-October, 1801, aged 42 years (see his will; tombstone differs as to month); m. 1791, May 5, Mary Blum; b. ab. 1770; d. December 12, 1811, aged 41 years, daughter of George Blum, of Philadelphia.[60] He served in Captain Gibson's Company, in 1776, and later in Captain William Rose's Company.[61] With his brother William, he was imprisoned by the British. He learned wagonmaking, and having completed his apprenticeship, went into business for himself, in 1781. In 1786, he bought his uncle William Young's former place in Kingsessing, but afterwards became tavernkeeper in the city—on Elbow lane, 1794, and on Market street, sign of the Black Horse, 1796.[62]

His will, dated September 4, 1801, at Kingsessing; proved October 21, 1801; mentions sons William and Maximilian, to whom he leaves, besides other property, "a case of horse pistols, sword & fowling piece." Among bequests to wife Mary is "the unexpired term of a Lease on a Lot called the burying

His wife, Margaret, died 6 October, 1807, in her 58th year. A petition to the Orphans' Court of Montgomery County of 17 June, 1822, recites that, Henry Stelwagon died intestate, leaving issue: Frederick, Margaret, Catharine, John, Hannah, Elizabeth, William, Henry, Joseph and Jesse L., also Henry Zell, a minor son of a daughter, Mary, deceased. It further recites that, the said daughter Elizabeth married James Fearon and had since deceased, leaving Mary, Eliza and Ann Fearon; that the said Joseph had since conveyed his interest in the real estate of his deceased father to his brother Frederick; that Margaret married Isaac Rodenbach; that Catharine married William Fryer; that Hannah married Hugh Durborrow, and that Mary married Andrew Zell. Mrs. Anna Barbara Stelwagon died before 25 November, 1752, when letters of administration were granted on her estate to John Stelwagon of Philadelphia, during the minority of her four children, her husband Frederick Stelwagon, having renounced. John Stelwagon, brother of Frederick Stelwagon, was a merchant of Philadelphia as early as 1749, an "elder of the Calvanist Congregation of the Hexagon Church in Sassafras Street" in 1763, and the ancestor of another line of interesting descendants. WEST VIRGINIA AND HER RECORDS

By Mrs. Boyd Wees, Elkins, W. Va.*

The hazards of fire and the fortunes of war have destroyed untold volumes of records in the Virginias. The division of States and of Counties has further complicated matters.

In 1776 the newly declared Commonwealth of Virginia met in Williamsburg and passed an act dividing the District of West Augusta into three Counties: Ohio, Monongalia, Youghiogheny. Twenty-five years before this, in 1754, Hampshire County was formed from Frederick and Augusta. From these, the 54 counties in the State have been formed, it is to be hoped, with no more changing boundary lines.

In Hampshire, both fire and War have played havoc. The records at Romney are very disappointing. Many not burned, were carried away during the Civil War, though a few have later been recovered.

Hardy, formerly of Hampshire, has beautifully kept records at Moorefield, dating from 1786.

Monongalia, which formerly included part of Fayette County, Pennsylvania, had her records burned in 1796. From that date, they are well preserved at Morgantown and include a valuable list of Marriage Bonds from 1796-1850. These have been published serially, in D. A. R. Magazine beginning January, 1930. Monongalia also included Marion County in her boundaries, and the older records are still kept in Morgantown.

Since 1840 the Marion County records are kept at the County Seat, Fairmont, formerly called Middletown.

Harrison County has some old and valuable records at Clarksburg, dating from 1784. An old original survey, signed by George Washington, played an important part in a law suit, some years ago. The survey was used as evidence that there were 250 acres in the plot. The Judge ruled that George Washington always told the truth and his veracity was not to be questioned in his Court. The case was dismissed.

The records of Ohio County, at Wheeling, begin with 1776, though vital statistics begin in 1853, as they did in most counties of the State.

Greenbrier records, beginning 1778, are found at Lewisburg, one of the oldest towns in the State. Here is found the oldest church on the Western Waters of the Virginias, the log building used until 1796 when the old Stone Church was built and is yet standing.

Pendleton County with a new courthouse at Franklin has few old records, most of them have been destroyed, although the County dates to 1787.

Randolph, the largest county in the State, has not escaped. The courthouse at Beverly, burned in 1897, and some records not in the vault were destroyed. These were Chancery and Law Suits, where so much valuable information can be found.

In 1902 the county seat was moved to Elkins and the courthouse was completed in 1907. Despite the fire, the records in Randolph are a gold mine of information. Formed in 1787 from Harrison, the Marriage records begin that year, as do Court minutes. Land grants are recorded in 1774 and one in 1760. Prior to 1787 the records were kept in Harrison. Some of the old records in Randolph have been copied and it is to be hoped they all will be, age making it extremely difficult to decipher the pages, yellow with time. In Land grants was found a list of Revolutionary soldiers, the officers having applied for men in their companies. Court minutes have also brought to light names of men who were in Colonial and Revolutionary War, as witness the following: "It is the opinion of the Court that Valentine Stalnaker was a soldier in the Revolution, and an Indian Fighter, and we recommend his application for Pension." A list of Revolutionary soldiers who received pensions in Randolph has also been compiled and these three lists have been published by Randolph County Historical Society in their Magazine of History and Biography. Some hours have been spent recently in examining old books seldom used. Minute Books, Levy, Process, Deed Index, Court Order and many others of interest. A ledger of Robert McCrum used in a law suit in 1823, was very quaint, and many prominent people were his customers. On the fly-leaf was written, "Modesty is one of the chief ornaments of youth," the sentiment alone attesting to its great age. This ledger was also used as Levy Book where one finds land and four horses assessed at 76c.

West Virginia, and especially Randolph County, was the border line between North and South, in the War Between the States. The Battle of Rich Mountain was fought at Beverly and all up and down the Valley the soldiers passed, camped, fought, died. General Lee, McClellan, Rosecrans and many others passed over these mountains and the county is rich in historical association. Near here, John Augustine Washington met his death, and the place has been suitably marked by monument.

The various Patriotic Societies purchased a book in which valuable records are to be kept in the courthouse.

The Historical Society, the D. A. R., U. D. C., G. A. R., American Legion, Spanish American War Veterans, all have records from original sources, such as Confederate Soldiers of Randolph County, 1861; Militia Roll of 107th Regt. June 4, 1852; Superscription Papers for Second Congregation on Tygarts Valley; Revolutionary Soldiers compiled from Land Grants; Spanish American Veterans, Roster of Co. in this county; World War Soldiers of Randolph County; etc., etc.

The burning of the State Capitol in Charleston in 1921 was a calamity. Many valuable records were destroyed that can never be replaced. The County records dating 1789 were not included in this, however.

Kanawha County was named for its principal River. It was here in the early 1770's that George Washington surveyed over 28,000 acres of land to be given soldiers who took part in French and Indian War, and who were given the grants under the Dinwiddies Proclamation of 1754.

West Virginia was fortunate in having as State Historian and Archivist Virgil A. Lewis, who, in his three Reports of the Department, has given us in volumn 3, "The Soldiery of West Virginia in French and Indian War; The Whiskey Insurrection; The Second War with England; The War with Mexico; and Addenda relating to West Virginians in Civil War." Unfortunately the book is out of print, although I hope it may be found in some of the larger libraries.

NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL HEADQUARTERS AND ENDOWMENT

The National Genealogical Society was incorporated in 1903 (Certificate recorded in D. C. June 16, 1904), and it will complete Vol. XX, of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly with the December issue. The National Archives building is in course of construction as part of an enormous development of the Nation's Capital. The latter has very extensive, priceless archives and other records making imperative the need for a strong, well endowed NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL organization and building in the Capitol City. Please remember the N. G. S. with gifts and bequests in your will, and especially before you close your work upon earth; also assure the preservation and publication of important research, legally assured. (Editor)

Dear Mrs. Nunneley,

Your query in the February issue of the DAR Magazine was most interesting. My husband's (Harold M. Mathis) great, great grandmother was Sarah Ann Rose. Her parents were Enos and Rachel Stout Rose from Hunterdon County, New Jersey. Sarah Ann Rose was born in 1814 near Frenchtown in Hunterdon County and died in Macoupin County, Illinois in 1895. Her brother, Andrew Jackson Rose, also came from New Jersey to Illinois in 1835. In fact, the family left New Jersey in May of 1835, going to Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and down the Ohio River. At Louisville Enos Rose took sick with cholera and died. He is buried on the banks of the Ohio River in Indiana.

Sarah Ann Rose married Arter Taylor February 13, 1836, in Macoupin County, Illinois. Sarah died March 15, 1895, and is buried in the Wheeler Cemetery in Macoupin County. Her mother, Rachel Stout Rose, was born in 1789 and died in 1865, and is also buried in the Wheeler Cemetery.

I am wondering if there is a connection between your Charles Rose, and Enos Rose since they are both from Hunterdon County, New Jersey. I do not know when Enos was born or where he was born. I am also wondering where they came from in Europe. If you believe there could be a connection, I would appreciate hearing from you.

How are you coming with your Prairie Pioneer Application? This project has been a whopping success.

Sincerely,

Reba Mathis

I joined DAR on Charles Rose of Hunterdon County, NJ, but have still not been able to prove that he is a son of Ezekiel 3 Rose, though it is thought by everyone that he is such. Can't even prove who his wife is - a Charles Rose did marry one Rebecca Mulliner in New Jersey, 18 Jan 1781, but have no idea if it is MY Charles or not.

You may already have all of the information I am sending, all pretty much unproven, except for the wills and marriages of Hunterdon Co., but would really appreciate any further information you might be able to add to the story, which would be real proofs.

Concerning the Prairie Pioneer application, I am still so interested in doing it, but my Mother and sitter have both died of cancer since June and I am a bit "out of it" for the past several months. Mom just died on 19 Feb., and was my greatest genealogical fan. It threw me for a loop and have made myself get back to business after many months of doing nothing genealogically. Though she was so pleased that I proved Charles Rose for my DAR membership in October (while she was still alert enough to be pleased) she still had such hope that I would find much on the Hendricks of Illinois. I never was able to do that, other than to know they came from Kentucky to St. Clair Co., by 1840. After I get a bit caught up with correspondence and such, I will try to get my Prairie Pioneer papers together and get them in.

Do you know the name, Rosemary Lockyer? She appears to have given the material for the Enos Rose family in the above quoted report. If you do not have her name. I will try to obtain her address. The report is not dated, so have notidea when she donated the information.

Hope some of the items will help.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Reba,

Received your letter concerning my query in the February issue of the DAR Magazine about Charles Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ and Monongalia, VA, (now W.VA).

It is thought, though unproven, that my Charles Rose is a brother to Ezekiel Rose, father of Enos Rose who married, probably, Rachel Stout, on 3 Feb 1810, in Hunterdon Co., NJ.

I have a research report from the Rose Family Association of San Jose, CA, which suggests the ancestry could be as follows:

Dear Verna -

Got your letters, the goodies and the check. I will order the Dogan DAR papers and hope they contain good items for your research.

I am so sad, sick and miserable. Mom has not felt good since my sister, Nancy, died June 2, and even before. We all just thought, along with her, that her feelings were just the loss of her first "baby" at the age of 45. Not so, Mom also, has cancer, and probably had it even before Nancy. Her right kidney is totally involved, with it having metastasized to both lungs. She fainted twice on Sept. 10 and was put in the hospital at Drumright, transferred to St. John's in Tulsa on the 13th. A body scan was done which revealed the problem. They dismissed her on Thursday, the 16th. No surgery or cobalt. The internist and cancer specialist said it would not be very long. My niece who works in the surgery intensive care unit at St. John's got us the best to be had, so we have no questions. They have started her on an oral chemotherapy which has no side effects (such as hair loss, etc.) and may (?) stop the spread to other organs. No guarantee - but she agreed. Mom cornered me, alone, and made me promise not to make Dad, 82, go to a nursing home when she dies. She said, since I am the oldest, it is my decision, and she has worried for the ten years since he has been in poor health that she would find him in the garden or greenhouse dead - she said now it is our turn to worry about that. He does a lot of the cooking and, though sickly, a tough gentleman. I pounced on my sisters and told them Mom's wishes - after a bit of talking, they agreed. Mom said that it would be mean to move him, and what difference did it make at 82 if he died in his bed, garden or greenhouse. God, they are tough. Dad, who has been not too healthy for 10 years, has suddenly become the boss within the past ten days and bossed me around the entire time I was there. It was beautiful!

Mom's sister (the only remaining of the family of eight) came from Temple, Texas and is still there. She is 78, so don't think she can hold up too long. They have been like a couple of teenagers. They will go in the bedroom and lay across the bed and talk and giggle and remember. It is wonderful for them to spend such time together. I'm just glad that Aunt Ruth is in good enough health to have made the trip and help us and Mom.

My sister from Louisiana arrived Friday and will stay for several days, so I came back to Bartlesville and work. I've used all of my vacation and family sick leave for the entire year on Nancy and Mom. I have none left. I have no idea what I will do now. I talked to my boss today about a leave of absence without pay and he looked "shocked". The city, as with any government employment (including schools) is ugly about leaves. When I got back today, after 10 days off, found my work really stacked up. I am the only one who processes books for the library - would it close without me - not likely! I truly need the job, as husband R. D., after 30 years has asked me for a divorce. He has asked before, but feel he is earnest about his wishes this time. I can't worry about it now. I've a big thing before me concerning Mom and he is gentleman enough and a good man to help me through this tough time, I know him a bunch.

I will not being doing any genealogy, probably, for a while. Mom loves my work and spent the days after Aunt Ruth arrived, bragging about my Charles Rose thing, which Auntie R. said the family had known for years that we were eligible for DAR, but no one had proved, so will probably still be "looking", but not actively doing a thing.

Please write - when you've time.

Love

Mary

A GUIDE TO THE COUNTIES OF VIRGINIA

West Virginia

Monongalia County was formed in 1776 from a portion of the western part of Augusta County which had been set apart as the District of West Augusta. In 1779 and 1780 additional portions of Augusta County were added to Monongalia. It then included the present counties of Barbour, Harrison, Lewis, Marion, Preston, Randolph, Taylor and Upshur and parts of Braxton, Doddridge and Webster. In 1784 Harrison County was formed from Monongalia and in 1800 an additional portion of Monongalia County was added to Harrison. Preston County was created from Monongalia in 1818 and in 1841 the portion of Monongalia east of Laurel Hill Mountains and north of the Cheat River was added to Preston. In 1842 Marion County was formed in part from the southern territory of Monongalia County and in 1847 a change in the boundary between the two counties was made so as to include all territory on the waters of Buffalo Creek in Marion.

Monongalia Historical Society, Sesqui Centennial of Monongalia County ... 1776-1926 (Morgantown, 1928) contains information about the county.

COURT RECORDS (at County Court House at Morgantown; the records before 1796 were destroyed by fire): Deeds are complete from 1796 and the early books contain many re-recordings back to 1788. General indexes cover 1796-1935 and subsequent volumes.

Wills are complete from 1796 and there is a general index. Early wills are briefly abstracted in West Virginia History, v. 20, pp. 46-52, 130-37, 259-64.

West Virginia

THE CHEAT RIVER DAM.

The State Line Dam, constructed in 1924-26, transformed the historic old Cheat River, in Monongalia County, into a lake. "The old lower Cheat from Squirrel Rock and Grassy Island to the Pennsylvania line-the Cheat which was known to the Indians for centuries before the white man came, to the Deckers and Morgans and the early pioneers, to George Washington, and four generations after the founding of Morgantown-is now only a memory. Its channel, cut by the flow of water for centuries, is now partly hidden in the bottom of the lake....Its contour has changed to something new and strange. Its sandy beaches, along which children for generations have waded and played and spashed in dark waters, and where youth has bathed and sunned and made love, have been obliterated. Some of its great bordering rocks, where men and women have lounged and dreamed and chiseled their names, have been covered by the waters of the new lake. The old river, so long chiefly useful as a playground, has been transformed into a reservoir of power and harnessed for the work of the new industrial era."[8]

The Cheat River enterprise has been discussed for many years, almost as far back as the very beginning of the use of electricity in the county. Morgantown's first tiney electric plant, on the Monongahela River near the university campus, went into operation in June 1892, furnishing lights fot the university buildings, the courthouse, and several private homes. Demand for electricity, for light and power, increased rapidly; soon a larger plant was built on Deckers Creek.

Cheat River, with its great and rapid fall, was early looked upon as a source of cheat and abundant power. The river rises in northern Pocahontas County at an elevation of considerably over 4,000 feet above sea level, and falls to 780 feet at its mouth. From Parsons to Rowlesburg the river falls from 1,630 to 1,360 feet in a distance of 33 miles, at the rate of about 8 feet a mile. From Rowlesburg to the state line it falls from 1,360 to 787 feet, in a distance of 40 miles, or at the rate of 14 feet to the mile. The total area of the drainage basin is over 1,400 square miles and the rainfall ranged from forty to sixty inches, so that it was recognized that there existed a great potential for power development.

"A project of hydro=electric development, gigantic in its scope, to augument the immense West Prnn Traction and Water Power Company plants of J.S. and W.S. Kuhn, of this city, is progressing in the Cheat River district wheregy practically the whole river is to be harnessed to supply three big power plants. The first of these, located near Cheat Haven, just over the West Virginia state line, is now under construction, and two other plants of equal capacity are to follow as soon as this initial plant is put into operation.

"Work is now in progress on a monster dam on the Cheat River to be located about a mile above Cheat Haven. This will be known as the State Line Plant. Situated 58 miles south of Pittsburgh and 60 miles from Wheeling, it is planned and heat lines that will supply practically every town and public service company within its radius. In addition, a standard-gauge railroad is now being built up the bank of the Cheat River from the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to the mouth of big Sandy, in the Cheat Mountains."[9]

Other dams were projected at Beaver Hole, nine miles above the state line, and at the mouth of Big Sandy Creek, seven miles farther on. It was estimated that these three power plants would have a capacity of 150,000 horsepower. The company had already a capacity of 50,000 horsepower from steam generatators, so this would give it a total of about 2000,000 horsepower.

These plans, however, were slow in developing and in the end only one dam was constructed. Although, in 1912, the prediction was that all three would be completed within three years, it was really nearly a decade and a half before the first one was done.

By the dam, which was essentially completed in 1926, the river was backed up so as to create a lake about thirteen miles long and from one quarter to one half of a mile wide. It was named by the power company Lake Lynn (honoring Albert M. Lynn, President of the West Penn Company0, but was always referred to by the general public as Cheat Lake.[10]

Cheat Lake has a surface area of 1,730 acreas and at the time of impoundment had a total capacity of 73,000 feet. The head-water elevation of the reservoir was 870 feet, the tail-water elevation 782 feet, the normal power head 81.5 feet. The hydroelectric plant was normally operated during week-day afternoon peak load periods and the reservoir refilled during the off-peak periods. When the stream flow was greater than usual, the plant was operated to obtain maximum energy from the available water.

Recreational uses, as boating, bathing, and fishing were expected to develop coincidentally with the industrial uses, but these were delayed somewhat by the timber and heavy vegetation which covered the riverbanks and flooded bottomlands, and which was not removed before flooding, Dead tree trucks and other debris for some time created hazards for boats and bathers. Fishing was to be a permanent disappointment.

For instance, something on Court Minutes would be followed by a list from 'Deeds" but no further explanation. We had trouble finding the references from Court Minutes. Found only the item from Vol. 1 as abstracted above. Must go to the county and examine their index there.

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Thank you for your request for research and patience as I have been swamped with requests and have just so much extra time. I'm sorry to dissapoint you but I did not locate the County Court books in question.

I want to assure you that they are diffiently not at the Court House and I'll tell you why I'm so sure. I worked in the County Clerks office for six year (up until 6 months ago) and my father was the clerk for 15 years and I have been through every inch of the office and vaults. When your friend noticed books out that werent there before it's because I slowly brought them out of the vaults so we genealogists could have better access to them.

Anyway, I didn't remember off hand which numbers did exist so I went to the Court House to check for myself and sure enough no 15 or 19. I then went to Colson Hall and went through the index of court records they have on hand. I could not find the information you wanted. I did find a bond that Rebecca Rose signed as executrix for Charles Rose and made a copy. I made note of all information on any Charles Rose that was in the index. Probably two different Charles' as he died in 1816.

The signature of Charles Rose on the marriage bond of 13 Jan 1781 of Charles Rose/Rebeckah Mulliner appears quite similar to the signature of the Charles Rose who signed the Revolutionary War roster of Col. Chambers' Battalion, Capt. John Phillips Company.

The roster copy, enclosed, has already been sent to you previously, and as I recall was a much better copy than what I am sending.

I used a copy of this roster from the New Jersey Archives as one of my proofs for admission to DAR and feel rather sure that they, the marriage bond and the roster, are signed by the same man.

I work with a gentleman who has done a bit of study on graphology and he feels pretty certain that the signatures were made by one person. He found the following in both signatures;

clear rounded letters
halting rhythm less than average slant for that period in history same capital R same r within the name Charles same small s ending

Can hardly believe that Roxanne finally sent the research papers. I am glad I didn't blow my top, since they did arrive just as I was about to do something.

Let me know what you think of the enclosed items. Some of the copies are poor - but so were the copies she sent from the Archives. Guess we should feel lucky to even have such old records still available.

Dear Roxanne,

Sorry for the long delay in sending the check for $15.00 for the last research work done for me on Charles Rose, Hunterdon County and Monongalia County, VA. My mother died in February and after losing my sister in June, 1982, it was such a sad time for our family. Mother apparently had cancer the entire time my sister, Nancy was ill, also with cancer, and we had no idea. Mom was my greatest genealogical fan and I miss her very much and miss sharing my family finds with her. It has been a chore to return to genealogy, but know she is cheering me on, even yet. Your assistance in my research on Charles Rose and my acceptance into DAR made her proud and I really want to thank you for the work you did to make it possible. Mom did not have time to join DAR, but my ppers arrived while she was still very alert and shw felt that they were hers, too!

Now to Charles again - I am rather at a loss to know where to go from here. Your chronology is quite good and the period from 1784 (signed petition to receive pay in Hunterdon Co) until 1796 (purchased land in Monongalia Co) leaves me with 12 lost years. Christine Rose of the Rose Family Assoc., has just returned from a trip to research the Roses of Monongalia Co. VA, Fayette Co. PA, Hunterdon Co. and Sussex Co. NJ. I have only, so far, received the Monongalia report. She found, among other items in Monongalia Co. that Charles Rose, for himself, and John Davis entered 300 acres as part of Land Office Treasury Warrant 7068½ on 4 March 1795. Sure wish I could find a copy of that warrant to find out the rights on which it was issued and due. It apparently is not listed in the courts of Monongalia Co. as Chris did not find it. I suppose it may be in the courts of whatever state he was living in at the time. The first census on which Charles is listed is 1810 Monongalia Co. VA. Where he was in 1790 is a good guess.

Thanks for the work done and will probably ask for more, but need to really get this together for now. If you have suggestions, please send them to me. I still need help!

Sincerely, Mary

Dear Roxanne,

On 31 January 1982, I mailed to you, information concerning my ancestor Charles Rose and wife Rebecca who were from New Jersey to Monongalia, County, Virginia, along with my check in the amount of $40.00 for four hours research. You advised that the available date for starting such research would be mid-March or upon receipt of my check, to schedule a starting time. I enclosed an SASE for you to inform me of the additional information and the schedule of my work.

I have tried this date to contact you by telephone, but you were not at home. If something had delayed the start of my research, I would appreciate some correspondence concerning this fact as it has been several months since our last contact.

I am still very interested in the research being done, but would like to hear just what the status is at this date.

Thank you for your prompt reply.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Roxanne:

Sorry for the delay in sending your check and deciding about the future research, but had dental surgery on 5 July and it was a bit tougher than I had planned or the surgeon expected. It took a bit longer to get back to work and business than I had expected.

I know your time for the past weeks and months must really not have been your own with the illness of your mother. I do hope the future for all is much better.

I have gone over and over the material you sent concerning Charles Rose of Monongalia Co., VA and possibly, Hunterdon Co., NJ. I am really thrilled because I still think we are on the right track, but think we need to dig deeper. I am just not sure how much I want to "invest" on what may not be the right track. I just am almost certain my Charles Rose is the same as appears in both counties.

I am enclosing the pension application papers of Rebecca Rose, widow of Charles, R.9010 - it contains little. About the only thing it does prove, is the fact that Charles was of Hunterdon Co. (per the deposition of Isaac Horner) and that Rebecca was of Monongalia Co. VA and Fayette Co. PA. Is this proof that they are one and the same or am I just guessing?

I am also, enclosing research reports from the Rose Family Association on Charles Rose and Ezekiel Rose. As I have indicated, please do not copy them for others seeking Rose research assistance. We keep our Rose group going by selling these reports, so free copies really hurt us, but thought they might assist your research for Charles.

Now to our future research, I think I will follow your suggestions and include one of my own. Please check for the following:

> Examine abstract of Bethlehem Twp Minute Book for Rose/Mulliner names
> Examine [illegible] Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey for Rose/Mulliner names.
> See if there is a will for a Mulliner/Mullinar/Mullinner in Hunterdon Co. which lists children, ie, Rebecca, etc.
> View the RW papers of Archibald Finley of PA. Copy the letter of Mrs. C.C. VanScoy written in 1930, pertaining to Finley and Charles Rose. See Rebecca Rose's application papers which I have enclosed and marked concerning the letter.
> Examine Mulliner female marriage bonds for common thread or piece of data.

If the requested research items begin to extend beyond the additional four hours I am requesting, please notify me before continuing and try to give me an estimate of the rest of the cost. I have just about expended my limit on the research for the present. I am quite interested in the letter of Mrs. VanScoy, though it probably has no information.

I am enclosing my check in the amount of $55.00, which is for an additional four hours and the 15.00 owed for the past research.

The local news concerning New Jersey has been dreadful the past few days - no water in one area and terrible heat. Hope you are cool and wet!

Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Friend:

I wanted to let you know that our genealogical research project has been delayed due to family illness.

For the past five weeks my Mother has been hospitalized in an intensive care unit at Trenton and only today was considered recovered enough to be moved to a regular nursing facility. During these past weeks when time was found to work, the concentration necessary to accomplish genealogical research was beyond me. However, now that the situation appears more positive, I will begin to pick up where I dropped things back in May.

I thank you for your patience and please know that as soon as possible I will be working on your project.

Re: ROSE

Dear Mary:

I'm sorry to have missed your call which I see by your letter was 12 April. I received your letter yesterday meaning it took over a week to arrive.

Your check and letter arrived on February 4 and in the time since I had written you my scheduled work was increased. Your job is on for the week of May 10. I know how anxious you are to have news on your ancestors! I just finished several hours' work on another Rose problem, some later than your Charles--Benjamin, b 1816, d 1896. I was looking for his father and mother. Although we are sure he fits into the Ezekial Rose family, we haven't yet pinned down the parents.

Sincerely,

Roxanne

Dear Roxanne:

Thank you for your letter of 21 April telling me of the current status of my research request. I appreciate the prompt reply, and anxiously await "my turn".

I have gone through my Rose material in search of any information about the Benjamin, b 1816, d 1896, who might be a member of the Ezekial Rose family. I came up with a blank. Also, checked the Rose Family Bulletins which I have and though there are several Benjamin's listed, they are not within the same time period.

The Rose Family Association of California is in the process of going on computer and I feel sure that many hidden Roses will surface when their programs are complete. It is almost impossible to successfully "file" everyone in file cabinets. Have hopes that all of my Charles Rose and your searched for, Benjamin, will fall in place.

Since the Ezekial Rose of Hunterdon had only three sons, Ezekiel, Jonathan and Charles, and Charles and Jonathan supposedly moved on, the Benjamin must be of the family of Ezekiel Rose who married Mary Field, 18 Nov 1772. Ezekiel and Mary Field Rose had sons, Seth, Ezekiel, Enos and John. Of that family, I think Ezekiel's family went to Indiana (some were on the 1850 census of St. Joseph Co., IND, including his wife, he apparently deceased), and Enos died in Illinois in 1835. I know nothing of Seth or John Rose, who may have stayed in NJ. A correction, Enos was enroute to Illinois from Frenchtown, but died in Indiana in 1835. The family of Enos went to Macoupin Co., Illinois.

I have some information concerning the Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon who married Mary Fidler, dau of John Fidler, Sr. and who I feel (feelings don't count[just must be the parents of my Charles - now it's up to you!

Thanks again for the letter and will add Benjamin, 1816-1896, to my list of Rose names to take notice of while looking.

Looking forward to your report -

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Nine days for first class mail from Oklahoma to New Jersey is a bit sad. Recently received a package from Kansas which took 15 days - it is only 4½ hours driving time from Bartlesville to the Kansas location. I would say our postal service isn't in very good shape.

Re: ROSE, CHARLES

Dear Mrs. Nunnely:

I am pleased to know my ad in the Genealogical Helper is bringing us together. As far as I know, I am the only person doing genealogical research for others in Hunterdon. So many people have their roots here! I hope I'll be able to help you.

I am aware of a Charles Rose here in Hunterdon. He married Rebekah Mulliner 13 January 1786. He may well have gone to Virginia. He had a brother, Jonathan. who migrated to Mason County, Kentucky, so some of them had the wanderlust.

My hourly rate is $10, and I do not charge travel expenses for trips to Flemington or Trenton. Flemington is where the County Historical Society and the County PUblic records are located and Trenton is where the State Archives & History Bureau is located.

I usually suggest to prospective clients that they deposit a sum to cover several hours work--three or four hours. This will take us through the various indices to public records in Flemington and the Historical Society genealogical files. I provide a report of sources examined, make suggestions for further study if warranted, etc.

I hope I may be of service to you. I am scheduled through mid-March so please know it will be a while before I could get to your searching. I usually schedule research when I recieve the client's deposit.

Sincerely,

Roxanne

Dear Roxanne:

Thank you for your letter of 23 January, concerning my request for information about research on my Charles Rose family of New Jersey. I am enclosing my check in the amount of $40.00 for four hours research and wish to be included on your schedule which you estimate to be mid-March as a starting date for my research.

Due to my lack of knowledge of New Jersey records, my research to date had not been too successful. Much of the information I have gained has come from the Rose Family Association of California and from distant cousins who are researching the same line, also from published records, which see enclosed.

I am enclosing the bulk of the information to this point concerning this family that I am interested in - and hope you can put it in some perspective. I have indicated the records I now have so that no duplication will occur.

I am enclosing an SASE for comments after you have reviewed the material and welcome any suggestions before your research begins.

Mary

Dear Mrs. Carkhuff:

I obtained your name from the Genealogical Helper of July/August 1981 issue, page 58, which states that you do research in Hunterdon County, New Jersey.

I am doing research on the Rose family of Monongalia, Virginia, now West Virginia, and believe them to have come from Hunterdon County. For this reason, I have need of a researcher in this county and wish to know your availability and prices for such research.

I think that perhaps if someone got into the Hunterdon County land records, more might be learned. In these records something might be learned for instance that would show Charles Rose of Hunterdon living in Monongalia County, Va.

If you are not available to do research, please recommend someone who you feel is qualified.

Am enclosing an SASE for your convenience to reply.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

West Virginia - Another State

By John W. Heisey - From Tri-State Trader
March 12, 1983

Having recently looked at some resource centers in Virginia, it seems logical to step across the state line into West Virginia. This then becomes a continuation of our data on Virginia, as West Virginia was made into a separate state from the western and northwestern part of Virginia in 1863.

At present there are 55 counties in West Virginia. Of these, only ten were counties under Virginia jurisdiction. These ten counties, and their parent Virginia counties, are: Hampshire (formed from Frederick County, Va. in 1753), Berkeley (formed from Frederick County in 1772), Monongalia (formed from the District of West Augusta, Va. in 1776), Ohio (formed from the District of West Augusta in 1777), Pendleton (formed from Augusta County, Va. and Hardy County W. Va. in 1787), Kanawa (formed from Montgomery County, Va. in 1788), Pocohontas (formed from Bath County, Va. in 1821), Logan (formed partly from Giles County, Va. in 1824), Mercer (formed from Tazewell and Giles Counties, Va. in 1837), and McDowell (formed from Tazewell County, Va. in 1858).

Any research in these counties for periods before 1863 must be done in Virginia sources. For example, the federal census lists from 1790 to 1860, when still extant, show West Virginia counties in Virginia listings. This means that the first federal census for West Virginia was taken in 1870, and the same is true for Mortality schedules.

Vital records for West Virginia are found in the Division of Vital Statistics, State Health Department, Charleston WV 25301, and these include birth and death records from 1917 to the present. For any birth and death records before 1917, write to the county clerk of the appropriate county. A few counties (namely Cabell, Gilmer, Hancock, Raleigh, Ritchie, and Wood) began recording births and deaths before 1850, while a few more began between that date and 1860.

If you are searching for Church records, the best source would be the Virginia State Library and Archives, Richmond, Va 23219. Among their holdings pertaining to West Virginia are Baptist records for Berkeley County from 1805 to 1928. They also have many records at the West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, WV 26201.

In the University of West Virginia library, Morgantown, WV 26505, is a huge grouping of West Virginia data as well as much Virginia information on microfilm from 1623 to 1933. There are also many church, family Bible, and local records, as well as transcripts of tombstone inscriptions, births, deaths, wills, and such material. Here, too, is a large collection of file cards on personal names and subject matter found in a small number of West Virginia county court ledgers. Write for inforation as to which counties are carded and what name you seek. Perhaps you may receive printout copies of that data.

The West Virginia Department of Archives and History, Captiol Building, Charleston, WV 25305 has many records for the entire state, including local, state and county histories, family histories, and a file on family data. Also kept here are county records from the West Virginia Historical Society's collections.

More state, county, and local records and family information may be found in the genealogical section of the Huntington Public Library, 900 5th Ave., Huntington WV 25701. Although their county records are limited to one county, they do have much other genealogical data pertaining to other parts of West Virginia, as well as to other parts of the eastern United States.

Back in Virginia we find that the Virginia State Library, 12th and Capitol Sts., Richmond Va 23219, has tax records and land tax books for West Virginia, prior to 1863, and also some church records and militia rolls for early West Virginia counties. Write them for information as to their specific holdings for West Virginia if you find it necessary.

Another excellent source for West Virginia data is the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah. In addition to the ususal local, county and state records filmed over the years, this organization has filmed many private collections. The W. Guy Tetrick Collection of all sorts of data pertaining to West Virginia genealogy is quite helpful. If you cannot get these records on microfilm from Salt Lake City, go to the University of West Virginia library at Morgantown and use them there.

There are a number of historical and genealogical societies in West Virginia. To find out what is available, plus addresses, I recommend you check your local library for a listing of historical and genealogical societies in the United States. The peridically-issued Directory of Historical Societies and Agencies in the United States and Canada is probably the best source for such addresses. It is published by the American Association for State and Local History, Inc., Nashville, TN 37203.

As in any genealogical research, it is always best and most enjoyable to do research yourself. If, for some reasons, you cannot or do not wish to do your own searching, write to the West Virginia State Library for a listing of genealogists who might be able to assist you.

My final reminder to you is this: Don't write off West Virginia as a lost cause just because you do not know of any ancestors there. Remember that many people passed through West Virginia territory on their way to somewhere else. Your ancestors may have been among those just passing through. They may also have stayed a short time in the state. You will never know unless you check records for them.

Dear Mrs. Malone:

I am writing in response to your advertisement in the May-June, 1986, Genealogical Helper, page 150.

I have searched for years for a deposition taken in court for the request of a pension for one Rebecca Rose, widow of Charles Rose, a Revolutionary War soldier who died in Monongalia County. I have finally found the location by book number that I believe is my long searched for item.

I am very interested in having someone research for this information and would like your rates and details for work in this county.

Enclosed is my SASE and will be anxious to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Ms. Malone:

I wrote to you in June, 1986 concerning research on my Rose family who lived in Monongalia County. Your letter was received in July in which you said you could do some research for me. Due to several family events, including surgery for my father, and the onset of a heavy work load (our public library is going on computer), I suddenly found myself with too few hours in my day.

I hope you are still doing research and with such in mind, I am enclosing my check in the amount of $20.00 for you to begin that work when you find available time. I realize that you have probably had many requests since your ad appeared in the Helper, so will be as patient as necessary.

In May, 1986, Christine Rose, of the Rose Family Association of San Jose, CA, at my request, did research for me in Monongalia County while doing the yearly Rose research across the US.

During her visit, she may have found what I have searched for over the years. But, due to an election being held, she was unable to go to a basement vault and look at a Court Order book which I believe may hold the deposition given by my Revolutionary ancestors wife in her application for a pension.

I am enclosing a copy of the roughly typed letter from Christine Rose (on her traveling portable typewriter) which details the item I believe I need concerning this affidavit.

The items are:

County Court Order Book #15	page 299 / Affidavit of Rebecca Rose (wife of Charles)
County Court Order Book #15	page 412/ Pertaining to Jonathan Rose (bro of Charles ?)
County Court Order Book #19	page 116 / Pertaining to Rev. Thomas Rose (son of Charles ?)

Rebecca Rose was denied a pension on her husband's Revolutionary service from New Jersey because she was unable to state the period, length, localities and names of company and field officers of her husband, Charles Rose, during his service in Hunterdon County, NJ.

Charles Rose died in Monongalia Co., in 1816 and Rebecca died after May 28, 1847 when the Pension Office sent a letter to her attorney, John K. Ewing of Uniontown, PA. telling him that they were returning her declaration which must be given before the single magistrate ~~before~~ an approved by a court during it session.

Hope you can help and will be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Cheryl,

I received your letter today with the bad news that indeed, Books 15 and 19 are missing. I had so hoped that they would be found stashed away in that vault. I thank you for looking further, even though you really knew that they were not extant.

I was so surprised to find that you must certainly be the daughter of Tom Jackson, the former County Clerk of Monongalia County. I was very sad when I wrote and found a new clerk was there and received some suggestions on avenues of research, but no help. Of all the states and counties I have researched, Tom Jackson's Monongalia was by far the most receptive to this genealogist and answered immediately. I have only made one request of Monongalia County since he left.

Now back to the Charles Rose family...I would like to have copies of the material on the six references you found in the indexes. Though they are minor events, they still place this family actively in Monongalia during their lives and I do not have copies of any of the items you listed.

I am enclosing my check for an additional $20.00 for copies of the items that you found and do have one more request. Some years ago I had a letter from a descendant of Frederick (?) Ice, supposedly the first white child born in what is now West Virginia. A bronze marker is located near a place called Cheat Lake which is near Morgantown, I am told. I would like to know when the lake was created and by whom. Was it a US Corp of Engineer project, a state project or natural impoundment? The lady who wrote to me said on her visit to West Virginia to see the location of her Ice ancestors, she was told that the cemetery where the Ices and where my Rose family members were also, surely buried since they were neighbors of the Ices was probably under the Cheat Lake. Unless the lakes was done many, many years ago, relocation is done. I did work for the Corp of Engineers on just such projects, locating surviving family members to obtain permission for relocation before the lake was impounded. If it was a government project, there are records somewhere about the relocation and I may be able to find them.

I want to thank you for your research and there is no rush to obtain copies of the court records for which you sent the index or the information about the Cheat Lake. Just when time allows.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Please forgive the delay in getting your information back to you. I got the copies immedietly and I injured myself and was unable to do anything because of an old injury which required complete bed rest. In technical terms it was an "Exacerbation of an old Rotary Cuff Tear." This effects my whole right arm as it is numb and all the muscles in my right front and back. By the way the original injury was due to lifting the heavy books at the court house.

I hope the copies help you and I know the information on the lake hasn't been to my satisfaction and I intend to keep on trying to find out better information if at all possible. The libraries do not have much at all on the lake. The only thing I have been able to find is from Dr. Earl Core's book on Monongalia county which is enclosed. I will continue to keep my eyes open for more information.

Once again please except my apology for the delay. It couldn't be helped but I just had to give it complete healing time. Today was my first day back to work after being off three weeks doing nothing. Boring!!!

If I found more information I feel you are looking for on the lake I will send it at no additional charge. The copies were $1.20 and I would appreciate 2 extra stamps to cover postage.

Thank you for you patience.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Jackson Malone

Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I read in the last issue of the D.A.R. Magazine your request for information concerning burial location of Charles Rose, a Revolutionary soldier. You also stated that he owned land near Ice's Ferry (at the forks of the Cheat River on Patterson Creek in West Virginia.

Am not sure that I can help you, but will try.

About three years ago my husband and I were in Morgantown, West Virginia; and went out to Cheat River (now Cheat Lake) about eight miles northeast of town to Ice's Ferry. Frederick Ice, who established Ice's Ferry in 1759 is an ancestor of mine. (I am a 7th generation direct descendent). All that we found was a historical marker of Ice's Ferry with inscription, and a bronze memorial of David Adam Ice -- "first white child born in West Va".

Next day we went down to Fairmont, W. Va. and contacted Glenn D. Lough, who wrote a history of that area entitled "Now and Long ago". He gave me much useful information regarding my family and other early settlers and pioneers there.

From his book, I learned that when

Index to Military men of New Jersey 1775-1815
— Ronald Jackson
[illegible]

INTRODUCTION AND KEY

This volume is a comprehensive index of two old volumes covering seven wars or confrontations from the Revolutionary War to the Naval War with Algiers in 1815 which involved the men from New Jersey. For all wars or conflicts from 1791 to 1815 consult RECORDS OF OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY IN WARS. This was compiled by the office of the Adjutant General of New Jersey and published in 1909 by authority of the New Jersey Legislature. This book contains the records of the officers and men who fought in the following conflicts:

Expedition against the Indians in 1791

Pennsylvania Insurrection in 1794

Naval War with France 1798-1801

Naval War with Tripoli, Africa 1801-1805

War with Great Britain, 1812-1815

Naval War with Algiers, Africa 1815

A copy of this book may be found in most genealogical libraries. There is a wealth of information on these men contained in this volume and is extremely valuable for those men who were killed in action who were never enumerated in any census or tax list.

The men who fought in the Revolutionary War are enumerated in the OFFICIAL REGISTER OF THE OFFICERS AND MEN OF NEW JERSEY IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR. This volume was published in 1872 under the authority of the New Jersey Legislature. The following listing is a table of contents of this book and may serve as an additional help in matching up the page number of the index with the regiment or Battalion in which your ancestor may have served.

I rechecked the 1749 item; he was not a witness as I was thinking, but was named in the will of Thomas Brush:

The will of Thomas Brush of Amwell, Hunterdon County, New Jersey, yeoman, dated 13 April 1749, gives to wife Martha 1/3; also L-80 due Ezekiel Rose; he also gives to son Phillip, mentions son Eliphalet, son Abner, daughters Elizabeth Scidmore, Abigail Killsey, Sarah, Martha and Mary Brush. [Cal. of Wills 1730-1750, N. J. Col. Docs., Vol. -? pp. 70-71 [poss. Vol. II].

I wonder if there is any particular significance attached to this Brush; the name Eliphalet is a L.I. name.

SETTLERS ON THE SOCIETIES TRACT.

In the year 1735 Lewis Morris, Jr., was required to make out a list of those persons who had leased parts of the tract called the "West Jersey Society Lands," for a term of four years. This list contains the names of settlers in what is now Hunterdon county. The amount of land leased in each case ranges from 50 acres to 300. The whole tract comprised nearly all of what is Hunterdon county. Morris affirms that "there were no other families than these 98 except on the Coxe and Kirkbride tract of ten thousand acres." The whole amount leased was only 12,535 acres, but there is no doubt that large portions of the society's lands were unoccupied at that time, so that these families were nearly all the settlers in the

THE ROSE FAMILY

Tichicus Rose was an early settler in the Clarksville area, where he served in Captain Andrew Ferley's Company of Washington County, Pennsylvania, Militia, in the War of the Revolution. He does not appear to have patented any land in the section, but is listed in the 1784 tax list for Morgan Township. He died about 1793, leaving a will that was probated in Washington County on October 10, 1793. (Will Book 1, pp. 202). His wife's name was Catherine ...., and the children named in the will were:

John Rose, of whom later.
Robert Rose.
James Rose.
Elizabeth Rose.
Jeremiah Rose.
Sarah Rose.
Anna Rose.

John Rose, son of Tichicus and Catherine Rose, owned a lot in Clarksville when he died on November 28, 1825, at the age of 61 years, 4 months and 28 days. Three children are named in his will filed in Greene County, November 29, 1825, and his wife, Hannah ......*......, shared in the estate. She and Abraham Young were the administrators. She died April 4, 1847, at the age of 77 years. Both are buried on the Rose farm near Clarksville. The children named (in Will Book 1, Greene County, pp. 276) were:

John Rose, Jr.
Hannah Rose, who married Abraham Young.

David Rose, son of John and Hannah Rose, died May 14, 1879, aged 71 years, 3 months and 9 days. His first wife was Mary M. Hewitt, who died December 12, 1875, aged 69 years, 7 months. She is buried with her husband on the Rose farm. David Rose married a second time, his wife being the former Eliza Greenlee. The following were the children of David and Mary (Hewitt) Rose:

Adam Rose.
Levi Rose.
Demas Rose.
Sarah Rose, who married .... Gardner.
Susannah Rose, who married .... Leighley.
Rebecca Rose, who married William Burson.
Malinda Rose, who married David Porter.
Mary Rose, who married .... Deguid.
Abijah Rose, who married Rebecca Williard.
Hannah Rose, who married Demas Horn.
John Rose, who married Priscilla Litzenberg.

THE WALTON FAMILY

Mr. John Walton of Manchester, Ohio, sent in the record of some of the first Waltons to settle on the Tenmile. He, like numerous other Walton Genealogists, has failed to identify the immediate ancestors of the three Waltons, who made this settlement prior to 1782. He is of the opinion that these three, James Walton, Job Walton, and Amos Walton were brothers, and that they may have come from Northern New Jersey. This may be true and they may have been among the many families from Morris County, New Jersey, who settled in what is now Amwell Township, Washington County, in 1778, as reported in Crumrine. Efforts to connect them with the Quaker family of that name who settled first in Bucks County, Pennsyvania, have been unsuccessful, nor does any connection appear positive with the Moses Walton family of the Shenandoah Valley.

After serving in Captain Abner Howell's Mitilia Company from Amwell Township, Washington County, in whose muster roll for 1782 all three pioneers are listed, Job Walton got a warrant for a tract of land on Ruffs Creek in what is now Washington Township, Greene County. The date of the warrant is September 30, 1786, but the tract was patented later in 1806 to Dennis Smith. Job Walton also served in Captain Benjamin Stites' Morgan Township Militia Company, before joining the migration to Kentucky, where he died in Flemming County in 1815. His wife was Margaret ...., who was from Scotch Plains, New Jersey, as shown by her Kentucky Church record. James Walton disappears from the records after his militia service.

Amos Walton was born about 1751, family tradition says, in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and died in Washington County, Pennsylvania, in 1827. His will was made October 31, 1815, but was never probated; however, there was a settlement of his estate on February 21, 1827, by which his land, lying in both Washington and Greene Counties, was distributed among his five heirs. He and his wife are buried in the old cemetery at the North Tenmile Baptist Church Cemetery, where his tombstone, still partly legible, says he was 76 years of age when he died. His wife was Marcy Lacock, who died June 14, 1838, at the age of 79 years, 9 months and 14 days. They were married before 1776. After coming to the Tenmile Amos Walton served frequent tours of duty with the Frontier Rangers and also, as before noted, had regular service with Captain Abner Howell. (Pennsylvania Archives, Series III, Vol. 23, pp. 310, and Pennsylvania Archives, Series VI, Vol. 2, pp. 120). Two tracts of land were patented to Amos Walton, one of which had been warranted to Rees Gaddis, and adjoined the tract warranted to Amos Walton, February 28, 1785. The land was situated in what is now West Bethlehem Township, Washington County.
